Zimsec November 2014 Religious Studies Paper:

Religion and Sexuality in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Francis Machingura, 2022-12-06 Religion and Sexuality in Zimbabwe highlights the complex interplay between religion and sexuality in Zimbabwe. It shows how religion both facilitates and complicates the expression of sexuality in Zimbabwe. Approaching religion from a broader perspective, this volume reviews the impact of African Indigenous Religions and Christianity in its varied forms on the construction and expression of sexuality in Zimbabwe. These contributors examine the role of indigenous beliefs as well as interpretations of sacred texts in the understanding of sexuality in Zimbabwe. They also address themes relating to sexual diversity and sexual and gender based violence. Overall, this book sheds light on the ongoing relevance and strategic role of religion to contemporary discourses on human sexuality.

Christian Theological Education and the Response to the Crisis in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube, Gift Masengwe, 2025-10-02 The book offers an incisive examination of the governing philosophy of the Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front (ZANU PF) referred to as Zanupfism, characterizing it as marked by callousness and malevolence towards dissenting voices from civil society and opposition factions. This pernicious application of power extends beyond mere verbal aggression to encompass militaristic actions engendering a profound generational crisis within Zimbabwe. The contributors explore the compelling juxtaposition between President Emmerson Mnangagwa and the biblical Nebuchadnezzar II, a ruler notorious for his autocratic reign and expansive ambitions. Further, critically scrutinizing the complicity of neo-Pentecostal prophets in the book reveals how these religious figures promote an esoteric understanding of the divine, diverging from a theology rooted in justice, thereby enabling the oppressive regime's practices. This critique underscores the imperative for prophets to recalibrate their theological perspectives, urging them to move beyond magical interpretations of faith toward an authentic engagement with a personal God who champions justice. The book further encompasses the complex interplay of political and religious narratives, examining how church leaders either bolster or undermine Mnangagwa's political ideology, highlighting the tendency among certain religious factions to deify political authority, ultimately exacerbating societal inequities. In advocating for a transformative theological discourse in Zimbabwe, the book asserts that religious narratives must serve as instruments for fostering democracy, social justice, and equity, rather than sustaining a status quo that entrenches authoritarian governance. The necessity for unified, principled resistance grounded in the collective agency of the populace emerges as a salient theme in the quest for meaningful political and social reform.

Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe Christine Peta, 2017-10-25 Disabled women represent one of the most marginalised minority groups in the world; hence they are largely silent while their sexuality is ignored, suppressed, forbidden, and buried underneath the carpet. Until recently, most of the Global Northern published literature on the subject of the sexuality of disabled women has predominantly been constructed from hearsay and second-hand narratives in studies which draw from the perspectives of parents, service providers, and advocates without much consultation of the relevant women. By facilitating the voice of disabled women in Zimbabwe and illuminating their experiences of sexuality this book hopes to shift the experiences of sexuality of disabled women from the periphery of society to the fore Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe presents original research on an issue that is thus far not found in local research data Whilst addressing the paucity of literature on the subject the book informs policy and practice and enhances the existing body of knowledge by making recommendations towards the development of a disability and sexuality framework that is rooted in the African context This book is of interest to students and scholars of African studies disability studies sociology psychology social work nursing education studies geography women s and gender studies and interdisciplinary studies Additional audiences include a wide range of health social care and educational professionals and practitioners as well donors disabled people s organisations charities government departments NGOs supranational organisations and policy makers

Border Jumping and Migration Control in Southern Africa Francis Musoni, 2020-04-07 With the end of apartheid rule in South Africa and the ongoing economic crisis in Zimbabwe the border between these Southern African countries has become one of the busiest inland ports of entry in the world As border crossers wait for clearance crime violence and illegal entries have become rampant Francis Musoni observes that border jumping has become a way of life for many of those who live on both sides of the Limpopo River and he explores the reasons for this including searches for better paying jobs and access to food and clothing at affordable prices Musoni sets these actions into a framework of illegality He considers how countries have failed to secure their borders why passports are denied to travelers and how border jumping has become a phenomenon with a long history especially in Africa Musoni emphasizes cross border travelers active participation in the making of this history and how clandestine mobility has presented opportunity and creative possibilities for those who are willing to take the risk

