Magical/Realism Vanessa Angélica Villarreal, 2024-05-14 Longlisted for the National Book Award Longlisted for the 2024 National Book Critics Circle Award for Criticism Shortlisted for the Reading the West Book Award in Memoir A brilliant singular collection of essays that looks to music, fantasy and pop culture from Beyoncé to Game of Thrones to excavate and reimagine what has been disappeared by migration and colonialism. Upon becoming a new mother, Vanessa Angélica Villarreal was called to Mexico to reconnect with her ancestors and recover her grandmother's story, only to return to the sudden loss of her marriage, home and reality. In Magical Realism, Villarreal crosses into the erasure of memory and self, fragmented by migration, borders and colonial and intimate violence, reconstructing her story with pieces of American pop culture and the music, video games and fantasy that have helped her make sense of it all. The border between the real and imagined is a speculative space where we can remember or reworld what has been lost, and each chapter engages in this essential project of world building. In one essay, Villarreal examines her own gender performativity through Nirvana and Selena; in another, she offers a radical but crucial racial reading of Jon Snow in Game of Thrones, and throughout the collection, she explores how fantasy can help us interpret and heal when grief feels insurmountable. She reflects on the moments of her life that are too painful to remember: her difficult adolescence, her role as the eldest daughter of Mexican immigrants, her divorce, and finds a way to archive her history and map her future with the hope and joy of fantasy and magical thinking. Magical Realism is a wise, tender and essential collection that carves a path toward a new way of remembering and telling our stories, broadening our understanding of what memoir and cultural criticism can be.

Wolf's Search Jane Lindskold, Transformative Journey Blind Seer has run at Firekeeper's side since the wolf woman first crossed the Iron Mountains into human-held lands. Now it's her turn to run alongside the blue-eyed wolf as he sets out in search of someone who can teach him how to use his magical gift on his own unique terms. The pair's search will take them to the far side of the world in the company of allies who include a young woman scarred by war, a falcon who believes himself a traitor, and an old friend or possibly enemy. Together they will fight battles from before they were born, climb mountains, cross badlands, eventually unveiling a threat that will reshape not only Blind Seer but his belief in what he most desires.

The Coloniality of Animal Monstrous Othering in Children's Books, Films, and Toys Donna Varga, 2024-08-19 The Coloniality of Animal Monstrous Othering in Children's Books, Films, and Toys examines how the portrayal of animals as physically distorted, behaviorally

depraved and intellectually defective serves to justify their debasement violation and destruction in materials directed toward young consumers The author argues that this animal monstrous Othering arises from the Eurocentric belief in humans natural superiority over animals and the right to categorize animals in accordance with a scale of worthiness that parallels the subjugation of racialized persons The chapters examine a variety of canonical figures like the dissolute wolf of Red Riding Hood stories and the disfigured titular character of the Wonky Donkey picture book alongside non canonical animals including reprobate pigs degenerate sharks self centered flamingos and wicked piranhas To counter this animal debasement Varga juxtaposes these readings with an examination of materials that articulate harmonious animal human interrelationships without dependence on styles of anthropomorphism that diminish animality
