context Fighting and Writing Luise White, 2021-02-08 In Fighting and Writing Luise White brings the force of her historical insight to bear on the many war memoirs published by white soldiers who fought for Rhodesia during the 1964-1979 Zimbabwean liberation struggle. In the memoirs of white soldiers fighting to defend white minority rule in Africa long after other countries were independent, White finds a robust and contentious conversation about race difference and the war itself. These are writings by men who were ambivalent conscripts, generally aware of the futility of their fight, not brutal pawns flawlessly executing the orders and parroting the rhetoric of a racist regime. Moreover, most of these men insisted that the most important aspects of fighting a guerrilla war were tracking and hunting knowledge of the land and of the ways of African society, which were learned from black playmates in idealized rural childhoods. In these memoirs, African guerrillas never lost their association with the wild, even as white soldiers boasted of bringing Africans into the intimate spaces of regiment and regime.

Language Matters in Contemporary Zimbabwe Collen Sabao, Esther Mavengano, 2024-06-17 Speaking to a broader global preoccupation with the state of languages and language development, this book considers issues surrounding the diverse languages, linguistic communities and cultures of Zimbabwe. Reflecting on Shona, Xitsonga, Sotho, Xhosa, Tjwao, Nambya, IsiNdebele, Nyanja, Tshivenda, English and Braille, the book uncovers both the internal and external factors that impact language structures, language use and language ideologies across the country. The book considers how colonial legacies and contemporary language domination and minoritisation have led to language endangerment. It considers the fate of communities whose languages are marginalised and, in the process, poses questions on what can and should be done to preserve Zimbabwean languages. The authors' offerings range across subjects as diverse as music, linguistic innovation, education, human rights, literature, language politics and language policy in order to build a rich and nuanced picture of language matters in the country. Coming at a critical moment of increasing mobility, migration, cultural plurality and globalisation, this book will be an important resource for researchers across African literature, linguistics, communication policy and politics.

Social Media and Elections in Africa, Volume 2 Martin N. Ndlela, Winston Mano, 2020-02-14 This book, the second of two volumes, explores the challenges and opportunities presented by the increased presence of social media within African politics. Electoral processes in Africa have assumed new dimensions due to the influence of social media. As social media permeates different aspects of elections, it is ostensibly creating new challenges and opportunities. Most evident are the challenges of hate speech, misogyny and incivility. This book considers the impact of digital media before, during and after elections, as well as authorities' attempts to legislate and regulate the internet in response. Contributions to this volume analyse social media posts, transgressive images, newspaper articles and include case studies of Algeria, Zimbabwe, Kenya, South Africa, Nigeria and Uganda. This results in the delivery of an original depiction of the use of social media in a variety of African contexts. This book will appeal to academics and students of media and communication studies, political studies, journalism, sociology and African studies.

Jostling Between Mere Talk and Blame Game? Munyaradzi

Mawere,2018-02-14 One of the fundamental challenges in rethinking and remaking development in Africa from a Pan African perspective is that too much mere talk and blame game have played out at the expense of real action The blame game and mere talk on Africas poverty and underdevelopment jam have remained printed in bold on the face of the continent yet Africas dire situation warrants nothing less than real emphatic action This book focuses on the empirics of the production and reproduction of poverty and underdevelopment across Africa in a fashion that warrants urgent pragmatic policy attention and quest for workable homegrown solutions to persistent predicaments The volume advances the need to recognise the realities of global inequalities and move swiftly in a most informed and transparent manner to address the poverty and underdevelopment conundrum The book sets the tempo and pace on the need for praxis and pragmatism on the African situation It is handy to students and practitioners in African studies poverty and development studies global studies policy studies economics and political science Great Zimbabwe

Shadreck Chirikure,2020-11-29 Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author s excavations with native concepts and philosophies Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape In so doing the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology Written in an accessible manner the book is aimed at undergraduate students graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology Transnational Land Grabs and Restitution in an Age of the (De-)Militarised New Scramble for Africa: A Pan African Socio-Legal

Warikandwa, Tapiwa V.,Nhemachena, Artwell,2017-09-26 One of the fundamental challenges in deconstructing rethinking and remaking the world from a Pan African vantage point is that some captives have tended to delight in the warmth of the imperial predator s mouth In other words some captives forget that the imperial predator s mouth gets warm because empire is eating and heating up from prey on the continent De Militarisation Transnational Land Grabs and Restitution in an Age of the New Scramble for Africa A Pan African Socio Legal Perspective is a book that knocks on key aspects relating to land militarisation a PostAfrican World Order and a chaotic Post God World Order which require critical scholarly and policy attention in the quest to free Africa from centuries old imperial depredations The book carefully navigates the imperial entrapments which are designed to focus African attention only on decolonising African minds without also engaging in the imperially more unsettling decolonisation of African materialities Localization in Development Aid

Thorsten Bonacker,Judith von Heusinger,Kerstin Zimmer,2016-11-25 This edited volume brings together the work of scholars from different disciplines including sociology political science and anthropology and analyses how global institutions are embedded in local contexts

