The Wasted Vigil English Edition:

The Wasted Vigil Nadeem Aslam, 2008-09-09 In The Wasted Vigil Nadeem Aslam the award winning author of Maps for Lost Lovers brilliantly knits together five seemingly unconnected lives to create a luminous story set in contemporary Afghanistan There s Marcus an English expat who was married to an outspoken Afghani doctor David a former American spy Lara from St Petersburg looking for traces of her brother a Russian soldier who disappeared years before Casa a young Afghani whose hatred of the Americans has plunged him into the blinding depths of zealotry and James an American Special Forces soldier Aslam reveals the intertwining paths that these characters have traveled constructing a timely and intimate portrait of the complex ties that bind us and the wars that continue to tear us apart Contemporary Pakistani Fiction in English Cara Cilano, 2013-04-12 Looking at a wide selection of Pakistani novels in English this book explores how literary texts imaginatively probe the past convey the present and project a future in terms that facilitate a sense of collective belonging The novels discussed cover a range of historical movements and developments including pre 20th century Islamic history the 1947 partition the 1971 Pakistani war the Zia years and post 9 11 Pakistan as well as pervasive themes including ethnonationalist tensions the zamindari system and conspiracy thinking The book offers a range of representations of how and whether collective belonging takes shape and illustrates how the Pakistani novel in English often overshadowed by the proliferation of the Indian novel in English complements Pakistani multi lingual literary imaginaries by presenting alternatives to standard versions of history and by highlighting the issues English language literary production bring to the fore in a broader Pakistani context It goes on to look at the literary devices and themes used to portray idea nation and state as a foundation for collective belonging The book illustrates the distinct contributions the Pakistani novel in English makes to the larger fields of postcolonial and South Asian literary and cultural studies Consciousness, Theatre, Literature and the Arts 2011 Daniel Meyer-Dinkgräfe, 2011-10-18 The essays collected in this volume were initially presented at the Fourth International Conference on Consciousness Theatre Literature and the Arts held at the University of Lincoln May 28 30 2011 The conference was organised on the basis of the success of its predecessors in 2005 2007 and 2009 and on the basis of the success of the Rodopi book series Consciousness Literature and the Arts which has to date seen thirty volumes in print with another twelve in press or in the process of being written The 2011 conference and the book series highlight the continuing growth of interest within the interdisciplinary field of consciousness studies and in the distinct disciplines of theatre studies literary studies film studies fine arts and music in the relationship between the object of these disciplines and human consciousness Fifty five delegates from twenty eight countries across the world attended the May 2011 conference in Lincoln their range of disciplines and approaches is reflected well in this book Caring for Community Marijke Denger, 2018-12-12 Caring for Community Towards a New Ethics of Responsibility in Contemporary Postcolonial Novels focuses on four highly acclaimed publications in order to argue for a new understanding of community and its ethical framework in recent literary texts Traditionally community has been understood to function on the basis of individuals readiness to establish relationships of reciprocal responsibility This book however argues that community and non reciprocity need not be mutually exclusive categories Examining works by leading contemporary postcolonial authors and reading them against Judith Butler s post 9 11 concept of global political community the book explores how concrete acts of responsibility can be carried out in recognition of various others even and precisely when those others cannot be expected to respond The literary analyses draw on a rich theoretical framework that includes approaches to care hospitality and the ethical encounter between self and other Overall this book establishes that the novels protagonists by investing in an ethics of responsibility that does not require reciprocity acquire the agency to envisage new forms of community By reflecting on the nature and effect of this agency and its representation in contemporary literary texts the book also considers the role of postcolonial studies in addressing highly topical questions regarding our co existence with others Sacrifice and Modern War Writing Alex Houen,2024-09-05

