Inventing the New Dispensation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Joram Tarusarira, 2024-11-14 How does a regime whose members have been actively involved in the previous one appropriate and deploy religious ideas and rhetoric to cast itself as born again and attractive Exploring intersections between politics religion and economics this book examines invention of Zimbabwe's New Dispensation the regime of Emmerson D Mnangagwa and how it has aimed to separate itself from the previous regime of Robert G Mugabe Utilizing the concept of invention contributors reflect on how Mnangagwa and his publicists deploy religious ideas concepts and rhetoric in the quest for legitimacy in a heavily contested political field The book also reflects on the ways opposing political actors have utilized the same template in their quests to secure power The contributors interrogate the use of time theological ideas and religious practices to separate Mnangagwa's regime from Mugabe's This book provides insight into how religious rhetoric is used not only to gain but also to contest legitimacy in Zimbabwe's political sphere

Shona Women in Zimbabwe--A Purchased People? John Chitakure, 2016-09-29 The position and treatment of women in every religion culture and society have been subjects of concern for a long time In every society women fight for their emancipation from exploitive and oppressive patriarchal structures The most contentious issues include domestic violence gender discrimination and inequality in the areas of employment leadership and marriage Domestic violence tops the list and is the worst enemy of any progressive and democratic society It dehumanizes disfigures and demeans its victims and survivors Shona Women in Zimbabwe a Purchased People explores the causes of domestic violence the cultural practice of bridewealth in particular and assesses the extent to which it contributes to the proliferation of domestic violence among the Shona people of Zimbabwe It then explores the Christian traditions particularly the Roman Catholic Church in search of resources that can be used to emancipate Shona women from patriarchal subjugation Finally the book offers a pastoral response that is informed by the experiences of the Shona women their cultural resources and the Roman Catholic religious tradition

Scattered and Gathered Michael L. Budde, 2017-09-15 This volume takes its title from the first century Christian catechism called the Didache Even as this broken bread was scattered over the hills gathered together and became one so let Your Church be gathered together from the ends of the earth For Christians today these words remain relevant in an era of massive human movements voluntary and coerced hybrid identities and wide ranging cultural interactions How do modern Christians live as both a scattered and gathered people How do they live out the tension between ecclesial universality catholicity and particularity distinctive ways of being church in a given culture and context Do Christians today constitute a diaspora a people dispersed across borders and cultures that nonetheless maintains a sense of commonality and mission Scattered and Gathered Catholics in Diaspora explores these questions through the work of fourteen scholars in different fields and from different corners of the world Whether through reflections on Zimbabweans in Britain Levantines in North America or the remote island people of Chiloe now living in other parts of Chile they guide readers along the winding road of insights and challenges facing many of today's Christians

Religion in Times of Crisis, 2014-07-03 Religion is alive and well all over the world especially in times of personal political and social crisis Even in Europe long regarded the most secular continent religion has taken centre stage in how people respond to the crises associated with modernity or how they interact with the nation state In this book scholars working in and on Europe offer fresh perspectives on how religion provides answers to existential crisis how crisis increases the salience of religious identities and cultural polarization and how religion is contributing to changes in the modern world in Europe and beyond Cases from Poland to Pakistan and from Ireland to Zimbabwe among others demonstrate the complexity and ambivalence of religion s role in the contemporary world Contributors are Mariecke van den Berg David J Bos Marco Derks Marco Derks R Ruard Ganzevoort Milo Jovanovi Vladimir Kmec Marta Ko odziejska Anne Marie Korte Anne Sophie Lamine Christophe Monnot Alexandre Piettre Ali Qadir Srdjan Sremac Joram Tarusaria Martina Topi and Tom Wagner The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature Laura Hobgood, Whitney A. Bauman, 2018-05-17 Divided into four parts Earth Air Fire and Water this book takes an elemental approach to the study of religion and ecology It reflects recent theoretical and methodological developments in this field which seek to understand the ways that ideas and matter minds and bodies exist together within an immanent frame of reference The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature focuses on how these matters materialize in the world around us thereby addressing key topics in this area of study The editors provide an extensive introduction to the book as well as useful introductions to each of its parts The volume s international contributors are drawn from the USA South Africa Netherlands Norway Indonesia and South Korea and offer a variety of perspectives voices cultural settings and geographical locales This handbook shows that human concern and engagement with material existence is present in all sectors of the global community regardless of religious tradition It challenges the traditional methodological approach of comparative religion and argues that globalization renders a comparative religious approach to the environment insufficient

Rediscovering Jesus in Our Places Elia Shabani Mligo, 2020-05-28 The question of contextual theology and its relevance to Africa in this time of globalization whereby there are rampant uncontrolled changes in cultures technologies economic policies and even people s religious lives is very urgent How is contextual theology relevant in the ever changing contexts of the church in Africa Indeed there are a number of challenges which contextual theology faces within the church in Africa which need to be addressed contextually Some such challenges include poverty rampant violence homosexuality alcoholism the resurgence of prosperity gospel materialistic prophets and incurable illnesses like Ebola HIV and AIDS and the current coronavirus COVID 19 However which context in Africa Context in Africa as in other parts of the world is always in flux it is complex and fluid There is no permanent context The experience of Jesus in such a changing context needs to be rediscovered depending on what transpires in each particular place at a particular time This book addresses some of the overarching challenges that face contextual theology and how such challenges should be addressed by the church in Africa in contemporary ever changing context for it to be relevant in Africa It also highlights the need to move from liberation and inculturation theologies to reconstruction theology in dealing with the challenges of the current church Hence the book is important to students and scholars engaging in practical systematic biblical and contextual theologies in all their branches
