

Background information given:

Topic: Short-term trading, international accounting, short-term debt financing

Background:

Southampton plc has been negotiating a contract with a potential customer in Mexico. Before the negotiation started, the Mexican company requested that it should be allowed to study the accounts of Southampton. These documents were described as useful in assessing the technical credit standing. This is the first request under the company's new accounts credit policy. Unfortunately, the previous credit policy under the previous management described the credit strategy used by companies as outlined in the text.

The sales department has proposed the following statement showing that the contract will make a profit if it results for the sales department to proceed and estimate an appropriate level of expenditure in this type of work.

Obviously the management accountant will also be asked to comment on the statement prepared by the sales department. As this order is different and may result in a big order business in the future the sales manager called the management accountant to comment on the statement below.

Statement prepared by sales department

Costs including direct £100,000 (cost sales)	£100,000
Admin (cost sales 1%)	£1,000
Overhead (cost sales 2%)	£2,000
Foreign exchange (cost sales 5%)	£5,000
Administrative charges (cost sales 3%)	£3,000
Materials (cost sales 8%)	£8,000
Expenditure on machinery (cost sales 5%)	£5,000
Total	£134,000

After the completion of management accountant prepared a profit report. The costs given are summarized below:

Summary from management accountant

Notes (1) This figure will be found in the statement

Notes (2) This figure will include £100,000 as costs for goods that have already been received. This is the cost of carrying inventory to shipment to help with the negotiation.

Notes (3) This is 50% of the cost of expenditure. It is suggested that the expenditure will appear about half the price on the contract. This cost must be included in £100,000 figure for the statement if the contract is completed on time.