Sacrifice and Modern War Writing presents the most extensive study to date of twentieth and twenty first century war writing Examining works by over 110 authors Alex Houen surveys how war writing explores sacrifice in relation to major modern and contemporary conflicts from the First World War to the War on Terror Various conceptions of sacrifice are examined including Christian Jewish Islamic and secular The discussion ranges across literary portrayals of multiple sacrificial practices including ancient rituals of child sacrifice martyrdom scapegoating and suicide bombing Houen builds an innovative interdisciplinary approach to how war sacrifice and their representations interrelate and a wide range of Anglophone literature is discussed including novels memoirs short stories essays manifestoes elegies ballads and lyric poetry Whereas critics and theorists have tended to emphasize that war s reality exceeds any attempt to represent it Houen contends that political religious and cultural frames of sacrifice have continued to play a significant part in shaping how war s reality is shaped and experienced Those frames are inextricably tied to modes of representation which include symbolism and mimesis Sacrifice and Modern War Writing explores how sacrificial killing in war is itself riddled with symbolic transfigurations and mimetic exchanges and it builds a fresh approach by arguing that the figurative and imaginative aspects of literary writing ironically become its very means of engaging closely with the reality of war s sacrifices That approach also develops by using the literary analyses to critique and revise various prominent theories of sacrifice and war

Islamophobia and the Novel Peter Morey,2018-08-14 In an era of rampant Islamophobia what do literary representations of Muslims and anti Muslim bigotry tell us about changing concepts of cultural difference In Islamophobia and the Novel Peter Morey analyzes how recent works of fiction have framed and responded to the rise of anti Muslim prejudice showing how their portrayals of Muslims both reflect and refute the ideological preoccupations of media and politicians in the post 9 11 West Islamophobia and the Novel discusses novels embodying a range of positions from the avowedly secular to the religious and from texts that appear to underwrite Western assumptions of cultural superiority to those that recognize and critique neoimperial impulses Morey offers nuanced readings of works by John Updike Ian McEwan Hanif Kureishi Monica Ali Mohsin Hamid John le Carr Khaled Hosseini Azar Nafisi and other writers emphasizing the demands of the literary marketplace for representations of Muslims He explores how depictions of Muslim experience have challenged liberal assumptions regarding the novel's potential for empathy and its ability to encompass a variety of voices Morey argues for a greater degree of critical self-consciousness in our understanding of writing by and about Muslims in contrast to both exclusionary nationalism and the fetishization of difference Contemporary literature's capacity to unveil the conflicted nature of anti-Muslim bigotry expands our range of resources to combat Islamophobia This in turn might contribute to Islamophobia's eventual dismantling

Theory, Aesthetics, and Politics in the Francophone World Rajeshwari S. Vallury, 2019-03-25 Theory Aesthetics and Politics in the Francophone World Filiations Past and Future offers a critical reflection on some of the leading figures of twentieth century French and Francophone literature cinema and philosophy Specialists re-evaluate the historical political and artistic legacies of twentieth century France and the French speaking world proposing new formulations of the relationships between fiction aesthetics and politics This collection combines interdisciplinary scholarship nuanced theoretical reflection and contextualized analyses of literary cinematic and philosophical practices to suggest alternative critical paradigms for the twenty first century The contributors reappraisals of key writers filmmakers and intellectuals trace an alternative narrative of their historical cultural or intellectual legacy casting a contemporary light on the aesthetic theoretical and political questions raised by their works Taken as a whole the essays generate a series of fresh perspectives on French and Francophone literary and cultural studies

Postcolonial Literature and Challenges for the New Millennium Lucienne Loh, Malcolm Sen, 2017-10-02 This volume brings together an international range of postcolonial scholars to explore four distinct themes which are inherently interconnected within the globalised landscape of the early 21st century China Islamic fundamentalism civil war and environmentalism Through close reading a range of literary texts by writers drawn from across the globe these essays seek to emphasise the importance of literary aesthetics in situating the theoretical underpinnings and political motivations of postcolonial studies in the new millennium Colonial legacies especially in terms of structuring exploitative capitalist relations between countries and regions are shown to persist in postcolonial nations in the form of global civil wars and systemic environmental waste Chinese authoritarianism and the Indian picturesque represent less familiar forms of neo-colonialism These essays not only engage with established writers such as Salman Rushdie and Anita Desai they also critically reflect on work by Nadeem Aslam Mai Couto Romesh Gunasekara Bei Dao and Ma Jian This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice

