The Wavewatcher S Companion Gavin Pretor Pinney:

The Wave Watcher's Companion Gavin Pretor-Pinney,2010-07-06 Get ready for a global journey like none other a passionate enthusiast s exploration of waves that begins with a massive surfable cloud and ends with the majestic Pacific ocean making side trips along the way to reveal the ups and downs of brain waves radio waves infrared waves microwaves shock waves light waves and much more

The Wavewatcher's Companion Gavin Pretor-Pinney,2011 One bright February afternoon on a beach in Cornwall Gavin Pretor Pinney took a break from cloudspotting and started watching the waves rolling into shore Mesmerised he wondered where they had come from and decided to find out He soon realised that waves don t just appear on the ocean they are everywhere around us and our lives depend on them From the rippling beats of our hearts to the movement of food through our digestive tracts and of signals across our brains waves are the transport systems of our bodies

The Wave Watcher's Companion Gavin Pretor-Pinney,2010 Offers information on how all sorts of waves work and how and why they form including ocean waves light waves sound waves and brain waves

To Know the World Mitchell Thomashow,2020-11-03 Why environmental learning is crucial for understanding the connected challenges of climate justice tribalism inequity democracy and human flourishing How can we respond to the current planetary ecological emergency In To Know the World Mitchell Thomashow proposes that we revitalize revisit and reinvigorate how we think about our residency on Earth First we must understand that the major challenges of our time migration race inequity climate justice and democracy connect to the biosphere Traditional environmental education has accomplished much but it has not been able to stem the inexorable decline of global ecosystems Thomashow the former president of a college dedicated to sustainability describes instead environmental learning a term signifying that our relationship to the biosphere must be front and center in all aspects of our daily lives In this illuminating book he provides rationales narratives and approaches for doing just that Mixing memoir theory mindfulness pedagogy and compelling storytelling Thomashow discusses how to navigate the Anthropocene s rapid pace of change without further separating psyche from biosphere why we should understand migration both ecologically and culturally how to achieve constructive connectivity in both social and ecological networks and why we should take a cosmopolitan bioregionalism perspective that unites local and global Throughout Thomashow invites readers to participate as educational explorers encouraging them to better understand how and why environmental learning is crucial to human flourishing
