Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction by Men Sara Martín,2025-05-30 Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction by Men No Plans for the Future is the first comprehensive study of the self representation of men in SF novels published in the twenty first century by male authors Exploring a broad selection of writers and works the fourteen chapters present a panoramic overview of men s contributions to current SF and explore their slow but noticeable progress in the representation of gender The impact of feminism and gender studies and the demands of readers have profoundly transformed men s SF which now presents far more caring and vulnerable male characters The old stereotypes are being replaced by a collective reflection on how men and masculinity are changing though the lack of a common agenda results in novels that while exciting and often challenging sometimes miss the chance to imagine a better anti patriarchal pro feminist interracial cooperation American recognition of Japan as a suitable partner depended in part on a positive assessment of its colonial rule of Korea It was not until news of Japan's violent suppression of Koreans soured this perception that the exclusion of Japanese immigrants became possible in the United States Central to these shifts in opinion was the cooperation of various Asian elites aspiring to inclusion in a progressive American empire By examining how Korean Japanese and other nonwhite groups appealed to the United States this book demonstrates that the imperial order sustained itself through a particular form of interracial collaboration that did not disturb the existing racial hierarchy Civil War and the Collapse of the Social Bond Michèle Lowrie, Barbara Vinken, 2022-10-13 Can civil war ever be overcome Can a better order come into being This book explores how the Roman civil wars of the first century BCE laid the template for addressing perennially urgent questions The Roman Republic's collapse and Augustus' new Empire have remained ideological battlegrounds to this day Integrative and disintegrative readings begun in antiquity Vergil and Lucan have left their mark on answers given by Christians Augustine secular republicans Victor Hugo and disillusioned satirists Michel Houellebecq alike France's self understanding as a new Rome republican during the Revolution imperial under successive Napoleons makes it a special case in the Roman tradition The same story returns repeatedly A golden age of restoration glimmers on the horizon but comes in the guise of a decadent oriental empire that reintroduces and exposes everything already wrong under the defunct republic Central to the price of social order is patriarchy's need to subjugate women International Index to Periodicals, 1929