Trauma and Fictions of the "War on Terror" Sarah O'Brien, 2021-05-18 This book explores the ways in which transnational fiction in the post 9/11 era can intervene in discourse surrounding the war on terror to advocate for marginalised perspectives Trauma and Fictions of the War on Terror conceptualises global political discourse about the war on terror as incongruous with transnational memory frames instituted in Western nations centralising 9 11 as uniquely traumatic excluding the historical and present day experiences of Afghans under Western specifically American hegemonic violence Recent developments in trauma studies explain how dominant Western trauma theory participates in this exclusion failing to account for the ongoing suffering common to non Western colonial and postcolonial contexts O'Brien explores how Khaled Hosseini The Kite Runner Nadeem Aslam The Wasted Vigil The Blind Man's Garden and Kamila Shamsie Burnt Shadows represent marginalised perspectives in the context of the war on terror

Imagining Afghanistan Alla Ivanchikova, 2019-09-15 Imagining Afghanistan examines how Afghanistan has been imagined in literary and visual texts that were published after the 9 11 attacks and the subsequent U.S. led invasion the era that propelled Afghanistan into the center of global media visibility Through an analysis of fiction graphic novels memoirs drama and film the book demonstrates that writing and screening Afghanistan has become a conduit for understanding our shared post 9 11 condition Afghanistan serves as a lens through which contemporary cultural producers contend with the moral ambiguities of twenty first century humanitarianism interpret the legacy of the Cold War debate the role of the U.S. in the rise of transnational terror and grapple with the long term impact of war on both human and nonhuman ecologies Post 9 11 global Afghanistan literary production remains largely NATO centric insofar as it is marked by an uncritical investment in humanitarianism as an approach to Third World suffering and in anti communism as an unquestioned premise The book's first half exposes how persisting anti socialist biases including anti statist bias not only shaped recent literary and visual texts on Afghanistan resulting in a distorted portrayal of its tragic history but also informed these texts reception by critics In the book's second half the author examines cultural texts that challenge this limited horizon and forge alternative ways of representing traumatic histories Captured by the author through the concepts of deep time nonhuman witness and war as a multispecies ecology these new aesthetics bring readers a sophisticated portrait of Afghanistan as a rich multispecies habitat affected in dramatic ways by decades of war but not annihilated

Rethinking Identities in Contemporary Pakistani Fiction A. Kanwal, 2015-03-09 This book focuses on the way that notions of home and identity have changed for Muslims as a result of international war on terror rhetoric It uniquely links the post 9 11 stereotyping of Muslims and Islam in the West to the roots of current jihadism and the resurgence of ethnocentrism within the subcontinent and beyond

Writing the 9/11 Decade Charlie Lee-Potter, 2016-11-03 Journalist and literary critic Charlie Lee Potter explores the links between the novel and journalism and the place of both in responding to traumatic cultural events in the aftermath of 9 11

British Muslim Fictions C. Chambers, 2012-03-09 Through interviews with leading writers including Ahdaf Soueif and Hanif Kureishi this book analyzes the writing and opinions of novelists of Muslim heritage based in the UK Discussion centres on writers work literary techniques and influences and on their views of such issues as the hijab the war on terror and the Rushdie Affair

Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty-First-Century Irish Novel Kathleen Costello-Sullivan, 2018-05-07 The desire to engage and confront traumatic subjects was a facet of Irish literature for much of the twentieth century Yet just as Irish society has adopted a more direct and open approach to the past so too have Irish authors evolved in their response to and literary uses of trauma In Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty First Century Irish Novel Costello Sullivan considers the ways in which the Irish canon not only represents an ongoing awareness of trauma as a literary and cultural force but also how this representation has shifted since the end of the twentieth and beginning of the twenty first century While earlier trauma narratives center predominantly on the role of silence and the individual and or societal suffering that traumas induce twenty first century Irish narratives increasingly turn from just the recognition of traumatic experiences toward exploring and representing the process of healing and recovery both structurally and narratively Through a series of keenly observed close readings Costello Sullivan explores the work of Colm T ib n John Banville Anne Enright Emma Donohue Colum McCann and Sebastian Barry In highlighting the power of narrative to amend and address memory and trauma Costello Sullivan argues that these works reflect a movement beyond merely representing trauma toward also representing the possibility of recovery from it

