A Research Paper

ABSTRACT

This research paper deals with Tennessee Williams' treatment of a specimen of tortured people suffering from being stuck in their imaginary thoughts and expectations which are as varied as their dreams. Williams resorts to the art of Expressionism in his play entitled The Glass Menagerie as he uses memories, dreams, illusions as well as symbols and exaggeration to reveal the emotions, pains and discomfort of his characters.

The Glass Menagerie is written to show the miserable life of people live in a world full of frustration and depression, in which failure and fear underlie the atmosphere of 1930s - Europe when it was at the edge of the outbreak of the horrible and devastating World War II (1939-45).

In this play, Williams tries to make people release themselves from their self-deception by going back to spiritual values so that they can achieve happiness and relief in their life though the play's characters fail to do so.
