

The image features a close-up of a lit candle on the left side. The flame is bright yellow and white, with a dark, shadowed area at its base where it meets the candle. The candle itself is a light cream color. In the background, there is a large, out-of-focus, warm-toned light source, possibly another candle or a lamp, creating a bokeh effect. The overall background is dark, making the light from the candles stand out.