Environment, Technology, and Development Ismay Milford,Corinna R. Unger,Iris Borowy,2025-12-01 Histories of environment and histories of technology have moved in exciting interdisciplinary directions in recent years with increasing recognition that both environments and technologies are made and remade gaining meaning only in specific historical settings With historical scholarship weighted towards examples from the North Atlantic world this volume provides a collection of grounded case studies from across the modern world that interrogate the relationship between environment and technology in developmental practices and discourses Development projects have often involved assumptions that humans can create and wield technology to harness improve or protect the non human environment This volume will not simply discredit these assumptions by revealing their nefarious effects on our society and planet but instead historicise them by locating them within specific power structures and epistemologies The connections and conversations between dispersed cases raised here point us to more nuanced conclusions about the causes and effects the objects and subjects of history in this dynamic interaction between environment technology and development

The Rhodesian Air Force in Zimbabwe's War of Liberation, 1966-1980 Darlington Mutanda,2016-11-22 This book evaluates the development of the Rhodesian Air Force during the Second Chimurenga or Bush War 1966 1980 Airpower in irregular conflict is effective at the tactical level because guerrilla warfare is not a purely military conflict The Rhodesian Air Force was deployed in a war winning versus a supporting role as a result of the shortage of manpower to deal with insurgency and almost all units of the Rhodesian Security Forces depended on its tactical effectiveness Technical challenges faced by the Air Force combined with the rate of guerrilla infiltration and the misuse of airpower to bomb guerrilla bases in neighboring countries largely negated the success of airpower

Visualising China in Southern Africa Juliette Leeb-du Toit,Ruth Simbao,Ross Anthony,Rui Assubuji,Ying Cheng,Malcolm Corrigan,Romain Dittgen,Esther Esmiol,Philip Harrison,Patricia Hayes,Binjun Hu,T Tu Huynh,Nicola Kritzinger,Mark Lewis,Khangalani Moyo,Stary Mwaba,Marcus Neustetter,Kristin NG-Yang,Gemma Rodrigues,Shuo Wang,Yan Yang,Lifang Zhang,2023-03-01 China and Africa have long shared a history of allegiance and contact points through global political forces from the time of colonialism and the Cold War With China s rise as the new superpower its presence in Africa has expanded leading to significant economic geopolitical and cultural shifts While issues such as trade aid and development have received much attention Chinese and African encounters through the lens of the visual arts and material culture is a neglected field Visualising China in Southern Africa Biography Circulation Transgression

is a ground breaking volume that addresses this deficit through engaging with the work of contemporary African and Chinese artists while analysing broader material production that prefigures the current relationship The essays are wide ranging in their analysis of ceramics photography painting etching sculpture film performance postcards stamps installations political posters cartoons and architecture Visualising China in Southern Africa confines its focus to southern Africa yet even within this region the context is complex Ethnicity and nationalism the lingering influence of Cold War allegiances and colonial configurations all continue to play a role The various visual cultures discussed in this volume emphasise the commonality of these categories but also point towards other shared histories that transcend the nation state category The collection includes scholarly chapters photo essays interviews and artists personal accounts organised around four themes material flows orientations and transgressions spatial imaginaries and biographies The artists photographers filmmakers curators and collectors in this volume include Stary Mwaba Hua Jiming Anawana Haloba Gerald Machona Nobukho Nqaba Marcus Neustetter Brett Murray Diane Victor William Kentridge Kristin NG Yang Kok Nam Mark Lewis the Chinese Camera Club of South Africa Wu Jing Henion Han and Shengkai Wu Civil Society and the Party-state in Zimbabwe Zenzo

Moyo,2024-08-21 The book utilises Gramsci s concepts of hegemony counter hegemony organic intellectuals and integral state to interrogate how modes of engagement between the state and civil society have contributed to a polarised polity in Zimbabwe and in turn how this has impacted democratisation processes This was achieved by analysing intra civil society interactions and state civil society relations which established deep polarised relationships that can be traced back to the liberation struggle It also interrogates ideologies that drive these polarised relations and how together with material benefits from donors and the party state these relations impact ordinary people s modes of existence One of the arguments that emerge from the book is that political polarisation in Zimbabwe has now morphed into an established political culture that has played a huge role in the retardation of democratic struggles It uses ideas of entangled modernities and travelling theory to cast doubt on the belief that civil society is the missing key in the democratisation of developing countries The World

Factbook 2016-17 Government Publications Office,2016-08-18 The World Factbook provides information on the history people government economy geography communications transportation military and transnational issues for 267 world entities The World Factbook Reference tab includes maps of the major world regions as well as Flags of the World a Physical Map of the World a Political Map of the World a World Oceans map and a Standard Time Zones of the World map This annual edition also covers information about country profiles and country comparisons It would make an excellent and useful resource for world geography research papers and international relations classes that may study the people history and communication patterns of other countries
