The Way I Remember It The Sheriff S Office:

The Way I Remember It...the Sheriff's Office Buddy Wilkes, 2014-09-25 This book chronicles the author's time as a Deputy Sheriff in the rural South during the 1980s in a place where everyone was kin or nearly so and police action often meant a good talking to rather than a trip to jail. This was a time when moonshiners still made corn liquor and before the dramatic increase in violent crime a time when common sense and a sense of humor were the most important attributes a lawman could have. Lt James McConnell the author's first mentor in law enforcement passed down many lessons the first of which was Just because you can lock a man up doesn't mean you should. The Lt demonstrated this and many other life lessons as he dealt with people who were not evil just wrong. Buddy Wilkes began service as a Deputy Sheriff in Fairfield County SC in 1981 just after graduation from The Citadel with a degree in English. He enjoyed a long career in which he served as a street cop investigator and administrator. He retired as a Captain with the SC Law Enforcement Division in 2014. The Way I Remember It The Sheriff's Office is a light amusing collection of stories of a time gone by but well remembered. People v. Written in a methodical and formal style characteristic of government reports the book chronicles the extensive investigations undertaken by the Commission presenting evidence testimonies and conclusions drawn from the events surrounding November 22 1963. Set within the tumultuous historical context of 1960s America it grapples with not only the immediate circumstances of the assassination but also addresses the broader societal implications and conspiracy theories that permeated public discourse in the wake of this tragic event. The report emanates from the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy convened by President Lyndon B Johnson shortly after the assassination. Comprised of legal luminaries and prominent figures the Commission aimed to restore public confidence in the government while providing clarity amidst the chaos of incomplete narratives and burgeoning conspiracy theories. Their thorough investigations reveal the complexities of the case as well as the challenges faced in achieving a definitive account of events. This essential volume is highly recommended for scholars and interested readers alike as it offers an invaluable primary source for understanding the official stance on the assassination. It not only narrates the fact-based findings of the Commission but also serves as a critical resource for examining the socio-political climate of the era, making it indispensable for any informed discussion surrounding one of the most pivotal moments in American history.

The Warren Commission (Complete Edition) President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy - U.S. Government, 2023-12-12

The Warren Commission Complete Edition serves as a comprehensive compilation of the investigations surrounding the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, detailing the findings of the President's Commission established in 1963. This meticulously crafted document is both a historical record and a legal assessment, characterized by its formal, objective prose typical of governmental reports of the time. The text delves into the events of November 22, 1963, the subsequent investigation, and draws conclusions regarding the lone gunman, Lee Harvey Oswald, while also addressing conspiracy theories and public skepticism prevalent in the 1960s and beyond. Created by a panel of eminent figures, including Chief Justice Earl Warren, the Commission aimed to restore public trust in government amidst widespread turmoil and uncertainty. The culmination of extensive interviews, evidence, and forensic analysis reveals the multidimensional challenges faced in the investigation. This reflective account illustrates the complex nature of political tensions during the Cold War, influencing the discourse surrounding authority and transparency in American governance. For scholars, historians, and general readers alike, The Warren Commission Complete Edition is an indispensable resource that not only provides insight into a pivotal moment in American history but also invites critical reflection on the implications of governmental inquiry. Its detailed account and academic rigor serve to illuminate the historical context that continues to shape discussions about truth and justice in contemporary society.

My journey goes back in time to Burton Michigan s history when it was still the Atherton Settlement 1835 1855 Genesee County was formed in 1836 Michigan wasn t even a state until 1837 This was an exciting time for new families to settle here finding land of their own for the first time freedom of religion and new adventures I ll be going through the yearly traditions behind the holidays and inventions along the way I hope you enjoy my historical journey Learning about the settlers on Thread River was a lot of fun how they made the Atherton Trail the four Atherton families working together to survive the cold winters They built strong shelters saved food and wood for the winter with the help of the natives In 1835 the Atherton Settlement was established the Atherton families built a strong community over the next twelve months with thirty families They built their homes barns wagons three churches a mill and a trading post The first school in the settlement was founded in 1836 the Atherton School was a one room schoolhouse built on the corner of Atherton Trail and Center Road where the Burton Memorial Library sits now Betsey Atherton was the first teacher Throughout my research we have a lot to be thankful for especially the four Atherton men that were brave enough to stay and never give up on the settlement As more people joined the settlement for the next 20 years some had military backgrounds and mostly coming from New York With all manner of trades to prosper as the community

when more schools were needed the farmers would build one in each area for the children 1855 Atherton Settlement combined with other farms to become Burton Township the second largest township but without a post office so HIDDEN
