Refugee Learner Experiences. A Case Study of Zimbabwean Refugee Children Lawrence Meda, 2017-09 This study is a presentation of Zimbabwean refugee learner experiences Children escaped political persecution and economic problems which affected Zimbabwe in the year 2008 Many of these children were abused and witnessed traumatic experiences their close relatives and neighbours being executed in cold blood This study was guided by three critical questions i who are the Zimbabwean refugee learners ii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners migration experiences and iii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners school experiences The study employed Bronfenbrenner's Social Ecological Model as its overarching theoretical framework Each stage of the refugee experience was described at each point in time Power in Contemporary Zimbabwe Erasmus Masitera, Fortune Sibanda, 2018-04-20 In recent years the Zimbabwe crisis rendered the country and its citizens to be a typical case of failed states the world over Zimbabwean society was and is still confronted with different challenges which include political economic and social problems Attempts to overcome these challenges have thrown light on the power that rests within individuals and or groups to change and even revolutionize their localities communities states and ultimately the world at large Through experience individuals and groups have promoted ideas that have aided in changing mentalities attitudes and behaviors in societies at different levels This book brings together contributors from various academic disciplines to reflect on and theorize the contours of power including the intrinsic and or extrinsic models of power which pertain to individuals communities and or groups in order to transform society Reflections are on various groups such as political movements environmental movements religious groups advocacy groups gender groups to mention but a few as they struggle against marginalization discrimination exploitation and other forms of oppression showing their agency or compliance Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders Pursuit of the Elusive Dream Lawrence D Moyo, 2023-05-16 Anyone interested in the history of Zimbabwe will love this memoir by Lawrence D Moyo It traces the tumultuous events of the First Chimurenga of 1896 through independence from Great Britain in 1980 until the present day He vividly describes his childhood struggles as the son of a father who abuses his children as slave labourers Lawrence progressively climbs the educational ladder until he emigrates to the UK with his family Harping on the theme of hidden racism among others Lawrence then endures horrific racist treatment from criminally disobedient white and black students in schools he works at as an English teacher Having become a highly respected educational specialist he is now retired in the

UK retaining his connections with his family members and friends in Zimbabwe Beyond the Enclave Godfrey Kanyenze, Timothy Kondo, 2011-07-26 Beyond the Enclave sets out to unravel the contradiction of a country Zimbabwe where a rich diverse resource base co exists with endemic poverty One reason lies in the colonial economy which was predicated on an ideology of white supremacy creating an enclave formal economy employing one fifth of the labour force Yet over three decades after independence the non formal segment has become even more entrenched This book assesses Zimbabwe's economy through three main phases 1980 90 when a strong social policy framework proved difficult to sustain due to erratic growth and 1991 96 when structural adjustment demanded a market driven approach to development The third phase is characterized by crisis management leading to policy inconsistencies and reversals Not surprisingly such incoherence saw the economy descend into hyperinflation and paralysis in 2007 2008 leading to the signing of the Global Political Agreement in September 2008 In the absence of formal dollarization economic recovery after the adoption of the multi currency regime has remained fragile leaving an estimated 70 per cent of the population outside the banking system This has further entrenched uneven enclave growth as the economy remains locked in a low income poverty trap There is a need to facilitate transition towards formality to promote decent jobs Furthermore a strategic developmental role for the state in the economy is now widely recognized as vital for development Beyond the Enclave argues for a new approach to development in Zimbabwe based on pro poor and inclusive strategies which will contribute to the well being of all of its citizens and wise stewardship of its resources It offers suggestions on policy formulation implementation monitoring and evaluation in all sectors designed to promote inclusive growth and humane development Critical Examinations of School Violence and Disturbance in K-12 Education Crews, Gordon A., 2016-02-02 In recent years a rise in incidents of juvenile delinquency and violence in American schools has led to increasing concern among school administrators students parents and the general public The frequency of these cases calls into question issues of safety risk factors and prevention strategies within the modern school system Critical Examinations of School Violence and Disturbance in K 12 Education is an authoritative reference source for the latest research on youth violence in schools offering a thorough analysis of contributing factors to such incidents and possible solutions to prevent future occurrences Highlighting relevant issues on zero tolerance policies historical perspectives and preventive actions this book is ideally designed for school administrators law enforcement teachers and researchers actively working in educational environments Multidisciplinary Humane Perspectives on Education Lawrence Ogbo Ugwuanyi, 2024-01-16 While the majority of mankind access education and while different ideologies and philosophies may motivate education educational delivery and attainment it is important to discuss how through these humanity may become more human by realising its full potential This book addresses issues such as equality inclusiveness cosmopolitan worldviews and conflicting pressures in education in a manner that makes every member of the human community accountable to the others through education LWATI ,2007 The Incubus Kawengo

Covid-19 and the Dialectics of Global Pandemics in Africa Munyaradzi Mawere, Bernard Chazovachii, 2021-10-01 The prevalence of global pandemics has been timeless and universal In 1918 the Spanish Flu grounded Spain and her neighbours In 1997 2014 and 2020 the Ebola virus wreaked havoc in West Africa in the same manner that polio had ravaged the globe Since 2019 the Coronavirus has forced most economies onto a downward spiral Despite concerted global attempts at observing World Health Organization guidelines the Coronavirus has been changing peoples lives forcing most economies onto their knees endangering lives and livelihoods making a mockery of global medicine and causing the widespread despair and helplessness that has come to be known as the new normal Unlike the other pandemics the mayhem complexities and dialectics caused by Covid 19 have been matchless requiring a systematic study and necessitating a volume like this one The volume s 16 well researched chapters argue that despite Covid 19 s enormous lessons and predictions about even greater future pandemics humanity can ill afford to relent in its determination to conquer the pandemic in the same way that human resolve has defeated past pandemic As such the volume provides hope and direction to the global community on how best to deal with Covid 19 and pandemics of similar or even higher magnitude in the future

Resources in Education, 1993 Teacher in Zimbabwe, 1993 From Testing to Assessment

Clifford Hill, Kate Parry, 2014-09-19. From Testing to Assessment: English as an International Language provides a critical review of conventional and alternative approaches to the assessment of English literacy skills in various parts of the world. It presents empirical studies conducted in three major settings in countries such as Japan and Brazil where English functions as the language of international commerce in multilingual countries such as Nigeria and Zimbabwe where English is the national language of education and government, and in such countries as Canada, the United Kingdom, and the United States where English is the dominant language. The book opens with a discussion of language assessment in relation to debates about the nature of literacy; it concludes with a discussion of policy implications which is grounded in literacy theory as well as in practical constraints such as available human and material resources.
