Addiction Counselor (NCAC I) Exam Study Guide 2025-2026 Emmett Sergio Walls, The Translator's Handbook Morry Sofer, 2006 Since 1997 this translator's guide has been the worldwide leader in its field and has elicited high praise from some of the world's best translators It has been fully updated in the 2006 edition The Sociological Turn in Translation and Interpreting Studies Claudia V. Angelelli, 2014-09-15 Increasing attention has been paid to the agency of translators and interpreters as well as to the social factors that permeate acts of translation and interpreting In addition agency and social factors are discussed in more interdisciplinary terms Currently the focus is not only on translators or interpreters i.e. the exploration of their inter/intra social agency and identity construction or on their activities and the consequences thereof but also on other phenomena such as the displacement of texts and people and issues of access and linguisticism The displacement of texts whether written or oral across time and space as well as the geographic displacement of people has encouraged researchers in Translation and Interpreting Studies to consider issues related to translation and interpreting through the lens of the Sociology of Language Sociolinguistics and Historiography Researchers have employed a myriad of theoretical and methodological lenses borrowed from other disciplines in the Humanities and Social Sciences Therefore the interdisciplinarity of Translation and Interpreting Studies is more evident now than ever before This volume originally published as a special issue of Translation and Interpreting Studies issue 7 2 2012 is a perfect example of such interdisciplinarity reflecting the shift that has occurred in Translation and Interpreting Studies around the world over the last 30 years The Routledge Handbook of Translation, Interpreting and Crisis Christophe Declercq, Koen Kerremans, 2023-12-22 This handbook offers a broad ranging overview of the study of translating and interpreting in conflict and crisis settings and takes the field in new directions Covering a wide selection of multimodal contexts that build on the fundamentals of translation interpreting and their in between hybrid forms of mediation the handbook is divided into four parts The opening part covers perspectives on policy and practices whether contemporary or historical and cases truly span the globe from Peru and Brazil over Belgium and Sierra Leone to Australia Japan and Hong Kong International developments require profound considerations about the professionalisation of access to language in times of crises not least in contexts of humanitarian negotiation or conflict zone interpreting these form the second part The subsequent part deals with spheres of community in which language needs are positioned within frames of agency positionality and trust and the challenges that these face The contributions build on cases where interpreters act as catalysts for translation needs in settings of humanitarian aid and beyond The final part considers language strategies and solutions in crises This handbook is the essential guide to translation and interpreting in conflict and crisis settings for advanced students and researchers of translation and interpreting studies and will be of wide interest in peace studies political science and beyond Testing and Assessment in Translation and Interpreting Studies Claudia V. Angelelli, Holly E. Jacobson, 2009-10-22 Testing and Assessment in Translation and Interpreting Studies examines issues of measurement that are essential to translation and interpreting Conceptualizing testing both as a process and a product the collection of papers explores these issues across languages and settings including university classrooms research projects the private sector and professional associations The authors have approached their chapters from different perspectives using a variety of methods some focusing on very specific variables and others providing a much broader overview of the issues at hand Chapters range from a discussion of the measurement of text cohesion in translation the measurement of interactional competence in interpreting the use of a particular scale to measure interpreters renditions to the application of a specific approach to grading or general program assessment such as interpreter or translator certification at the national level or program admissions processes These studies point to the need for greater integration of research and practice in the specific area of testing and assessment and are a welcome addition to the field