Regime, Religion and the Consolidation of Zanu-PFism in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube, 2023-12-14 This collection focuses on the role of religious leaders and religious institutions in supporting or resisting the democratization process in Zimbabwe It scrutinizes the actions of religious leaders such as Andrew Wutawunashe and Jeremiah Mutendi who were prominent in the political scene and participated as enablers of the undemocratic regime The contributors to this volume employ a variety of methodological approaches to understand the operational dilemma of the second republic under Emmerson Dambudzo Mnangagwa commonly referred to as Zanu-PF It is an empirical study to determine the impact of religious leaders as regime enablers and assess the effects of such an approach in terms of social development democracy and social transformation as espoused in the rise of the second republic In order to balance the narrative the book highlights and offers critique of religious leaders and institutes who are the resisters of the regime It specifically explores the Zimbabwe Catholic Bishops Conference Evangelical Fellowship of Zimbabwe Zimbabwe Council of Churches Talent Chiwenga and Shingi Munyeza This is a critical study of decoloniality in a religious context that documents characters such as Shingi Munyeza Bishop Mutendi Mapostori who seldomly appear in scholarship despite their great impact either positive or negative on the lives of the people of Zimbabwe Politics and Religion in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando,2020-04-03 This book illustrates how religion and ideology were used by Robert Mugabe to ward off opposition within his own party in Zimbabwe and from the West An interdisciplinary line up of contributors argue that Mugabe used a calculated narrative of deification presenting himself as a divine figure who had the task of delivering land freedom and confidence to black people across the world to remain in power in Zimbabwe The chapters highlight the appropriation and deployment of religious themes in Mugabe s domestic and international politics reflect on the contestation around the deification of Mugabe in Zimbabwean politics across different forms of religious expression including African Traditional Religions and various strands of Christianity and initiate further reflections on the interface between religion and politics in Africa and globally Politics and Religion in Zimbabwe will be of interest to scholars of religion and politics Southern Africa and African politics

Power in Contemporary Zimbabwe Erasmus Masitera,Fortune Sibanda,2018-04-20 In recent years the Zimbabwe crisis rendered the country and its citizens to be a typical case of failed states the world over Zimbabwean society was and is still confronted with different challenges which include political economic and social problems Attempts to overcome these challenges have thrown light on the power that rests within individuals and or groups to change and even revolutionize their localities communities states and ultimately the world at large Through experience individuals and groups have promoted ideas that have aided in changing mentalities attitudes and behaviors in societies at different levels This book brings together contributors from various academic disciplines to reflect on and theorize the contours of power including the intrinsic and or extrinsic models of power which pertain to individuals communities and or groups in order to transform society Reflections are on various groups such as political movements environmental movements religious groups advocacy groups gender groups to mention but a few as they struggle against marginalization discrimination exploitation and other forms of oppression showing their agency or compliance

Prophecy Today Hermen Kroesbergen,2016-08-01 In Prophecy today reflections from a Southern African context a group of theologians and scholars of religion from Zambia and South Africa reflects upon these questions Anthropologists Biblical scholars practical theologians and others shine their light on what prophecy can mean today in this context This book aims at stimulating a continuing Southern African discourse on this very interesting and relevant aspect of Christianity in our region The book consists of 15 different articles by well known scholars and has been ably compiled and edited by Dr Hermen Kroesbergen lecturer in Systematic Theology and Philosophy of Religion at Justo Mwale University Lusaka Zambia

Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando,Sophia Chirongoma,Molly Manyonganise,2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious cultural ideologies on the status of women. In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move. Furthermore, chapters show how space continues to be gendered in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes. Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa, this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies, Women's Studies, African Studies, Development Studies, as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists.

