Zimsec Human And Social Biology For June 2015

Brett Pelham, David Boninger

Zimsec Human And Social Biology For June 2015:

Born to Choose John H Falk, 2017-09-05 Born to Choose is John H Falk's compelling account of why and how we make the endless set of choices we do every second of every day of our lives. Synthesizing research from across the biological and social sciences, Falk argues that human choice making is an evolutionarily ancient and complex process. He suggests that all our choices are influenced by very basic and early evolving needs and that ultimately each choice is designed to support survival in the guise of perceived well-being. This engaging book breaks new intellectual ground and enhances our understanding not just of human choice making but human behavior overall. Exploiting the Wilderness Greg L.

Warchol, 2017-11 Illegally harvested ivory and endangered plants, mammals, reptiles, birds, and even insects are easily found for sale throughout East and Southern Africa. And this is just one part of the multi-billion dollar illegal global trade in wildlife. Wildlife is an important and even vital asset for both intrinsic and economic reasons. Yet it is illegally exploited on a massive scale to the point where some species now risk extinction. Exploiting the Wilderness provides a concise overview of this shameful business, describing some of the main species being exploited and examining select wildlife whose survival is imperiled due to heavy pressure from poachers to meet consumer demand. Greg Warchol draws on his firsthand experience and research in Africa to examine the structure and operation of the illegal trade in wildlife. He identifies the participants as well as their motivations and operations and explains the behavior of poachers, traffickers, and consumers of illegally obtained goods. He concludes with a description of legislative and law enforcement efforts to control and prevent wildlife exploitation along with a number of contemporary conservation initiatives designed to improve the ability of rangers to protect wildlife.

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world, comprising their aims, activities, and events. The Extinction Market Vanda Felbab Brown, 2017-11-15 Emphasizes the disturbing consequences poaching and trafficking pose globally in terms of both biodiversity and public health. Undernutrition, Agriculture and

Public Provisioning Swarna Sadasivam Vepa, Brinda Viswanathan, 2020-04-21 Using quantitative techniques, this volume provides empirical evidence on the crucial role of public provisioning of food, water, sanitation, and health care in reducing undernutrition among women and children in India. The linkages are cogently explored and connected to the sustainable development goals. Key data comes from recent large secondary sources at district, household, and individual levels, and the econometric methodologies are clearly explained. Taken as a whole, it highlights the effects of public provisioning on malnutrition and identifies the relative importance of agricultural growth in resolving the nutrition problems in rural and semi-urban areas of India. This edited volume will be valuable reading for advanced graduate students, researchers, and practitioners in development economics, development studies, and nutrition and public health. Climate Change

Resilience in Rural Southern Africa Mark Matsa, Lazarus Chapungu, Godwell Nhamo, 2024-12-17 In rural Southern Africa

the livelihoods of millions are intricately linked to the land water and ecosystems that are increasingly under threat from climate change This intensifying threat has exacerbated pre existing vulnerabilities rendering the need for resilience building more critical than ever Emerging scholarship on climate change strategies suggest that building resilience in human and environmental systems is the ideal strategy for combating the climate change induced catastrophes Rural Southern Africa has witnessed both isolated and coordinated efforts by various stakeholders to bolster climate resilience yielding varying degrees of success This book offers a comprehensive examination of the rural Southern African landscape probing the intricate dynamics prospects and challenges associated with building climate resilience It examines how traditional knowledge innovative practices including Artificial Intelligence and sustainable development strategies are converging to create resilient systems The book further highlights the critical role of local communities in addressing climate challenges and offers actionable insights for a more resilient future It emerged that some interventions have managed to build resilience of at risk households communities and systems while others have faced significant challenges In general climate resilience building remains complex and lagging due to increased vulnerabilities induced by global disease emergencies such as COVID 19 increased poverty due to global recessions poor governance corruption and several other internal and external factors Therefore the need to increase cooperation amongst Southern African states to pursue common development goals cannot be overemphasized Rich with case studies expert analyses and systematic reviews this book is an essential read for policymakers researchers and those invested in the future of rural Southern Africa

Sustainable Wildlife Management - Unasylva 249 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2018-09-17 Wildlife management is the focus of considerable international debate because of its importance for biodiversity conservation human safety livelihoods and food security Local people have been managing wildlife for millennia including through hunting Sufficient examples are presented in this edition to show that sustainable wildlife management is also feasible in the modern era In some cases a sustainable offtake by local people trophy hunters and legitimate wildlife traders is proving vital to obtain local buy in to wildlife management and to pay the costs of maintaining habitats No doubt the debate will continue on the best ways to manage wildlife this edition of Unasylva is a contribution to that

Education and Disability in the Global South Nidhi Singal,Paul Lynch,Shruti Taneja Johansson,2018-12-13 Education and Disability in the Global South brings together new and established researchers from a variety of disciplines to explore the complexities and dilemmas encountered in providing education to children and young people with disabilities in countries in South Asia and Africa Applying a range of methodological theoretical and conceptual frameworks across different levels of education systems from pre school to higher education the contributors examine not just the barriers but also the opportunities within the educational systems in order to make strong policy recommendations Together the chapters offer a comprehensive overview of a range of issues including a nuanced appreciation of the tensions between the local and global in relation to key developments in the field critiquing a globalized notion of inclusive education as well as proposing new methodological advancements in taking the research agenda forward Empirical insights are captured not just from the perspectives of educators but also through engaging with children and young people with disabilities who are uniquely powerful in providing insights for future developments

