The Hurt Business:

Oliver Mayer: Collected Plays Oliver Mayer, 2007 Three plays about history identity love and music by award winning US hybrid Latino dramatist Oliver Mayer with preface by Luis Alfaro and introduction by Jon D Rossini Dark Trade Donald McRae, 2014-06-05 WINNER OF THE 1996 WILLIAM HILL SPORTS BOOK OF THE YEAR PRIZE In the early 1990s Donald McRae set out to discover the truth about the intense and forbidding world of professional boxing Travelling around the States and Britain he was welcomed into the inner sanctums of some of the greatest fighters of the period men such as Mike Tyson Chris Eubank Oscar de la Hoya Frank Bruno Evander Holyfield and Naseem Hamed among them They opened up to him revealing unforgettable personal stories from both inside and outside the ring and explaining why it is that some are driven to compete in this most brutal of sports risking their health and even their lives The result is a classic account of boxing that remains as fresh and entertaining as when it was first published almost 20 years ago McRae approaches his subjects with wit compassion and insight and the result was a book that was a deserved winner of the William Hill Sports Book of the Year prize Grappling with Representation in the WWE Lowery A. Woodall III, 2022-10-03 In this book Lowery A Woodall III explores the ways that diverse populations are portrayed stereotyped and sometimes villainized in the WWE's colorful and dramatic programming Each chapter examines the surprisingly complex and multilayered representation of marginalized populations throughout the modern history of the WWE under the leadership of Vincent K McMahon Through weekly shows like Raw and SmackDown pay per view spectacles like WrestleMania and a vast library of wrestling related material on their streaming platform Woodall argues that the WWE and McMahon have created calculated and carefully curated representations of diversity that are viewed by millions of fans worldwide What effects do those representations have on the men women and children who consume WWE content How are wrestlers and performers impacted by their on screen portrayals This book explores these questions and demonstrates that when representations are inaccurate or problematic more than just kayfabe is in danger of being broken Scholars of professional wrestling studies media studies and communication studies will find this book of particular interest The Bittersweet Science Carlo Rotella, Michael Ezra, 2017-04-28 Weighing in with a balance of the visceral and the cerebral boxing has attracted writers for millennia Yet few of the writers drawn to it have truly known the sport and most have never been in the ring Moving beyond the typical sentimentality romanticism or cynicism common to writing on boxing The Bittersweet Science is a collection of essays about boxing by contributors who are not only skilled writers but also have extensive firsthand experience at ringside and in the gym the corner and the ring itself Editors Carlo Rotella and Michael Ezra have assembled a roster of fresh voices ones that expand our understanding of the sport's primal appeal The contributors to The Bittersweet Science journalists fiction writers fight people and more explore the fight world's many aspects considering boxing as both craft and business art form and subculture From manager Charles Farrell's unsentimental defense of fixing fights to former Golden Glover Sarah Deming's complex profile of young Olympian Claressa Shields this collection takes us right into the ring and makes us feel the stories of the people who are drawn to or sometimes stuck in the boxing world We get close up profiles of marquee attractions like Bernard Hopkins and Roy Jones Jr as well as portraits of rising stars and compelling cornermen along with first person hands on accounts from fighters points of view We are schooled in not only how to hit and be hit but why and when to throw in the towel We experience the intimate immediacy of ringside as well as the dim back rooms where the essentials come together And we learn that for every champion there s a regiment of journeymen dabblers and anglers for advantage for every aspiring fighter a veteran in painful decline Collectively the perspectives in The Bittersweet Science offer a powerful in depth picture of boxing bobbing and weaving through the desires delusions and dreams of boxers fans and the cast of managers trainers promoters and hangers on who make up life in and around the ring Contributors Robert Anasi Brin Jonathan Butler Donovan Craig Sarah Deming Michael Ezra Charles Farrell Rafael Garcia Gordon Marino Louis Moore Gary Lee Moser Hamilton Nolan Gabe Oppenheim Carlo Rotella Sam Sheridan and Carl Weingarten
