Book 2: An Earth Bible Commentary Arthur Walker-Jones, 2019-10-03 Arthur Walker Jones presents an Earth focused reading of the second book of Psalms focusing upon the many nonhuman animals that appear repeatedly within the text In the first commentary to explore the implications of the natural and cultural history of animals for the interpretation of Psalms Walker Jones moves beyond the standard treatment of animals as mere metaphors for human concerns or background to human stories Instead Walker Jones draws upon the interdisciplinary field of animal studies incorporating this into ecocritical analysis and arguing for the similarity between the two approaches including recognizing that the oppression and liberation of humans is interrelated with the oppression and liberation of Earth and all its creatures Walker Jones looks at foxes sheep goats cattle doves snakes lions snails dogs and deer which all appear in Psalms 42 72 taking into account that many of these animals co evolved with humans and created the particular ecological niche of the highlands east of the Mediterranean Perceiving Earth in various ways as refuge as enemy as Rock and as fertile and joyous this volume brings an entirely new ecological perspective to the Psalms *Re-union in the Heavenly Kingdom, and Other Discourses.
