Norton's Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular ,1851 Visual Cultures of Secrecy in Early Modern Europe Timothy McCall, Sean

Roberts, 2013-04-01 Secrets in all their variety permeated early modern Europe from the whispers of ambassadors at court to the emphatically publicized books of home remedies that flew from presses and booksellers shops This interdisciplinary volume draws on approaches from art history and cultural studies to investigate the manifestations of secrecy in printed books and drawings staircases and narrative paintings ecclesiastical furnishings and engravers tools Topics include how patrons of art and architecture deployed secrets to construct meanings and distinguish audiences and how artists and patrons manipulated the content and display of the subject matter of artworks to create an aura of exclusive access and privilege Essays examine the ways in which popes and princes skillfully deployed secrets in works of art to maximize social control and how artists printers and folk healers promoted their wares through the impression of valuable mysterious knowledge The authors contributing to the volume represent both established authorities in their field as well as emerging voices This volume will have wide appeal for historians art historians and literary scholars introducing readers to a fascinating and often unexplored component of early modern culture Saturday Review ,1862 The Limits of Ethics in International Relations David Boucher,2009-05-21 In his major new work David Boucher surveys the history of thinking about human rights and shows that far from being seen as universal and emancipatory they have almost always privileged certain groups in relation to others The Solicitors' Journal ,1978 Graham's Illustrated Magazine of Literature, Romance, Art, and Fashion ,1848