Narratives of Trauma in South Asian Literature Goutam Karmakar,Zeenat Khan,2022-12-30 This volume addresses cultural and literary narratives of trauma in South Asian literature Presenting a novel cross cultural perspective on trauma theory the essays within this volume study the divergent cultural responses to trauma and violence in various parts of South Asia including Sri Lanka Bangladesh Nepal and Afghanistan which have received little attention in literary writings on trauma in their specific circumstances Through comprehensive sociocultural understanding of the region this book creates an approachable space where trauma engages with themes like racial identity ethnicity nationality religious dogma and cultural environment With case studies from Kashmir the 1971 liberation war of Bangladesh and armed conflict in Nepal and Afghanistan the volume will be of interest to scholars students and researchers of literature history politics conflict studies and South Asian studies

Environmental Thought in Contemporary Pakistani Fiction Sonia Irum,2025-03-11 This book looks at Pakistani fiction from an environmental perspective focusing on the novels of the internationally renowned author Uzma Aslam Khan It explores the rich environmental landscapes of Khan s works and their distinctive contribution to developing Pakistani ecocriticism The book examines the discourse on the environment in contemporary Pakistani fiction in English and the contribution of Khan s fiction such as The Story of Noble Rot Trespassing Thinner than Skin and others towards developing ecological thinking in Pakistani literature and literary criticism In her novels Khan gives voice to the nonhuman or the Other highlights the harmonious connections between humans and nature and reflects on the far reaching ecological social and health effects of climate change The author showcases literary activism and analyses how the state engages with the ecopolitical discourses in Pakistani society by studying the intersections of Western imperialism militarism state policies capitalism consumerism and global climate change The book will be of interest to students and researchers of English literature environmental studies ecocriticism literary and critical studies postcolonial studies and indigenous studies

The Big Bookshelf Sunil Sethi, 2011-01-27 Famous writers are often reticent about how and why they write how their ideas and themes develop or how their characters and plots emerge They can be equally reserved about their personal histories But in the hands of seasoned journalist and skilful interviewer Sunil Sethi presenter of Just Books NDTV s long running weekend literary show they open up in unexpected and fascinating ways In this selection of thirty of his best interviews from Just Books they speak freely and frankly about their craft their life stories and the nature of their creative impulse Featured here are literary giants including Nobel laureates and Booker Prize winners internationally acclaimed historians biographers and philosophers authors of best selling thrillers novels and travel books and brilliant young trendsetters Their conversations with Sethi are in turn reflective and incisive witty and poignant but always candid and intimate as they provide rare insights into their inner lives and engagement with the world they inhabit Each voice in this diverse collection is original distinctive and revealing as they cover the wide terrain of life and literature A veritable feast for all book lovers and an indispensable companion for students and teachers of literature this volume vividly brings alive each author s personality and work ingeniously bridging the gap between reader and writer The Origins of Dislike Amit Chaudhuri, 2018-09-20 Strategic thinking for a writer articulates itself as dislike and as allegiance In this wonderfully rich and diverse collection of essays Amit Chaudhuri explores the way in which writers understand and promote their own work in antithesis to writers and movements that have gone before Chaudhuri s criticism disproves and questions several assumptions that a serious and original artist cannot think critically in a way that matters that criticism can t be imaginative and creative work contain radical argumentation that a writer reflecting on their own position and practice cannot be more than a testimony of their work but open up how we think of literary history and reading Illuminating new ways of thinking about Western and non Western traditions prejudices and preconceptions Chaudhuri shows us again that he takes nothing as a given literary tradition the prevalent definitions of writing and culture and the way the market determines the way culture and language express themselves He asks us to look again at what we mean by the modern and how it might be possible to think of the literary today South-Asian Fiction in English Alex Tickell, 2016-04-30 This collection offers an essential structured survey of contemporary fictions of South Asia in English and includes specially commissioned chapters on each of the national traditions of the region It covers less well known writings from Pakistan Sri Lanka and Bangladesh as well as the more firmly established canon of contemporary Indian literature and features chapters on important new and emergent forms such as the graphic novel genre fiction and the short story It also contextualizes some key transformative aspects of recent fiction such as border and diaspora identities new middle class narratives and popular genres and literary response to terror and conflict Edited and designed with researchers and students in mind the book updates existing criticism and represents a readable guide to a dynamic rapidly changing area of global literature From Blake to Mr. Swinburne George Saintsbury, 1923
