Zimbabwe@40 Lloyd Sachikonye, David Kaulemu, 2021-05-17 Zimbabwe 40 is a celebration of the country s four decades of independence and statehood Forty years is a relatively short period in a nation s life but it is a formative period what lessons can be learnt from the successes and failures challenges and opportunities of the last 40 years What should be avoided in the next 40 Lloyd Sachikonye and David Kaulemu have assembled a distinguished team of scholars to address these questions and the book focuses on issues that characterise the country s development trajectory the linkage between values and institutions defects in its democracy the curse of mineral and agricultural endowment the impact of migration and the social exclusion of women and young people The book is written from a depth of commitment to a just peaceful and prosperous Zimbabwe and represents a work in progress reflecting the continuing research evaluation and dialogue that each of the authors is engaged in and signalling the nature and direction of future such work As the editors conclude None of the chapters are pessimistic nor are they negative about the country They are realistic about the gravity of the historical moment the nation faces and the high moral political and economic mountains we must climb before we can see the Promised Land Yet they are full of hope they are convinced that we have not come to the end of history Validating Technological

Innovation David Coniam,Peter Falvey,2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong s use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders Sociology

Crises: Zimbabwes Prospects for Transformation Tendai Murisa,Tendai Chikweche,2015-12-01 Over the past years few African countries have been the focus of discussions and analyses generating a vast array of literature as much as Zimbabwe The socioeconomic and political crises since the turn of the century have deeply transformed the country from the ideals of a vibrant freshly independent nation just two decades earlier These transformations have necessitated the call for the restructuring of Zimbabwean society polity and economy But this literature remains exclusively within the realm of academic thinking and theorising with no concerted effort to move beyond this by explicitly drawing out the policy implications Beyond the Crises Zimbabwes Prospects for Transformation is a welcome addition to the academic and policy literature with a much broader and all embracing focus in terms of policy interventions By focusing on different aspects of social and economic justice Murisa and Chikweche go beyond initiating a broad discussion on these two key pillars of human development with a view to suggesting possible future directions of practical solutions and policy development for the attainment of inclusive social and economic justice for Zimbabweans The Routledge Handbook of Disability in Southern Africa Tsitsi

Chataika,2018-07-27 This comprehensive ground breaking southern African centred collection spans the breadth of disability research and practice Reputable and emerging scholars together with disability advocates adopt a critical and interdisciplinary stance to prove challenge and shift commonly held social understanding of disability in traditional discourses frontiers and practices in prominent areas such as inter national development disability studies education culture health religion gender sports tourism ICT theatre media housing and legislation This handbook provides a body of interdisciplinary analyses suitable for the development of disability studies in southern Africa Through drawing upon and introducing resources from several disciplines theoretical perspectives and personal narratives from disability activists it reflects on disability and sustainable development in southern Africa It also addresses a clear need to bring together interdisciplinary perspectives and narratives on disability and sustainable development in ways that do not undermine disability politics advanced by disabled people across the world The handbook further acknowledges and builds upon the huge body of literature that understands the social cultural educational psychological economic historical and political facets of the exclusion of disabled people The handbook covers the following broad themes Disability inclusion ICT and sustainable development Access to education from early childhood development up to higher education Disability employment entrepreneurship and community based rehabilitation Religion gender and parenthood Tourism sports and accessibility Compelling narratives from disability activists on societal attitudes toward disability media advocacy accessible housing and social exclusion Thus this much awaited handbook provides students academics practitioners development partners policy makers and activists with an authoritative framework for critical thinking and debates that inform policy and practice in incomparable ways with the view to promoting inclusive and sustainable development Zimbabwean Communities in Britain Christopher Roy Zembe,2018-05-15 This book examines why Zimbabwean immigrants in Britain should be viewed as a product of ethno racial identities and prejudices developed and nurtured during the colonial and post colonial phases of Zimbabwe s history In the absence of shared historic socio economic or cultural commonalities the book will tackle the key question Are Zimbabweans in Britain demarcated by race and ethnicity an imagined community Through an analysis of personal interviews and secondary and primary sources it identifies and engages historical experiences that had been instrumental in constructing diasporic identities and integration processes of Zimbabwean immigrants With most literature tending to create perceptions that Zimbabwean immigrants are a monolithic community of Blacks the book s comparative analysis of Blacks Whites Coloureds and Asians unveils a multi racial community fragmented by historic racial and ethnic allegiances and prejudices It is essential reading for scholars and researchers interested in migration African Diaspora and colonial and post colonial studies Fending for Ourselves ,2023-01-10 Zimbabwe celebrated its independence just over 40 years ago While the nation is no longer young its population certainly is over 60% are under the age of 35 Understanding youth perspectives and experiences is therefore vitally important Fending for Ourselves reviews the recent histories and realities of youths in Zimbabwe offering a distinguished range of authors exploring issues of education employment and work the urban experience involvement in the informal economy mental health and political activity Importantly the collection examines successive generations of youth in Zimbabwe to show how ideas experiences and reactions to the social political and economic context have shifted over time Many of the issues affecting youth over the past 40 years have been traumatic and distressing physical and mental abuse declining employment and educational opportunities poverty ill health and loss of hope but this collection underlines the agency and resilience of Zimbabwe s young people and how they have found ways to navigate the political social and economic terrains they occupy

