Traversing Transnational Biomedical Landscapes Judith Schühle,2020-04-02 In the age of globalization the transnational dimension of sciences like medicine seems to be given However the agents connecting different parts of this transnational biomedical landscape have yet to receive their due attention Situated at the intersection of contemporary debates as well as theories of medical anthropology and migration in the 21st century this book explores the experiences of Nigerian trained physicians who migrated to the US and the UK within the last 40 years By drawing on individual professional life stories Judith Sch hle illuminates how these physicians disconnect from and re connect to diverse local social and biomedical contexts becoming established abroad while at the same time trying to influence health care services in Nigeria through transnational endeavors

Managing Violent Religious Extremism in Fragile States Abosede Omowumi Babatunde, Mahfouz A.

Adedimeji, Shittu Raji, Jacinta Mwendu Maweu, John Mwangi Githigaro, 2021-09-30 This book examines how African states can build the institutional capacity to better prevent manage and cope with the new security challenges posed by violent religious extremism Despite the evidence that violent religious extremism is exacerbated by underlying social political economic and governance factors many states have focused their efforts only on reactive and coercive response strategies overlooking more long term measures This comparative study of Nigeria and Kenya reflects on why insurgency in Kenya has not escalated to full blown terrorism as it has with Boko Haram in Nigeria in spite of the similarities in relatively weak institutions of governance and colonial legacies across the two countries The book interrogates the policy and institutional responses that have been put in place in both countries to address security challenges and the extent of their efficacy in light of the intricate networks of politics governance corruption poverty and violence and the relative fragility of state institutions The authors highlight the areas of convergence and divergence in institutional capacities and recommend policies to enhance the capacity of institutions to manage violent religious extremism This book will be of interest to scholars of African Politics Security Peace Studies and Terrorism

Research Handbook on Child Soldiers Mark A. Drumbl, Jastine C. Barrett, 2019 Child soldiers remain poorly understood and inadequately protected despite significant media attention and many policy initiatives This Research Handbook aims to redress this troubling gap It offers a reflective fresh and nuanced review of the complex issue of child soldiering The Handbook brings together scholars from six continents diverse experiences and a broad range of disciplines Along the way it unpacks the life cycle of youth and militarization from recruitment to demobilization to return to civilian life The overarching aim of the Handbook is to render the invisible visible the contributions map the unmapped and chart new directions Challenging prevailing assumptions and conceptions the Research Handbook on Child Soldiers focuses on adversity but also capacity emphasising the resilience humanity and potentiality of children affected rather than afflicted by armed conflict
