The Image, A Guide to Pseudo-Events in America Daniel Joseph Boorstin, 1971 The Image Frederic Morton, 1971 The Image Daniel G. Boorstin, 1982 Perfect Cities James Gilbert, 1991 In this elegant and sensitive look at the milieu of the World's Columbian Exposition of 1893 James Gilbert examines the three utopias that were designed to bring order to the chaos of urban life The World's Fair itself George Pullman's community for his workers and Dwight Moody's evangelical crusade Gilbert draws upon a rich selection of fiction collective biography architecture photographs and souvenir books to show how these experiments each acted as a middle class prescription for coming to terms with the new cultural diversity and competition resulting from the disruptive forces of technological change commercial enterprise and pluralism Mr Gilbert's splendid book opens the door on a conflicted past and provides an indispensable perspective on the troubled and troubling struggle we face today between old and new unity and diversity Alan Trachtenberg New York Times Perfect Cities is a remarkable account of a struggle for cultural definition Chronicling the byplay between cultural homogeneity and heterogeneity unity and diversity James Gilbert not only throws light on Chicago's past but also provides insight that can be applied to the cultural debates of our own time Adria Bernardi Chicago Tribune What Gilbert has done is to enable the reader to experience the grand utopian visions of the times yet at the same time see the cantankerous reality that made the visions impossible Henry Kisor Chicago Sun Times Toward the Visualization of History Mark Howard Moss, 2008-01-01 This book discusses the impact of visuals on the study of history by examining visual culture and the future of print providing an analysis of photography film television and computer culture The author shows how the visualization of history can become a driving social and cultural force for change The Routledge Handbook of Magazine Research David Abrahamson, Marcia R. Prior-Miller, 2015-06-05 Scholarly engagement with the magazine form has in the last two decades produced a substantial amount of valuable research Authored by leading academic authorities in the study of magazines the chapters in The Routledge Handbook of Magazine Research not only create an architecture to organize and archive the developing field of magazine research but also suggest new avenues of future investigation Each of 33 chapters surveys the last 20 years of scholarship in its subject area identifying the major research themes theoretical developments and interpretive breakthroughs Exploration of the digital challenges and opportunities which currently face the magazine world are woven throughout offering readers a deeper understanding of the magazine form as well as of the sociocultural realities it both mirrors and influences The book includes six sections Methodologies and structures presents theories and models for magazine research in an evolving global context Magazine publishing the people and the work introduces the roles and practices of those involved in the editorial and business sides of magazine publishing Magazines as textual communication surveys the field of contemporary magazines across a range of theoretical perspectives subjects genre and format questions Magazines as visual communication explores cover design photography illustrations and interactivity Pedagogical and curricular perspectives offers insights on undergraduate and graduate teaching topics in magazine research The future of the magazine form speculates on the changing nature of magazine research via its environmental effects audience and transforming platforms Terminal Identity Scott Bukatman, 1993 Scott Bukatman's Terminal Identity referring to both the site of the termination of the conventional subject and the birth of a new subjectivity constructed at the computer terminal or television screen puts to rest any lingering doubts of the significance of science fiction in contemporary cultural studies Demonstrating a comprehensive knowledge both of the history of science fiction narrative from its earliest origins and of cultural theory and philosophy Bukatman redefines the nature of human identity in the Information Age Drawing on a wide range of contemporary theories of the postmodern including Fredric Jameson Donna Haraway and Jean Baudrillard Bukatman begins with the proposition that Western culture is suffering a crisis brought on by advanced electronic technologies Then in a series of chapters richly supported by analyses of literary texts visual arts film video television comics computer games and graphics Bukatman takes the reader on an odyssey that traces the postmodern subject from its current crisis through its close encounters with technology and finally to new self recognition This new virtual subject as Bukatman defines it situates the human and the technological as coexistent codependent and mutually defining Synthesizing the most provocative theories of postmodern culture with a truly encyclopedic treatment of the relevant media

