Investigating Crime in a Time of War Thomas W.

Kniesche,2025-04-12 This book takes a close look at crime fiction set in the interwar period and during the reign of terror of the Nazi regime Kniesche analyzes historical crime fiction depicting Weimar and Nazi Germany with specific questions in mind what does the text try to accomplish in regard to transmitting historical knowledge What history is told How is historical knowledge represented and conveyed in crime fiction Does the historical background provide an indispensable setting for the crime story With consideration to the degree of self reflexivity in the texts Kniesche probes how open the text is to an active participation of the reader in evaluating the historical knowledge that the text itself attempts to provide

Nazi Germany and the Holocaust in Historical Crime Fiction Anthony Lake, 2023-07-24 This is the first book length academic study of the portrayal in contemporary historical crime fiction of Nazi Germany and the Holocaust and their legacies It discusses novels written by five authors David Downing Philip Kerr Luke McCallin Joseph Kanon and David Thomas Their work belongs to a subgenre of the historical crime novel that has emerged since the late 1980s to become a significant body of writing located at the intersection of crime fiction and Holocaust literature The readings of these novels explore questions of form and genre to ask how popular fiction might approach the Holocaust Themes of resistance and complicity and the relationship between them and problems of guilt and responsibility are also discussed This book also explores questions of justice to show how these novels explore social and moral justice and vengeance and revenge as alternatives to ordinary legal justice after the Holocaust

Beyond Pug's Tour ,2022-06-08 At a time when the world Europe especially is once more threatened by murderous conflicts between groups of people claiming ethnic and national identity as a basis for sovereignty over specific territories it is timely to consider the part that literature has played and is playing in the creation of ethnic and national stereotypes What role do such stereotypes have in literature How are they created From what materials are they constructed What purpose do ethnic and national stereotypes serve Can it ever be a useful one Are they avoidable Can we live without them What can be done about the deleterious effects they may be thought to produce Stereotyping is worldwide is there a tribe race and nation in existence which escapes being stereotyped by its neighbours In what sense are these stereotypes accurate How are these stereotypes reflected in and reinforced by literature Should and can literature do anything about them In Beyond Pug's Tour National and Ethnic Stereotyping in Theory and Literary Practice literary scholars as well as academics engaged in sociological and psychological research consider these and other questions by examining the work of specific authors and the circumstances in which stereotyping plays such a crucial part
