Money Can't Buy Us Love Gavin Buckland,2019-08-08 In 1960 the wealthy owner of the Merseyside based Littlewoods corporation John Moores took control of Everton Football Club

setting in motion a chain of events that still affect the game in this country today Everton had enjoyed success before Moores's takeover but things would never be the same again from the moment he walked through Goodison's doors Although big clubs had spent money before none had done so with such naked short term ambition and a ruthlessness to succeed that sent shockwaves through the previously stagnant world of English football The new owner's ruthless streak was personified by his first major move sacking the popular Johnny Carey in the back of a London taxi in April 1961 Everton would finish that 1960-61 season in fifth place their highest position since World War Two but the Irishman's affable nature cost him his job In his place Moores wanted a man in his own image to lead the club forward and he soon found him Harry Catterick Catterick was little over 40 years old and had been an Everton player himself only ten years before But as a boss he exuded an aura that demanded respect and obedience from his players It was a characteristic that won him few fans but plenty of trophies and across the decade Everton reasserted themselves as one of English football's powerhouses winning two league titles and an FA Cup Catterick's ability to nurture young products of the club's youth set up such as Colin Harvey and Joe Royle was trumped only by his mastery of the transfer market allowing him to sign the great Howard Kendall from Preston North End and World Cup winner Alan Ball from under his rivals noses Harvey Kendall and Ball would soon form the club's greatest midfield trio and their brilliance would underpin the 1969-70 title win a victory for free flowing football in an era of cynicism That trophy would be Everton's last major honour for 14 years In Money Can't Buy Us Love Everton's official statistician Gavin Buckland tells the tale of how Moores and manager Harry Catterick took the so called Mersey Millionaires to the summit of English football in the context of the major cultural changes of the time The book provides a forensic character study of both Catterick and Moores and also delves into the archives to provide a definitive account of the incidents that rocked the club in a fruitful but turbulent decade including allegations of doping in the 1962-63 campaign the 1964 match fixing scandal which signalled the end of Tony Kay's career and the shock sale of Alan Ball Money Can't Buy Us Love offers fascinating insight into how strong personalities can take a team to the very top but can also cause in its ultimate downfall

(Un)kind Victoria Smith, 2025-02-06 Victoria Smith is a brilliant writer who every feminist should read Sharron Davies This brilliant book shows how demands for compassion and generosity can be a mask for sexist ideology Susanna Rustin A brilliantly witty and insightful analysis of how kindness culture is used against women Using the JustBeKind trend of the 2020s as a starting point Unkind explores how traditional beliefs about women's kind nature have been repackaged for an age that remains dependent socially politically economically on female self sacrifice while finding the concept outdated and essentialist Looking at the various guises under which kindness culture is sold to women and girls from play to self help social justice activism to empowerment Victoria Smith argues that the pressure on women and girls has not decreased but instead been incorporated into the work of feminism Unkind analyses the way in which this phenomenon ultimately distorts relationships harming not just those coerced into performing kindness work but the supposed recipients of their services

Kindness culture supports the backlash against feminism while claiming to represent feminism's and women's true nature. It is at heart unkind. Erudite, blisteringly smart and profoundly compassionate. A must read for anyone hungry to understand the origins and dangers of contemporary exhortations to women to BeKind and for everyone who wants to live a feminist life. Dr Rachel Hewitt. PRAISE FOR HAGS: The greatest joy of Hags is its lively erudition, eloquent, clever and devastating. The Times. A book that could not be more necessary. Observer. Brilliantly witty, engaging and insightful. Scotsman.
