McCrank, 2022-09-30 This extensive bibliographic essay underpins the entire Tarragona Vortex study by focusing on this arena as one of the most contested frontiers in Western history comparable to Jerusalem in the East for broad issues of Romanization Westernization Islamization and Christianization Its book length chapters treat 1 diverse historiographies from local and Spanish to comparative Mediterranean and Crusade History and especially Ethno historiography and the explanatory concept of frontiers 2 the phenomena of religion conversion and reform and the conditioning agents of Islam and Latin Christianity in practice and adversity 3 religious universalism and violence especially religious war 4 the Crusade and Reconquest paradigms and century long debate 5 the environment on land and sea and setting for this History Although these themes are explored to include due reconsideration but avoid major digressions in its telling about Tarragona and the Tarraconensis they underly so much of Late Antique and Medieval historical research that this discussion pertains to the whole field of historical cultural and religious studies The Literary History of England Kemp Malone, 1969 The paperback edition in four volumes of this standard work will make it readily available to students The scope of the work makes it valuable as a work of reference connecting one period with another and placing each author clearly in the setting of his time Reviewing the first edition The Times Literary Supplement commented in inclusiveness and in judgment it has few rivals of its kind This first volume covers The Middle Ages to 1500 in two sections The Old English Period to 1100 by Kemp Malone John Hopkins University and The Middle English Per Sequels Janet G.