An Anthropology of Biomedicine Margaret M. Lock,Vinh-Kim Nguyen,2018-01-09 In this fully revised and updated second edition of An Anthropology of Biomedicine authors Lock and Nguyen introduce biomedicine from an anthropological perspective exploring the entanglement of material bodies with history environment culture and politics Drawing on historical and ethnographic work the book critiques the assumption made by the biological sciences of a universal human body that can be uniformly standardized It focuses on the ways in which the application of biomedical technologies brings about radical changes to societies at large based on socioeconomic inequalities and ethical disputes and develops and integrates the theory that the human body in health and illness is not an ontological given but a moveable malleable entity This second edition includes new chapters on microbiology and the microbiome global health and the self as a socio technical system In addition all chapters have been comprehensively revised to take account of developments from within this fast paced field in the intervening years between publications References and figures have also been updated throughout This highly regarded and award winning textbook Winner of the 2010 Prose Award for Archaeology and Anthropology retains the character and features of the previous edition Its coverage remains broad including discussion of biomedical technologies in practice anthropologies of medicine biology and human experiments infertility and assisted reproduction genomics epigenomics and uncertain futures and molecularizing racial difference ensuring it remains the essential text for students of anthropology medical anthropology as well as public and global health

Nitrate, Agriculture, and the Environment T. M. Addiscott, 2005 There is widespread public concern about the effects of nitrate derived from farming on water quality and public health But research on nitrate during the past decade has revealed wide discrepancies between public perceptions and reality The main problems from nitrate are ecological changes in coastal and estuarine waters and nitrous oxide in the atmosphere This gas largely derived from nitrate is a threat to the ozone layer in the stratosphere and is also a greenhouse gas This book builds on Farming Fertilizers and the Nitrate Problem CABI 1991 by Addiscott Whitmore and Powlson but has been restructured to take account of new developments and to bring out more clearly the role of politicians and economists in the nitrate problem Entangled Encounters at the National Zoo Daniel Vandersommers, 2023-09-29 Founded amid the urban commotion of Washington DC before the dawn of the twentieth century the National Zoological Park opened to preserve teach and conduct research about the animal world Entangled Encounters at the National Zoo is a study of this important cultural landmark from 1887 to 1920 Centered on the animals themselves each chapter looks from a different angle at the influential science of popular zoology in order to shed new light on the complex entangled relationships between humans and animals Daniel Vandersommers's goal is twofold First through narrative he shows how zoo animals always ran away from the zoo This is meant literally animals escaped frequently but even more so figuratively Living breathing historical zoo animals ran away from their cultural constructions and these constructions ran away from the living bodies they were made to represent The author shows that the resulting gaps produced by runaway animals contain concealed distorted and erased histories worthy of uncovering Second Entangled Encounters at the National Zoo demonstrates how the popular zoology fostered by the National Zoo shaped every aspect of American science culture and conservation during the Gilded Age and Progressive Era Between the 1880s and World War I as intellectuals debated Darwinism and scientists institutionalized the laboratory zoological parks suddenly appeared at the heart of nearly every major American city captivating tens of millions of visitors Vandersommers follows stories previously hidden within the National Zoo in order to help us reconsider the place of zoos and their inhabitants in the twenty first century Animal Law Simon Brooman, Deborah Legge, Deborah Rook, Rachel Dunn, 2025-04-30 An examination of the law relating to animals in the UK and with consideration to European and international law from the perspective of policy society philosophy history and economics Animal Law leads us through the development of animals in society and how they have featured in the law from a historical perspective to illustrate the passage of animal s status up to the present As well as setting animal law in context the book looks at specific practical instances of animals in law animals in rented property dangerous dogs puppy farming animal testing and animals in zoo A global picture is examined by looking at the law relating to international trade illegal animal trading environmental protections and habitat loss Animal law students and practitioners as well as animal welfarists and ethicists will find this book a valuable resource 5m Books The Europa World of Learning Joseph Bascom St. John,2005 Provides over 26 000 academic institutions 150 000 staff and officials extensive coverage of universities colleges and other centres of learning and detailed information on over 400 international cultural scientific and educational organizations African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda Musingafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando,Hungwe, Chipu,2024-01-16 Within academic circles there is a longstanding issue concerning the portrayal and understanding of African womanhood Frequently these narratives are crafted by outsiders predominantly Western scholars often distorting the lived experiences and unique perspectives of African women This has led to a skewed and sometimes negative perception of African women reinforcing stereotypes and sidelining their voices in critical discussions Moreover this misrepresentation has real world consequences as it impacts social justice initiatives and development projects that rely on misguided narratives rather than the authentic voices of African women African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda emerges as an essential solution to the misrepresentation of African women This comprehensive and meticulously researched book offers an alternative narrative one that is rooted in African perspectives and experiences It addresses the historical cultural and political dimensions of African womanhood providing a rich and nuanced understanding of this multifaceted topic