this volume sets a new standard in the study of science fiction a category that itself may be redefined in light of this work Bukatman not only offers the most detailed map to date of the intellectual terrain of postmodern technology studies he arrives at new frontiers providing a propitious launching point for further inquiries into the relationship of electronic technology and culture Science Fiction, Disruption and Tourism Ian Yeoman,Una McMahon-Beattie,Marianna Sigala,2021-12-20 This book examines science fiction s theoretical and ontological backgrounds and how science fiction applies to the future of tourism It recreates and invents the future of tourism in a creative and disruptive manner reconceptualising tourism through alternative and quantum leap thinking that go beyond the normative or accepted view of tourism The chapters focusing on areas such as disruption sustainability and technology draw readers into the unknown future of tourism a future that may be disruptive dystopian or utopian The book brings a new theoretical paradigm to the study of tourism in a post COVID 19 world and can be used to explore frame and even form the future of tourism It will capture the imagination and inspire readers to address tourism s challenges of tomorrow The Palgrave Handbook of Deceptive Communication Tony Docan-Morgan,2019-04-29 Deception and truth telling weave through the fabric of nearly all human interactions and every communication context The Palgrave Handbook of Deceptive Communication unravels the topic of lying and deception in human communication offering an interdisciplinary and comprehensive examination of the field presenting original research and offering direction for future investigation and application Highly prominent and emerging deception scholars from around the world investigate the myriad forms of deceptive behavior cross cultural perspectives on deceit moral dimensions of deceptive communication theoretical approaches to the study of deception and strategies for detecting and deterring deceit Truth telling lies and the many grey areas in between are explored in the contexts of identity formation interpersonal relationships groups and organizations social and mass media marketing advertising law enforcement interrogations court politics and propaganda This handbook is designed for advanced undergraduate and graduate students academics researchers practitioners and anyone interested in the pervasive nature of truth deception and ethics in the modern world People, Places, and Practices in the Arctic Cunera Buijs,Kim van Dam,Frédéric Laugrand,2022-11-30 This collection follows anthropological perspectives on peoples Canadian Inuit Norwegian Sami Yupiit from Alaska and Inuit from Greenland places and practices in the Circumpolar North from colonial times to our post modern era This volume brings together fresh perspectives on theoretical concepts colonial imperial descriptions collaborative work of non Indigenous and Indigenous researchers as well as articles written by representatives of Indigenous cultures from an inside perspective The scope of the book ranges from contributions based on unpublished primary sources missionary journals and fairly unknown early Indigenous sources and publications to those based on more recent Indigenous testimonies and anthropological fieldwork museum exhibitions and self representations in the fields of fashion marketing and the arts The aim of this volume is to explore the making of representations for and or by Circumpolar

North peoples The authors follow what representations have been created in the past and in some cases continue to be created in the present and the Indigenous employment of representations that has continuity with the past and also goes beyond traditional utilization By studying these representations we gain a better understanding of the dynamics of a society and its interaction with other cultures notably in the context of the dominant culture s efforts to assimilate Indigenous people and erase their story People s ideas about themselves and of the Other are never static not even if they share the same cultural background This is even more the case in the contact zone of the intercultural arena Images of the Other vary according to time and place and perceptions of others are continuously readjusted from both sides in intercultural encounters This volume has been prepared by the Research Group Circumpolar Cultures RGCC which is based in the Netherlands Its members conduct research on social and cultural change focusing on topics that are of interest to the Indigenous peoples of the Arctic The RGCC builds on a long tradition in Arctic studies in the Netherlands Nico Tinbergen Geert van den Steenhoven Gerti Nooter and Jarich Oosten and can rely on rich Arctic collections of artefacts and photographs in anthropological museums and extensive library collections The expertise of the RGCC in Arctic studies is internationally acknowledged by academics as well as circumpolar peoples

