Complete Stories Vol. 4 1892-1898 (LOA #82) Henry James,John Hollander,1996-01-01 This Library of America volume is one of five that make available for the first time in new complete and authoritative editions the astonishing abundance of invention and unwavering intensity of the aesthetic vision of Henry James as displayed in more than one hundred world famous stories ranging from brief anecdotes to richly developed novellas Equally adept at ironic comedy muted tragedy and supernatural fantasy at lively social satire and nuanced portraiture James in his shorter works explores a staggering variety of situations and emotions Here are courtships and legacies the worlds of literature theater and the popular press the paradoxes of temperament and the constraints of custom the clash of conscience and desire Stylistically the stories allowed James to experiment with tones and devices quite different from his novels dramatic plot twists and surprise endings swift pacing and ebullient humor The brilliance of his technical command allowed him to transform the tiniest of suggestions a fleetingly observed gesture an anecdote dropped at a dinner party into fiction remarkable for its lambent surfaces and intricate psychological counterpoint The twenty one stories in this volume represent James at the peak of his storytelling powers Among them are The Turn of the Screw one of his most popular works and a terrifying exercise in psychological horror centering on the corruption of childhood innocence The Real Thing a playful consideration of the illusion of art and the paradoxes of authenticity The Figure in the Carpet The Death of the Lion and The Middle Years three very different expositions of the mysteries of authorship embodying some of James's most profound insights into the nature of his own art The Altar of the Dead a somber ultimately wrenching meditation on the relation of the living to the dead and In the Cage an extended evocation of the inner life of a young woman trapped in a dehumanizing job at a postal and telegraph office

The Uncanny Nicholas Royle, 2003 This is the first book length study of the uncanny an important concept for contemporary thinking and debate across a range of disciplines and discourses including literature film architecture cultural studies philosophy psychoanalysis and queer theory Much of this importance can be traced back to Freud's essay of 1919 The uncanny where he was perhaps the first to foreground the distinctive nature of the uncanny as a feeling of something not simply weird or mysterious but more specifically as something strangely familiar As a concept and a feeling however the uncanny has a complex history going back to at least the Enlightenment Nicholas Royle offers a detailed historical account of the emergence of the uncanny together with a series of close readings of different aspects of the topic Following a major introductory historical and critical overview there are chapters on the death drive d j vu silence solitude and darkness the fear of being buried alive doubles ghosts cannibalism telepathy and madness as well as more applied readings concerned for example with teaching politics film and religion This is a major critical study that will be welcomed by students and academics but will also be of interest to the general reader The Book Collector's Handbook of Values, 1976-1977 Van Allen Bradley,1975 The Book Collector's Handbook of Values, 1978-1979 Van Allen Bradley,1978 Catalogue Dobell, P.J. & A.E., booksellers, London,1937 P.J. & A.E.
