Andrew Lang, 2010-10-29 Andrew Lang's urge to collect and publish fairy tales was rooted in his own experience with the folk and fairy tales of his home territory along the English Scottish border When Lang began his efforts he was fighting against the critics and educationists of the day who judged the traditional tales unreality brutality and escapism to be harmful for young readers while holding that such stories were beneath the serious consideration of those of mature age Over a generation Lang's books worked a revolution in this public perception The Green Fairy book was written in 1892 This book contains a rich range of classic fairy tales including The Blue Beard The Three Little Pigs and The Story of the Three Bears No matter how far it has traveled whether courtly entertainment or rustic yarn each fairytale contains its lessons as well as its adventures in Charles Deulin's The Little Soldier a soldier learns that an honest fishergirl is preferable to a greedy princess and in Madame D'Aulnoy's The Blue Bird a King and Queen learn the importance of trusting each other THE

GREEN FAIRY BOOK - ANDREW LANG ANDREW LANG, GRANDMA'S TREASURES, 2014-06-21 GRANDMA S TREASURES THE GREEN FAIRY BOOK by Andrew Lang The Tales in this volume are intended for children who will like it is hoped the old stories that have pleased so many generations Andrew Lang FAIRY BOOKS CHILDREN S STORIES FROM ALL AROUND THE WORLD The Blue Fairy Book The Red Fairy Book The Green Fairy Book The Yellow Fairy Book The Pink Fairy Book The Grey Fairy Book The Violet Fairy Book The Crimson Fairy Book The Brown Fairy Book The Orange Fairy Book The Olive Fairy Book The Lilac Fairy Book The Green Fairy Book (Classic Reprint) Andrew Lang, 2015-07-16 Excerpt from The Green Fairy Book Some of the stories were made not only to amuse but to teach goodness You see in the tales how the boy who is kind to beasts and polite and generous and brave always comes best through his trials and no doubt these tales were meant to make their hearers kind unselfish courteous and courageous This is the moral of them But after all we think more as we read them of the diversion than of the lesson There are grown up people now who say that the stories are not good for children because they are not true because there are no witches nor talking beasts and because people are killed in them especially wicked giants But probably you who read the tales know very well how much is true and how much is only make believe and I never yet heard of a child who killed a very tall man merely because Jack killed the giants or who was unkind to his stepmother if he had one because in fairy tales the stepmother is often disagreeable If there are frightful monsters in fairy tales they do not frighten you now because that kind of monster is no longer going about the world whatever he may have done long long ago He has been turned into stone and you may see his remains in museums Therefore I am not afraid that you will be afraid of the magicians and dragons besides you see that a really brave boy or girl was always their master even in the height of their power About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Green Fairy Book Andrew Lang,2018-04-28 This is the third and probably the last of the Fairy Books of many colours First there was the Blue Fairy Book then children you asked for more and we made up the Red Fairy Book and when you wanted more still the Green Fairy Book was put together The stories in all the books are borrowed from many countries some are French some German some Russian some Italian some Scottish some English one Chinese However much these nations differ about trifles they all agree in liking fairy tales The reason no doubt is that men were much like children in their minds long ago long long ago and so before they took to writing newspapers and sermons and novels and long poems they told each other stories such as you read in the fairy books They believed that witches could turn people into beasts that beasts could speak that magic rings could make their owners invisible and all the other wonders in the stories Then as the world became grown up the fairy tales which were not written down would have been quite forgotten but that the old grannies remembered them and told them to the little grandchildren and when they in their turn became grannies they remembered them and told them also In this way these tales are older than reading and writing far older than printing The oldest fairy tales ever written down were written down in Egypt about Joseph s time nearly three thousand five hundred years ago Other fairy stories Homer knew in Greece nearly three thousand years ago and he made them all up into a poem the Odyssey which I hope you will read some day Here you will find the witch who turns men into swine and the man who bores out the big foolish giant s eye and the cap of darkness and the shoes of swiftness that were worn later by Jack the Giant Killer These fairy tales are the oldest stories in the world and as they were first made by men who were childlike for their own amusement so they amuse children still and also grown up people who have not forgotten how they once were children

The Green Fairy Book Andrew Lang, 2021-02-05 Once upon a time there lived a King who was immensely rich He had broad lands and sacksoverflowing with gold and silver but he did not care a bit for all his riches because the Queen hiswife was dead He shut himself up in a little room and knocked his head against the walls for grief until his courtiers were really afraid that he would hurt himself So they hung feather beds between the tapestry and the walls and then he could go on knocking his head as long as it was any consolation to him without coming to much harm All his subjects came to see him and said whatever they thought would comfort him some were grave even gloomy with him and some agreeable even gay but not one could make the least impression upon him Indeed he hardly seemed to hear what they said At last came a lady who was wrapped in a black mantle and seemed to be in the deepest grief She wept and sobbed until even the King's attention was attracted and when she said that far from coming to try and diminish his grief she who had just lost a good husband was come to add her tears to his since she knew what he must be feeling the King redoubled his lamentations Then he told the sorrowful lady long stories about the good qualities of his departed Queen and she in her turn recounted all the virtues of her departed husband and this passed the time so agreeably that the King quite forgot to thump

his head against the feather beds and the lady did not need to wipe the tears from her great blue eyes as often as before By degreesthey came to talking about other things in which the King took an interest and in a wonderfullyshort time the whole kingdom was astonished by the news that the King was married again to thesorrowful lad The Green Fairy Book
