Resource Recovery and Recycling from Waste Metal Dust Daniel Ogochukwu Okanigbe, Abimbola Patricia Popoola, 2023-03-15 This book examines resource recovery and recycling from waste metal dust including currently used techniques for waste processing and recycling and their applications with practical examples and economic potentials of the processes The focus of this book is on resource recovery by suitable treatments and techniques including those of recovery by products For the first time this book provides a comprehensive one stop reference including seminal principles and methods the advantages and disadvantages of the processes discussed and the economics of the technology It will serve as a technical reference for working scientists and engineers while serving as an educational reference to students studying the waste recovery of metals      Structuring Mass Higher Education David Palfreyman, Ted Tapper, 2012-10-12 Undoubtedly the most important development in higher education in recent years has been the seemingly inexorable expansion of national systems In a comparatively short time period many countries have moved from an elite to a mass model Furthermore expansion has invariably changed the whole experience of higher education for all the interested parties from presidents rectors and vice chancellors to first term undergraduates Structuring Mass Higher Education examines the impact of this change upon the existing national structures of higher education It also defines and highlights what makes an elite university something which institutions must strive for in order to gain their position as global players With case studies and contributions from a wide range of international authors the book explores questions such as Do higher education institutions retain a national significance even though the vestiges of an international reputation have long faded Has expansion undermined the quality of higher education because governments sought to expand on the cheap Is the elite institutional response to mass higher education perceived as a threat to be responded to with purposeful action that sustains their elite status Does the emergence of the international league tables pose a challenge to those responsible for governing elite institutions These are critical issues with which both policy makers and institutional leaders will have to grapple over the next ten years making Structuring Mass Higher Education a timely relevant and much needed text It will appeal to policy makers and practitioners within higher education as well as student and scholars worldwide