Reimagining God and Resacralisation Alexa Blonner, 2019-05-14 This book shows that widespread resacralisation has been taking place which is producing new ways of perceiving God and the divine. The last century has seen unmistakable changes in religious practices and the concept of spirituality right across the world. There was a broad expectation for much of the twentieth century that religious worldviews would eventually succumb to the challenge of secularist materialism, but this process of secularisation has yet to occur as predicted. The book begins by contrasting theories of secularisation and resacralisation. Throughout the book, conceptual threads or new religious themes related to this resacralisation are discussed in terms of three main categories: reimagining God's nature, substance, and location; reimagining human value and purpose; and reimagining modes of redemption. Finally, the book considers how these threads are moving in various different directions and what the religious future might hold. This is a bold examination of contemporary spirituality that will appeal to academics and scholars of religious studies, new religious movements, and the sociology of religion.

Religion, Women's Health Rights, and Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe: Volume 1 Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, Ezra Chitando, 2022-08-26 This volume brings to the fore the interface of religion, women's sexual reproductive health and rights (SRHR), and the sustainable development goals (SDGs) in Zimbabwe. It emphasizes that empowering African women is a pivotal pillar for attaining sustainable development. Contributors discuss the need for implementing structural changes as a prerequisite for social progress and development to occur in Southern Africa. They interrogate the extent to which religious beliefs and practices either promote or impede women's SRHR. The contributors also proffer several ways in which addressing the themes of health for all and equality for all women and girls can make a meaningful contribution towards the fulfillment of the goals set for Agenda 2030.

Powered by Faith Tapiwa Praise Mapuranga, 2018-11-30 This book investigates the impact of Pentecostalism on the participation of women in business in Harare, Zimbabwe. Chapters in this volume trace the history of women's participation in business and highlight how Pentecostalism serves as a major motivating factor. The central argument is that there is a way in which selected women's businesses are powered by the Spirit. Contributors to the volume utilize case studies of selected Pentecostal churches and ministries to highlight how the religious ideologies of these churches galvanize them to engage in business. They also draw patterns of similarity and difference across the different Pentecostal churches. The volume demonstrates how Pentecostalism both facilitates and militates against women's participation in business concerning a specific setting in Zimbabwe State, Land and Democracy in Southern Africa Arrigo Pallotti, Corrado Tornimbeni, 2016-03-03 Each country in southern Africa has a unique history but in all of them socio economic inequalities and high poverty levels weaken the governments legitimacy and represent a challenge to models of economic development One key issue appears to be the solution of the land question This vital concern affects both citizenship and democracy in the political systems of the region yet no government has shown the capacity or commitment to solve it In this volume leading European American and African scholars explore in detail the relationship between state land and democracy They examine the historical background of asset allocation and its impact on questions of nationality the definition of citizenship human rights and the current political and economic processes in southern Africa Masculinities under Neoliberalism Andrea Cornwall, Frank G. Kariotis, Nancy Lindisfarne, 2016-05-15 Neoliberalism has had a radical impact on the lived gendered experiences of people around the world But while the gendered dimensions of neoliberalism have already received significant scholarly attention the existing literature has given little consideration to men's identities and experiences Building on the work of Cornwall and Lindisfarne's landmark text Dislocating Masculinity this collection provides a fresh perspective on gender dynamics under neoliberalism Bringing together a series of short readable case studies drawn from new ethnographic fieldwork its subjects range from the experiences of working class men in Putin's Russia to colonial masculinities in Southern Rhodesia and from young British Muslim men to amateur footballers in Jamaica Abundant Life and Basic Needs Nyoni, Bednicho, 2019 Western neglecting traditional religion is an important factor for the failure of many developmental strategies towards Africa Therefore religion's of the indigenous peoples must be given the necessary attention The book presents the example of the Shona religion playing a critical role in the life of the Zimbabweans If incorporated it will contribute to the better success of development initiatives back cover Breaking the Colonial "Contract" Everisto Benyera, 2020-05-22 The book exposes various mechanisms and methods by which covert colonial mechanisms are employed to perpetuate colonialism especially in Africa Less overt and more covert perpetuation of colonialism is done through the use of networks The main achievement of the initial phase of colonialism was the establishment of networks that are nefarious and omnipresent constituting distributed presence which allows for action at a distance As a result colonial subjects became willing participants in these processes unbeknownst to them which perpetuated their own colonialism The book exposes forms of colonialism where manufactured consent is used to perpetuate colonialism Trapped in this capitalist Western Christian language and moral world order without sovereignty African countries continuously sink deeper into the colonial quagmire Human Rights in Thick and Thin Societies Seth D. Kaplan, 2018-08-16 Socio centric societies have vibrant albeit different concepts of human flourishing than is typical in the individualistic West These concepts influence the promotion of human rights both in domestic contexts with religious minorities and in international contexts where Western ideals may clash with local norms Human Rights in

