"WE ARE DESTINED FOR GREATNESS"

Chief Guest, The Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellors Principals of Colleges, Deans, Directors, our beloved teachers, parents my colleague graduands and all protocols observed; Distinguished Guest, Ladies and Gentlemen. Good morning!

I am humbled to address such a wonderful gathering here today – all under the umbrella of cherishing success. History brings us here through a long winding trip that can only be defined by the faithful as a miracle. It is a miracle to those of us who only witnessed others rewarded but never thought about the dawn of our day. Now it is our turn. Our turn to take those powers to read and do all that appertains to the degree.

On behalf of my colleague graduands, I hereby extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation to all of you who gave us this opportunity. You have proved to us that indeed hard work pays.

To our parents, thank you for understanding that the only inheritance you could dedicate to us was this education. We promised never to let you down and today you can attest to this. We did that and we have successfully completed our task. To God be all the glory.

aThe author invites you to embark on a journey to provoke your thinking about friendship opportunity and race relations in America This may take you in a direction you had not previously considered as you navigate the course of your own life Resetting your own sails may reap rewards The author s inspiration to write came from a startling spiritual experience which he describes in The Awakening This led to introspection and an urgent sense that a story must be told More than twenty years passed before he understood the specifics of why what and when he was to write He tells of his 2002 epiphany and a story spanning three quarters of a century Mr Horner tells a story of overcoming adversity and making a full life beyond what his racial and family background might predict He tells a story of working class boys from divergent roots building lifelong bonds beginning in military college Everyone has a story In telling his Mr Horner answers the question Who will water the flowers Testimonial As a PMC cadet of the class of 1963 I found the book a compelling read Many of the stories by the class of 62 relate and resonate with my experiences and without speculation probably to PMC cadets at large The complex thoughts of boys to men strangers who through leadership subsumed their individual needs for the greater good of a brotherhood of men This is a complex formula for those who have not been in the cauldron the formative chemistry of all of us good and bad To me the most compelling aspect of the book was the author s journey though life and the role of PMC friendship mentorship and leadership played in his life s journey The lessons learned of this journey may help us set the course to make our great nation better General John H Tillie USA Retired
