Includes Part 1 Number 1 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January June Writing Effective Course Assignments Elia Shabani Mligo,2017-05-11 Non degree and undergraduate students are both inexperienced essay writers who need close guidance to become effective writers One of the puzzles which they encounter at the college and university after reporting for studies is the course assignments offered to them by their lecturers which demand them to be critical thinkers and argumentative essay writers In most colleges and universities lecturers provide to students broad questions to answer in the form of essays either in group or individual assignments How should they turn the broad assignment questions provided to them by their lecturers into specific researchable topics for essays How should they handle literature in order to obtain valuable information to answer the provided question How should they construct an informed and convincing argument using the collected information as evidence This book concerns these and other related questions With its clear illustrations the book is designed to be a self study guide and to offer solutions to many struggling students in colleges and universities At the same time the book can be helpful for lecturers to instruct their students how to write effective course assignments in their respective courses

The Global Intercultural Communication Reader

Molefi Kete Asante, Yoshitaka Miike, Jing Yin, 2013-06-26 The Global Intercultural Communication Reader is the first anthology to take a distinctly non Eurocentric approach to the study of culture and communication In this expanded second edition editors Molefi Kete Asante Yoshitaka Miike and Jing Yin bring together thirty two essential readings for students of cross cultural intercultural and international communication This stand out collection aims to broaden and deepen the scope of the field by placing an emphasis on diversity including work from authors across the globe examining the processes and politics of intercultural communication from critical historical and indigenous perspectives The collection covers a wide range of topics the emergence and evolution of the field issues and challenges in cross cultural and intercultural inquiry cultural wisdom and communication practices in context identity and intercultural competence in a multicultural society the effects of globalization and ethical considerations Many readings first appeared outside the mainstream Western academy and offer diverse theoretical lenses on culture and communication practices in the world community Organized into five themed sections for easy classroom use The Global Intercultural Communication Reader includes a detailed bibliography that will be a crucial resource for today s students of intercultural communication

Child Labour Opponents and Their Campaigns in the Americas Nina Schneider, 2025-11-03 This book delves into the past and examines the origins of activism against child labour It addresses a hitherto under examined question how and why did child labour develop into a key concern between the 1880s and 1930s Who were the protagonists who first raised the issue of child labour as a global concern The study aims to provide the first account of the history of diverse and locally grounded but nationally and frequently globally connected child labour opponents in the Americas their motivations and campaigns at the turn of the 20th century I argue that for the period between 1888 and 1938 one can identify similar protagonists a joint goal a broadly similar timing common platforms comparable campaigning mechanisms and many types of connections or entanglements across regions Nevertheless in contrast to the global anti slavery movement child labour opponents formed a loosely institutionalised network which lacked an international organisation that focused specifically on child labour A global history approach to child labour opponents helps reveal large scale patterns across societies and highlight similarities and differences between cases
