Violence and Memory in Zimbabwean Literature Tanaka Chidora, 2025-12-01 This book investigates how Zimbabwean literary texts subvert state sponsored amnesia when it comes to the many forms of past and ongoing political violence in Zimbabwe Zimbabwean Literature provides an important space for confronting the past and reflecting on how violence continues into the present day This violent past was forgotten either through the promise of violence against those who sought to remember or by depicting the violence as a necessary tool of a never ending decolonisation process or by appealing to the logic of letting bygones be bygones For instance by claiming that the five years of the Gukurahundi genocide were a moment of madness Robert Mugabe set a climate of state sponsored amnesia which has persisted through subsequent acts of state violence and into the Mnangagwa era Drawing on key works by Shimmer Chinodya Alexander Kanengoni Yvonne Vera Novuyo Rosa Tshuma Brian Chikwava Chenjerai Hove Panashe Chigumadzi and NoViolet Bulawayo this book investigates how fictional works challenge this state sponsored amnesia in relation both to Gukurahundi and other past and ongoing forms of violence Bringing together iconic literary texts from 1980 to 2022 the book draws a common thread through the texts connected histories and highlights their role in de silencing the past Situated at the interface of memory studies and literary criticism this book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of African literature politics development and history

Imperial Investments Katja Uusihakala, 2025-04-01 This book examines the legacy of a British child migration scheme that relocated British children to Southern Rhodesia between 1946 and 1962 with the aim of populating the colony with fresh white stock The selected children were resettled at Rhodesia Fairbridge Memorial College a boarding school established in a disused RAF airbase outside the town of Bulawayo This social engineering project sought to rescue children from what were predicted as undesirable futures in Britain and offer them a better life with prospects of social advancement Yet beyond individual salvation the scheme emigrated the children with the intention that they would help sustain the racially segregated colonial order Building on long term ethnographic research with former Rhodesian child migrants now living in the UK South Africa Australia and New Zealand this book delves into the children s unique experiences of migration displacement and resettlement By highlighting these enduring emotional social and political repercussions the author critically addresses how colonial histories matter in the present Through the lens of former child migrants whose kin relations were ruptured who were disciplined into silence and suppression and who have seen scant public recognition of their past this book sheds light on the formation of memory through its gaps and silences It contributes to our understanding of memory in relation to forced migration and displaced communities

Re-imagining Indigenous Knowledge and Practices in 21st Century Africa Tenson M. Muyambo, Anniegrace M. Hlatywayo, Pindai M. Sithole, Munyaradzi Mawere, 2022-01-13 This book is on the re imagination of Indigenous Knowledge Systems IKS and practices in 21st century Africa Framed from an anti colonial perspective the book critically interrogates epistemological erasures and injustices meted against African IKS and practices It magnifies the different contexts where African IKS were and continue to be used effectively for collective and personal benefit Beyond the legitimate frustration and disheartenment expressed by the contributors to this volume over the systematic colonial efforts to render inferior and delegitimate African systems of knowing and knowledge production the book makes an important contribution to the quest to correct misconceptions and misrepresentations by Eurocentric thinkers and practitioners about African indigenous knowledges The book makes an informed claim that the future and vibrancy of African indigenous knowledge and practices lie in how well scholars of knowledge studies and decoloniality in and on Africa are able to join hands in articulating debating and fronting their vitality and relevance in varied real life situations More importantly the book provides a re invigorated overview and nuanced analyses of the important role and continued relevance of African IKS and practices in the understanding interpreting and tackling of the social unfoldings of everyday life and dynamism Without romanticising African IKS and practices the book provides added insights and pointers on policy and trends It is an important addition to critical debates on knowledge studies across fields

Recollections and Reflections Athanasio Dzagagu, 2016-04-08 This book is an autobiographical account by Athanasio Dzagagu a former Zimbabwean Catholic priest outlining and reflecting on the experiences he had in Britain during the period from 1996 2014 While indeed the book is largely about the author s own experiences as an immigrant an African and a Zimbabwean in many ways it is also a reflection on the experiences of Zimbabweans in Britain These include the challenge of being far away from home the initial shock of finding their good English not understood experiences while undertaking further studies the challenge of an environment characterised by persistent negative headlines about Zimbabwe and its president Robert Mugabe and the challenge of British social and cultural values The book also opens the reader s eyes to how having come to Britain hoping to return to Zimbabwe as a high flying academic to teach in the Major Seminary or any one of Zimbabwe s universities Fr Dzagagu instead ended up leaving priesthood

Payback and Other Stories Tomi Adeaga, Sarah Udoh-Grossfurthner, 2018 The short stories explore the complications faced by Africans in living the postcolonial experience especially as it directly impacts the African world its peoples and their sometimes complicated lifestyles The narratives capture not only the angst of seeking meaning in a world that challenges wholeness for African communities and individuals but above all look at ways of retrieval of cultural ancestral knowledge in authenticating themselves

Digital Transformation in Public Sector Human Resource Management Shava, Elvin, Ndebele, Nduduzo, 2024-07-10 The advent of the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR has created a pressing need for digital transformation in human resources management HRM in public institutions Traditional practices must be updated preventing institutions from effectively managing their workforce and meeting stakeholder demands The lack of digitalization leads to inefficiencies ineffective performance evaluation and an inability to adapt to the rapidly evolving technological landscape This gap between existing HR practices and the demands of the digital age poses a significant challenge for public sector organizations Digital Transformation in Public Sector Human Resource Management offers a comprehensive solution to the challenges faced by public institutions The book provides practical insights and strategies for aligning HR practices with the modern technological landscape by exploring how digital transformation can revolutionize HRM processes It demonstrates the benefits of adopting digital technologies and innovative strategies in public sector HRM through real world examples and case studies The book guides public sector professionals policymakers and academics helping them navigate the complexities of digital transformation in HRM The People's Right to the Novel Eleni Coundouriotis,2014-09-15

This study offers a literary history of the war novel in Africa Coundouriotis argues that this genre aimed more specifically at African readers than the continent's better known bildungsroman tradition nevertheless makes an important intervention in global understandings of human rights The African war novel lies at the convergence of two sensibilities it encounters in European traditions the naturalist aesthetic and the discourse of humanitarianism whether in the form of sentimentalism or of human rights law Both these sensibilities are present in culturally hybrid forms in the African war novel reflecting its syncretism as a narrative practice engaged with the colonial and postcolonial history of the continent The war novel Coundouriotis argues stakes claims to collective rights that contrast with the individualism of the bildungsroman tradition The genre is a form of people's history that participates in a political struggle for the rights of the dispossessed Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub-Saharan Africa Kathleen Sheldon,2016-03-04 African women's history is a vast topic that embraces a wide variety of societies in over 50 countries with different geographies social customs religions and historical situations Africa is a predominantly agricultural continent and a major factor in African agriculture is the central role of women as farmers It is estimated that between 65 and 80 percent of African women are engaged in cultivating food for their families and in the past that percentage was likely even higher Thus one common thread across much of the continent is women's daily work in their family plot This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub-Saharan Africa contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on individual African women in history politics religion and the arts on important events organizations and publications and on topics important to women in general marriage fertility employment and to African women in particular market women child marriage queen mothers This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Women in Africa
