(Paper-II) Study Notes (Vol.-1) , Contending with Antisemitism in a Rapidly Changing Political Climate Alvin H. Rosenfeld, 2021-11-02 Today s highly fraught historical moment brings a resurgence of antisemitism Antisemitic incidents of all kinds are on the rise across the world including hate speech the spread of neo Nazi graffiti and other forms of verbal and written threats the defacement of synagogues and Jewish cemeteries and acts of murderous terror Contending with Antisemitism in a Rapidly Changing Political Climate is an edited collection of 18 essays that address antisemitism in its new and resurgent forms Against a backdrop of concerning political developments such as rising nationalism and illiberalism on the right new forms of intolerance and anti liberal movements on the left and militant deeds and demands by Islamic extremists the contributors to this timely and necessary volume seek to better understand and effectively contend with today s antisemitism A Physiologically-Based Approach to Study Different Types of Locomotion in Association with

Core Performance Erika Zemková, Magni Mohr, Dario Novak , Tomas Maly, 2024-11-11 Good posture and strong core muscles are essential for most athletic movements but also for everyday activities Among them walking and running require lumbo pelvic stability and mobility for efficient movement and high level performance This is especially important during a large range of trunk motions when changing the direction of movement an abrupt walk to run transition or extreme uphill and downhill walking or running Such repetitive trunk loading over time can contribute to occurrence of back problems and lower limb injuries To avoid these unwanted effects a novel approach to studying the physiology of locomotion in relation to spine motion and balance function is required This can provide a basis for designing exercise programs specifically tailored for competitive athletes the healthy general population as well as those suffering from movement disorders So far much effort has been devoted to investigating the biomechanical and physiological variations of locomotion including walking running swimming or hopping However a surprising gap in the evidence is to what extent core strength contributes to effective locomotor performance and a healthy back Studying the neurophysiological mechanisms underlying the control of postural and core stability with special reference to locomotion is therefore of great importance

Comparative Study of Child Soldiering on Myanmar-China Border Kai Chen, 2014-03-20 From comparative perspective this book explores the dynamics of child soldiering on the Myanmar China border i e Kachin and Shan States of Myanmar At the same time this book examines the structural factors and specific relationships between child soldiers which have impacts on child soldiering This book reveals that Myanmar has limited power to reduce child soldiering on the Myanmar China border and there is no optimal solution for reducing child soldiering in the near future Instead the book introduces the transnational public private partnership approach as a second best solution and proposes suitable countermeasures for all the stakeholders

El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print, 2006 Institutional Legacies, Decision Frames and Political Violence in Rwanda and Burundi Stacey Mitchell, 2018-10-09 Rwanda and Burundi are strikingly similar countries that underwent democratization in the early 1990s In both resistance to democratic reforms led to coups d tat and presidential assassinations A conundrum arises in terms of what transpires next In Rwanda total genocide was perpetrated by extremist Hutu actors including government officials upon the country s Tutsi and politically moderate Hutu populations In Burundi the coup d tat failed and instead ushered in a lengthy period of civil war This divergence in outcome is puzzling given the similarity of these two countries and it is not adequately explained by studies that address collective violence in each This book utilizes an integrative approach that facilitates the formation of an explanation that more fully accounts for variation in the type of collective violence that occurred in Rwanda and Burundi Showing that political actors during periods of major institutional change do not all respond to or perceive reform in the exact same manner or in a necessarily rational manner this book makes an important contribution to the literature on ethnic conflict collective violence and democratization in Africa Iraq Tracy Kathleen, 2014-06-10 The Evolution of Government and Politics Iraq provides an opportunity to explore the government and political structure of Iraq and how the nation's government evolved and changed through history The young reader is encouraged to analyze past events and draw conclusions about how outside factors modified Iraq's political system and world influence The Iraq title has been developed to address many of the Common Core specific goals higher level thinking skills and progressive learning strategies from informational texts for middle grade and junior high level students Material Feminisms: New Directions for Education Carol Taylor, Gabrielle Ivinson, 2018-02-02 Material Feminisms New Directions for Education provides a range of powerful theoretical and innovative methodological examples to illuminate how new material feminism can be put to work in education to open up new avenues of research design and practice It poses challenging questions about the nature of knowledge production the role of the researcher and the critical endeavour arising from inter and post disciplinarity Working with diffractive methodologies and new materialist ecological epistemologies the book offers resources for hope which widen the scope for how educational problems are interrogated and provides a political counter movement to neo positivist outcomes based approaches within education Inspired by writers such as Barad Bennett and Deleuze and Guattari the book makes a radical break with cognitive dualist and universal conceptions of human subjectivity and intelligence in education By taking its starting point as the co constitutiveness of discourse materiality corporeality and place the book foregrounds educational practices as material enactments of multiple non linear entangled affective and relational forces It offers new insights into how gender class and ethnicity are constituted in and by material assemblages that are often submerged or unseen This book is an essential starting place for those intrigued by what new theoretical accounts of materiality posthumanism and affect can offer educational research Diffractive methodologies challenge readers to take a fuller range of actors into account than in objective humanist methodologies and in so doing to pay closer attention to what data is It invites researchers to engage with long standing feminist concerns about power and knowledge production in research processes This book was originally published as a special issue of Gender and Education

Navigating the Complexity Across the Peace-Sustainability-Climate Security Nexus Bernard Amadei, 2023-11-28 Promoting peace and sustainability in human development while accounting for the risks associated with the impact of climate change on society has become more imperative than ever when addressing humanity's challenges of the twenty first century There is enough evidence that peace sustainability and climate security are entangled with multiple complex interactions and cannot be dealt with in isolation and independently from the environment and the numerous systems with which they interact Yet the intersection of peace sustainability and climate security or their opposites i e conflict unsustainability and climate vulnerability is rarely articulated with a systemic mindset A multi solving nexus approach is more appropriate to capture the complexity and uncertainty of how the three sectors of peace sustainability and climate security play a role in community development the nature of their causal chains and the feedback on how community development affects the three sectors Navigating the Complexity Across the Peace Sustainability Climate Security Nexus explores the value proposition of using a systems approach methodology and tools to comprehend and model that dynamic Features of the book Explores the interaction between the different components of peace and the relationship between peace sustainability and climate security using semi qualitative and quantitative tools Explains how climate adaptation and mitigation are related to peace or conflict Presents generic system dynamics modeling that can be used in different contexts

Human Rights and Social Movements Neil Stammers, 2009-04-20 This book champions social movements as one of the most influential agents that shape our conceptions of human rights It argues that human rights cannot be understood outside of the context of social movement struggles It explains how much of the literature on human rights has systematically obscured this link consequently distorting our understandings of human rights Neil Stammers shows how human rights can be understood He suggests that what he calls the paradox of institutionalisation can only be addressed through a recognition of the importance of human rights arising out of grassroots activism and through processes of institutional democratisation