Rhetoric, Humor, and the Public Sphere

Elizabeth Benacka, 2016-11-02 Rhetoric Humor and the Public Sphere From Socrates to Stephen Colbert investigates classical and contemporary understandings of satire parody and irony and how these genres function within a deliberative democracy Elizabeth Benacka examines the rhetorical history theorization and practice of humor spanning from ancient Greece and Rome to the contemporary United States In particular this book focuses on the contemporary work of Stephen Colbert and his parody of a conservative media pundit analyzing how his humor took place in front of an uninitiated audience and ridiculed a variety of problems and controversies threatening American democracy Ultimately Benacka emphasizes the importance of humor as a discourse capable of calling forth a group of engaged citizens and a source of civic education in contemporary society

City at the Cusp J. Allison Brown, 2009-08-21 To arrive at the pinnacle is a mark of progress But where do we go from here At this point because we can only improve modestly due to diminishing marginal returns things change Mentalities change philosophies change priorities change people change and at the root of these changes we find cultural evidence for the demise of the American economy City at the Cusp looks thoroughly at this sociological issue providing a unique glance at and possible remedies for overcoming this incredibly timely and urgent matter

Philosophy of the Tourist Hiroki Azuma, 2023-04-11 An inventive philosophical study that reconsiders the figure of the tourist Tourism is a characteristically modern phenomenon yet modern thinkers have tended to deride the tourist as a figure of homogenizing globalism This philosophical study considers the tourist anew as a subject position that enables us to redraw the map of globalized culture in an era increasingly in revolt against the liberal intellectual worldview and its call for the welcome of the Other Why has the tourist proved so resistant to philosophical treatment asks Hiroki Azuma Tracing the reasons for this exclusion through the work of Rousseau and Voltaire and subsequently in Kant Carl Schmitt Alexandre Kojve Hannah Arendt and Hardt and Negri Azuma contends that the figure of the tourist has been rendered illegible by becoming ensnared in a series of misleading conceptual dichotomies and a linear model of world history In the widening gap between the infrastructure of globalization and inherited ties of local and national belonging Azuma's retheorization of the tourist presents an alternative to the choice between doubling down on local identity and roots or hoping for the spontaneous uprising of a multitude from within the great networked Empire For the tourist is the subject capable of moving most freely between the strata of the global and the local With explorations of the connection between tourism and fan fiction contingency and misdelivery cyberspace and the uncanny and dark tourism Azuma's inventive and optimistic philosophical essay sheds unexpected new light on a mode of engagement with the world that is familiar to us all

Seductions of Place Carolyn L. Cartier, Alan A. Lew, 2005 The seductiveness of touristed landscapes is simultaneously local and global as travelled places are formed and reworked by the activities of diverse mobile people in their desires to experience situated sensuous qualities of difference Cartier and Lew's interesting and informative book explores contemporary issues in travel and tourism and human geography and the complex cultural political and economic activities at stake in touristed landscapes as a result of globalization This book assesses travel and tourism as simultaneously cultural and economic processes through ideas about place seduction and the formation of landscapes Throughout examples are given from urban and environmental touristed landscapes from major world cities to tropical islands and chapter contributions include an analysis of the representational character of landscape and the built environment historic constructions of place seduction the importance of class racial and gender dimensions of place how mobility and the seduction of place orient identity formation the environmental impacts of tourism economies Broad in scope this book is ideal for social scientists and humanists who are interested in contemporary debates about place studies mobility and the located realities of globalization

On Shedding an Obsolete Past Andrew J. Bacevich, 2022-11-15 On Shedding an Obsolete Past provides a much needed and comprehensive critique of recent US national security policies in both the Trump and Biden administrations These policy decisions have produced a series of costly disappointments and outright failures that have destroyed the lives of hundreds of thousands around the world and cost US taxpayers astronomical sums of money Bacevich provides urgent and critical insights into how these failures occurred and what needs to be done to prevent similar failures in the future He reminds us that by understanding the past we can alter our current trajectory and transform the world for the better
