Critical Theory and the Authoritarian Personality Geoff M. Boucher, 2025-01-31 The worldwide resurgence of authoritarianism has sparked renewed interest in the Frankfurt School theory of the authoritarian personality not as a topic of academic debate but as an urgent political factor Critical Theory and the Authoritarian Personality brings Theodor Adorno s critique up to date in light of new forms of authoritarian politics recent kinds of authoritarian propaganda and current findings about authoritarian personalities Drawing on the work of Slavoj Žižek and the psychoanalysis of Jacques Lacan this is the first sustained application of psychoanalytic theory to the problem of the authoritarian personality since the classical work of the Frankfurt School It explores a pressing problem the resurgence of the radical Right and proposes new solutions grounded in the idea of an affective approach to authoritarian politics as something based on transgressive fantasies and political anxieties Throughout the book illustrates its theoretical claims with reference to new kinds of authoritarian literature which today forms an important part of right wing propaganda

Radical Transformation Imants Barušs, 2021-01-28 In Radical Transformation Imants Barušs leads the reader out of the receding materialist paradigm into an emerging post materialist landscape in which new questions present themselves If consciousness has nonlocal properties then how are boundaries between events established If consciousness directly modulates physical manifestation then what is the scope of such modulation If consciousness continues after physical death then how much interference is there from non physical entities As we face the threat of extinction on this planet is there anything in recent consciousness research that can help us Are there effective means of self transformation that can be used to enter persistent transcendent states of consciousness that could resolve existential and global crises The author leads the reader through discussions of meaning radical transformation and subtle activism revealing the unexpected interplay of consciousness and reality along the way
