The Gypsy Goddess English Edition:

Representations of Dalit Protagonists Hanumant Ajinath Lokhande, 2024-09-23 This book interrogates canonical Indian English fiction which has Dalit characters as protagonists or major characters and argues that the representation of such characters although well meant is regulated and made unremarkable. It examines how the normative discourse of the Anglophone novel portrays Dalits from an upper caste point of view devoid of Ambedkarite or Dalit consciousness and thus implicitly reinscribes the upper caste power by restricting the narrative to merely represent Dalit submission and victimhood. The arguments then are substantiated by setting up a comparative framework through contrastive analysis of selected narratives by Dalit writers from Marathi Dalit literature to highlight the differential representational paradigms that mark the absence or presence of Ambedkarite consciousness and perspective.

Exploring English Language Teaching in India: Theory & Practice Nidhi Sharma, Shikha Agarwal, Irum Alvi, The expansion of theories and practices of Teaching English Language in India has been very prominent and conspicuous during the recent few years. For many this mirrors the strength of contemporary second Language Teaching in the country. Development of new practices and ways of dealing with planning language projects and materials mirrors more proficient and more compelling methods of Language teaching. Teaching English Language depends on more extensive assortment of methodological alternatives adopted by language teachers. The language Teachers have adopted new practices, techniques and materials as per the requirements of students, the penchants of teachers, imperatives of the everyday schedule setting and the COVID 19 situation. However, the wide assortment of theories and practices still bewilders rather than provides solace. Most importantly, some are confused by the absence of thorough theories of what practices, methodologies and techniques are to be adopted for the benefit of the learners. This book is brought out to address the present circumstance. It is an endeavor to portray, put together, organize and present contemporary theories and practices in language teaching.

Threads of Resonance: Narratives by Indian Women Writing in English Dr. Bhagyalaxmi, 2025-03-29 Threads of Resonance: Narratives by Indian Women Writing in English is a compelling anthology that brings together a diverse collection of stories, essays, and poems penned by Indian women authors. This compilation delves into the multifaceted experiences of Indian women, exploring themes such as identity, tradition, modernity, and the intricate balance between personal desires and societal expectations. The narratives traverse various landscapes from bustling urban centers to serene rural settings, offering readers a panoramic view of India's cultural and social milieu. The anthology features works from both renowned and emerging writers, providing a platform for a multitude of voices and perspectives. Each piece is a testament to the resilience, creativity, and introspection of Indian women, capturing the essence of their struggles, triumphs, and everyday lives. Through rich storytelling and poetic expression, Threads of Resonance not only entertains but also prompts reflection on the evolving roles of women in contemporary Indian society.

Revolving Around India(s) Juan Ignacio Oliva-Cruz, Antonia Navarro-Tejero, Isabel Sánchez Berriel, 2020-01-21 This book highlights a variety of approaches to the study of contemporary India and offers a transnational gender and social research perspective on the concepts of Indian tradition the representation of the Indian diaspora and the emergent political activism in India The contributions suggest questions and answers about the various temporal and spatial loci inherent to India and its gender and ethnic differences The volume analyses different cultural texts and explores how they refer to equality and interculturality or promote discourses of fear and racism The multiple viewpoints and analyses found in this volume will broaden and stimulate both upcoming outcomes and studies on the future of India World Literature, Non-Synchronism, and the Politics of Time Filippo Menozzi, 2020-06-06 Drawing on a Marxist concept of world literature this book is a study of the manipulations of time in contemporary anglophone fiction from Africa and South Asia Through critical work and literary reading this research explores the times other than the present that seem to haunt an era of capitalist globalisation nostalgic feelings about bygone ideals of identity and community appeals to Golden Ages returns of the repressed and anxious anticipations of global extinction and catastrophe The term non synchronism explored in this book captures these dislocations of the present while offering a critical lens to grasp the politics of time of an era marked by the continuing expansion of capitalist modernity Most importantly non synchronism is a dialectical paradigm charged with antagonistic political valences The literary analysis presented in the volume hence connects the literary manipulation of time to discourses on extinction accumulation nostalgia modernity and survival in global politics and literature Literature, Memory, Hegemony Sharmani Patricia Gabriel, Nicholas O. Pagan, 2018-06-14 This edited book considers the need for the continued dismantling of conceptual and cultural hegemonies of East and West in the humanities and social sciences Cutting across a wide range of literature film and art from different contexts and ages this collection seeks out the interpenetrating dynamic between both terms Highlighting the inherent instability of East and West as oppositional categories it focuses on the crossings between East and West and this nexus as a highly charged arena of encounter and collision Drawing from varied literary contexts ranging from Victorian literature to Chinese literature and modern European literature the book covers a diverse range of subject matter including material drawn from psychoanalytic and postcolonial theory and studies related to race religion diaspora and gender and investigates topical social and political issues including terrorism nationalism citizenship the refugee crisis xenophobia and otherness Offering a framework to consider the salient questions of cultural ideological and geographical change in our societies this book is a key read for those working within world literary studies

Religions, Mumbai Style Michael Stausberg, 2025-05-16 Mumbai is generally recognized as an environment of extraordinary religious diversity The city is known at one and the same time for a habitual cosmopolitanism and a series of violent religion related conflicts and clashes While there is much academic scholarship on various aspects of urban history and realities this volume is the first international academic publication focusing on religion s in Mumbai An extended introductory essay provides a scenario of the religious history of the city from the earliest colonial periods to the present it also discusses such topics as public celebration and landmark religious places By taking a thematic approach the contributions highlight the dynamics of religious life in the city Chapters discuss spatial settings such as so called slums Dharavi and ghettos Mumbra but also roadside shrines and taxis Other chapters focus on class and civil society organizations Contributions discuss the crossing of religious boundaries e g in dealing with intermarriage and conversion and challenges faced by religious groups as to how to reconcile the religious diversity of the city with their own desire for recognition Lines of tension and conflict often run within and not so much between communities The two final chapters of the volume address the reflection of religion in fiction set in Mumbai and in the work of the Bombay poet Arun Kolatkar

Tamil Dalit Feminist Poetics Pramila Venkateswaran, 2024-09-23 Tamil Dalit feminist poetry occurs in the nexus of caste demands and literary expectations based on Tamil high culture as set in the literary conventions of both classical and contemporary aesthetics Tamil Dalit feminist poets and their allies challenge literary expectations set for women poets as well as caste stigma In Tamil Dalit Feminist Poetics Resistance Power and Solidarity Pramila Venkateswaran argues that Dalit poets Sukirtharani Arangamallika Umadevi Meena Kandasamy and Tamil feminist allies such as Malathi Maitri and Kutty Revathi challenge the literary tradition of Tamil poetry by presenting their radical poems on themes based on their experience and witnessing the trauma of violence on Dalit women s bodies thus placing caste and gender at the center of their work They assert their subjectivity offering us a feminist poetics that is rich with insights on the Dalit body spirituality music culture Dalit connection to land and democracy Their poems theorize women s experiences using metaphor symbol folk idioms as well as satire and irony to express feminist connectedness to all spheres of life Replete with anti caste resistance of language form and content Tamil Dalit feminist poets reframe both feminism and contemporary Tamil poetry Thus Dalit feminist poetry and other cultural productions are vehicles for solidarity and democracy