Implementing Deeper Learning and 21st Century Education Reforms Fernando M. Reimers, 2020-11-04 This open access book is a comparative analysis of recent large scale education reforms that broadened curriculum goals to better prepare students for the 21st century The book examines what governments actually do when they broaden curriculum goals with attention to the details of implementation To this end the book examines system level reforms in six countries at various levels of development The study includes system level reforms in jurisdictions where students achieve high levels in international assessments of basic literacies such as Singapore and Ontario Canada as well as in nations where students achieve much lower levels such as Kenya Mexico Punjab Pakistan and Zimbabwe The chapters examine system level reforms that focus on strengthening the capacity to teach the basics as in Ontario and Pakistan as well as reforms that aim at building the capacity to teach a much broader set of competencies and skills such as Kenya Mexico Singapore and Zimbabwe The volume includes systems at very different levels of spending per student and reforms at various points in the cycle of policy implementation some just starting some struggling to survive a governmental transition and others that have been in place for an extended period of time From the comparative study of these reforms we aim to provide an understanding of how to build the capacity of education systems to teach 21st century skills at scale in diverse settings The Uncounted Sara L.M. Davis,2020-06-11 In the global race to reach the end of AIDS why is the world slipping off track The answer has to do with stigma money and data Global funding for AIDS response is declining Tough choices must be made some people will win and some will lose Global aid agencies and governments use health data to make these choices While aid agencies prioritize a shrinking list of countries many governments deny that sex workers men who have sex with men drug users and transgender people exist Since no data is gathered about their needs life saving services are not funded and the lack of data reinforces the denial The Uncounted cracks open this and other data paradoxes through interviews with global health leaders and activists ethnographic research analysis of gaps in mathematical models and the author s experience as an activist and senior official It shows what is counted what is not and why empowering communities to gather their own data could be key to ending AIDS SSC GK GENERAL AWARENESS SSC MULTIPLE CHOICE

Francis Machingura,Munyaradzi Mawere,2024-05-29 This book examines the controversial issues surrounding the desire for titles both earned and unearned in Zimbabwe and beyond The desire for titles is often associated with the quest for status power class and recognition Unfortunately this desire has resulted in faking and the problem of distinguishing genuine PhDs from fake ones The unscrupulous quest for fake degrees is referred to in this book as Titlemania or Taitolomania The scramble for titles has not spared community leaders across the divide Of concern is the failure of higher education students to use their earned titles to contribute to the search for solutions to societal problems through national technological development The perspectives of the contributors in this volume provoke debates on the value of doctorates in Africa and Zimbabwe in particular considering that most PhD holders are not using their degrees to contribute to national development production of goods and services and the improvement of societal conditions Probationary Officers Exam , Handbook of Research on Digital-Based Assessment and Innovative Practices in Education Keengwe, Jared, 2022-05-06 Even though digital technologies are ubiquitous in education assessment methods continue to employ traditional assessments even though they are inadequate to provide information about a student's reasoning and conceptual understanding Digital based assessment models allow students to demonstrate higher order skills while integrating digital technologies as a powerful teaching tool Digital technologies can support inquiry based learning that is essential to developing a deep conceptual understanding of the content The Handbook of Research on Digital Based Assessment and Innovative Practices in Education identifies digital tools and applications for effective assessment of learning shares various models of digital based assessment in education and considers best pedagogical practices for assessment in education Covering a range of topics such as formative assessments design thinking virtual reality and equity this major reference work is crucial for educational technologists instructional designers policymakers administrators faculty researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students

Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts Ehaab Abdou, Theodore Zervas, 2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden T rkiye and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy
