Steven Sangren,2020-08-26 This volume explores the links between individuals families communities and the state in China through ritual and myth Silence and Sacrifice Merav Shohet,2021-04-20 How do families remain close when turbulent forces threaten to tear them apart In this groundbreaking book based on more than a decade of research set in Vietnam Merav Shohet explores what happens across generations to families that survive imperialism war and massive political and economic upheaval Placing personal sacrifice at the center of her story Shohet recounts vivid experiences of conflict love and loss In doing so her work challenges the idea that sacrifice is merely a blood filled religious ritual or patriotic act Today domestic sacrifices made largely by women precariously knot family members together by silencing suffering and naturalizing cross cutting gender age class and political hierarchies In rethinking ordinary ethics this intimate ethnography reveals how quotidian acts of sacrifice help family members forge a sense of continuity in the face of trauma and decades of dramatic change

Competition Law, Regulation and SMEs in the Asia-Pacific Michael T Schaper, 2017-03-09 Small and medium sized enterprises SMEs account for more than 90 per cent of all businesses in the Asia Pacific region an area which is rapidly updating its competition laws and regulations to encourage greater entrepreneurship and open dynamic economies Yet SMEs are almost invisible when those competition policies and laws are developed and enforced SMEs are often quite different businesses than large multinational corporations but their nature significance and characteristics are often overlooked This book seeks to rectify the relative neglect in research and policy discussions on the role of the SME sector in competition policy and law Drawing on contributions from a wide range of competition regulators lawyers academics consultants and advisers to the SME sector it addresses such important issues as perceptions and views of small businesses about competition law regulator engagement and education of the SME sector the link between competition law and economic growth franchising SMEs and competition law issues in enforcing competition law against SMEs the role of Chinese family firms trade professional and industry associations country case studies from Vietnam Singapore Indonesia Malaysia China South Korea Hong Kong SAR Japan and the Pacific Islands

Everyday Masculinities in 21st-Century China Magdalena Wong, 2020-05-04 Everyday Masculinities in 21st Century China The Making of Able Responsible Men argues that a moral dimension in Chinese masculinity is of growing significance in fast changing China Able responsible men those who can create wealth and shoulder responsibilities have replaced the moneyed elite of the earlier reform and opening up era as the dominant male ideal With vivid and highly readable case studies Wong presents a compelling account of the forces that coerce men to live up to the able responsible standard She demonstrates the impact this pressure has on the lives of not only boys and men but also on women and shows how it invites both complicit and resistant reactions The book lays bare the socio political context that nurtures the cultural expressions of hegemonic masculinity under the rule of Xi Jinping The president himself has emerged in public consciousness as the embodiment of the ideal able responsible man Based on anthropological fieldwork in Nanchong Sichuan the book provides new perspectives on many topical issues that China faces These include urbanization labour migration the one child policy love and marriage gender and intergenerational dynamics hierarchical male relationships and the rise of mass displays of nationalism In this richly informative book Dr Wong gives us an intimate picture of masculinities in a contemporary Chinese city She explores the role of wealth in definitions of masculinity the moral dimension in gender imagery the changing desires of women and the role of the state including a striking account of the gender strategies of President Xi More than a local study this book provides valuable ideas for understanding gender men and masculinities in the contemporary world Raewyn Connell University of Sydney Magdalena Wong asks wonderful original questions Her study might be one of the most pioneering investigations into Chinese family relations I have read The strength of her book lies in its insight into kinship and cultural continuities and changes The rich nuanced case studies can make her book become an important addition to our ongoing studies on Chinese family William Jankowiak University of Nevada Las Vegas

Man in Adaptation Yehudi A. Cohen, 2017-07-12 How do specific activities and institutions in which people are involved fit into the overall adaptive strategy of their society What are the particular pressures leading to change in each of these spheres when the group's strategy of adaptation changes What are the human demands made by a hunting gathering strategy that lead to the development of particular family systems modes of social control religious beliefs and practices values and ideologies and personality structures What are the new human demands that lead to the reorganization of these aspects of life as the group moves from one level of development to another Man in Adaptation The Institutional Framework introduces the institutional psychological and ideological dimensions of the strategies of adaptation that have characterized human societies from the earliest known forms of social life to the present Cohen includes topics that are of principal anthropological concern notably marriage law and social control religion and magic value systems personality and art There are no studies that deal with cultural change as such in this book Where possible Cohen includes articles that deal with changes in particular spheres of activity such as family organization law religion and value systems He argues that change is not a special situation Instead culture is change and change is culture and it is unrealistic to study change outside the specific social and technological organization of a given society This volume unifies the subject matter of anthropology within a single and powerful explanatory framework and incorporates the work of the most renowned anthropological experts on man

Chinese Ethics in a Global Context Karl-Heinz Pohl, Anselm Müller, 2022-04-19 How do Chinese and Western ethical traditions interact today In this collection of articles both Chinese and Western scholars carefully examine the issue one of fundamental importance for the mutual understanding between China and the West The volume is the result of the second symposium which focused on a dialogue between China and the West on questions of ethics in particular concerning their commensurability and a possible common ground The first part of the book discusses general problems of ethics in a cross cultural context followed by articles on ethical bases of Chinese and Western societies respectively Further topics range from moral traditions in the context of social transformation in China today to developments in Western societies politics education and religion The last part deals with controversial issues such as human rights vs human duties and medical ethics