Thick and Thin Societies uncovers the original intentions of the drafters of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights finds inspiration from early leaders in the field like Eleanor Roosevelt and examines the implications of recent advances in cultural psychology for understanding difference The case studies included illustrate the need to vary the application of human rights in differing cultural environments and the book suggests a new framework a flexible universalism that returns to basics focusing on the great evils of the human condition This approach will help the human rights movement succeed in a multipolar era

Curating Africa in the Age of Film Festivals L. Dovey, 2015-03-11 Tracing the history of Africa's relationship to film festivals and exploring the festivals impact on the various types of people who attend festivals the festival experts the ordinary festival audiences and the filmmakers Dovey reveals what turns something called a festival into a festival experience for these groups

Subtle Agroecologies Julia Wright, 2021-06-29 This book is about the invisible or subtle nature of food and farming and also about the nature of existence Everything that we know and do not know about the physical world has a subtle counterpart which has been scarcely considered in modernist farming practice and research If you think this book isn't for you if it appears more important to attend to the pressing physical challenges the world is facing before having the luxury of turning to such subtleties then think again For it could be precisely this worldview the one prioritises the physical material dimension of reality that helped get us into this situation in the first place Perhaps we need a different worldview to get us out This book makes a foundational contribution to the discipline of Subtle Agroecologies a nexus of indigenous epistemologies multidisciplinary advances in wave based and ethereal studies and the science of sustainable agriculture Not a farming system in itself Subtle Agroecologies superimposes a non material dimension upon existing materially based agroecological farming systems Bringing together 43 authors from 12 countries and five continents from the natural and social sciences as well as the arts and humanities this multi contributed book introduces the discipline explaining its relevance and potential contribution to the field of Agroecology Research into Subtle Agroecologies may be described as the systematic study of the nature of the invisible world as it relates to the practice of agriculture and to do this through adapting and innovating with research methods in particular with those of a more embodied nature with the overall purpose of bringing and maintaining balance and harmony Such research is an open minded inquiry its grounding being the lived experiences of humans working on and with the land over several thousand years to the present By reclaiming and reinterpreting the perennial relationship between humans and nature the implications would revolutionise agriculture heralding a new wave of more sustainable farming techniques changing our whole relationship with nature to one of real collaboration rather than control and ultimately transforming ourselves

Healing the Wounds of Gukurahundi in Zimbabwe Dumisani Ngwenya, 2017-12-14 This book is based on a participatory action research project carried out with a group of former Zimbabwe People's revolutionary Army ZPRAs which was the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People's Union ZAPU which was led by the late Joshua Nkomo ZPRAs was the primary target of Gukurahundi a pogrom by the Mugabe government which left an estimated 20 000 civilians dead and countless others tortured in the early 1980s in Matebeleland Zimbabwe It has been almost 30 years since the violence ended but there has never been an official healing and reconciliation programme or truth commission into the atrocities The government chose the path of amnesia by granting a blanket amnesty to all involved The regime has enforced a culture of silence over the event through repression and intimidation The book is a culmination of a two year journey by the group and the author of an exploration of group based self healing approaches to the pain caused by the violence of Gukurahundi
