Dr. Salatiel Sidhu, 2015-02-12 This book deals with the causes that led to the formation of so many denominations The main reason behind this is the misinterpretation of the word of God Initial faith was purely Catholic based upon the Church founded by the disciples of Christ but when it became the Roman Catholic Church the drawbacks started surfacing in the Church So the believers thought of other groups and sects and they started leaving the Roman Catholic Church and formed other denominations Behind all this was the human factor of pope at that time Whatever I got from my study I have tried to write about the different denominations

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1972 Spirit-Filled Protestantism Luther Jeremiah Oconer,2017-10-12 In Spirit filled Protestantism Luther Oconer shows how holiness and Pentecost themed revival meetings called culto Pentecostal helped form the development of Methodism in the Philippines He focuses on these revival meetings their theological content and the spiritual culture they helped perpetuate The resulting narrative provides a rich rendering of both male and female American Methodist missionaries their Filipino counterparts and their followers that both celebrates and critiques them Oconer also offers a unique perspective on Philippine Protestantism which has often been dismissed for being too intellectual and formal He defies the stereotype by demonstrating how culto Pentecostal revivals with their emphasis on holiness and the baptism of the Holy Spirit made Methodism the most innovative and successful of all Protestant denominations in the country prior to the Second World War Accordingly Oconer s treatment explains why Methodism provided a fertile seedbed for the emergence of the Manila Healing Revival and consequently the rise of Pentecostalism in the Philippines in the 1950s A long awaited volume on the history of Methodism in the Philippines Spirit filled Protestantism allows us to discern why Pentecostal impulses continue to shape Filipino Methodist identity in the twenty first century A Spiritual Portrait of a Believer Chet Cataldo,2010-02-19 The focus of this study is to discover the identity of the emphatic I of Rom 7 with the added purpose of attempting to draw a spiritual portrait of a mature Christian believer To accomplish this purpose the process is as follows An examination of Rom 7 within its context is conducted This examination is followed by an attempt at determining the experience of the emphatic I found within Rom 7 The next step in the process is to compare the experience of the emphatic I of Rom 7 as found within its context of Rom 1 8 with what Paul wrote elsewhere on the experience of new life in Christ for Christian believers The purpose of this comparison is to discover if Paul had a consistent portrait of spirituality and Christian maturity The final step is to compare the experience described by Paul both in Rom 7 and in the wider Pauline Corpus with the experience which John Wesley called perfection and with the Mystical experience called the spiritual marriage The study of Romans Wesley and the Mystics coupled with the wider study of the secondary literature showed that there is a remarkable consistency in the teaching and understanding that the closer a Christian believer gets to God the more this Christian believer is aware of his or her own sinfulness Paul in describing the experience of the emphatic I is describing a person who is becoming more and more aware of his or her own sinfulness The conclusion to be drawn from this study is that the identity of the empathic I is of a regenerate Christian believer one who is growing ever closer and closer to God and at the same time is in pain over the remaining effects of sin

Handbook for the Christian Faith James M. Dawsey, 2023-08-15 Is religion disappearing from American life Less than 50 percent of Americans now hold membership in any religious institution and even fewer attend worship services The decline in Christian churches is especially pronounced among the young and cuts across all denominations But for Methodists and like minded Protestants concerns are deeper than shrinking denominational membership Polls show disconcerting ignorance about religious and spiritual matters even among churchgoers Our values as a society are in large measure molded by religion What shape will Protestant Christianity take in the twenty first century And of Methodism And beyond that what kind of community will we be Dawsey proposes returning to the roots of Christianity And with anecdotes and stories and a sweeping grasp of church history he examines those essential practices and beliefs necessary to revitalize American churches Key he argues is rediscovering Christianity as a philosophy of living John Wesley characterized the practice of religion as first doing no harm second doing good and third keeping the ordinances of faith Loving God and God s creation the doing of Christianity marks the path for becoming the churches and individuals Christians were called to be
