Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly

Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women s Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists Africa in a Multilateral World Albert Kasanda, Marek Hrubec, 2021-07-29 The book analyses how Africans and Africa relate to other parts of the multilateral world and to the world in general and how these relations stem from local national and regional interactions in different parts of Africa as well as Africa as a whole The first part focuses on the assumptions that are necessary to understand the role of Africa on the global stage especially from the perspectives of political philosophy and global and international studies The second part of the book looks at both Afropolitan trends and the limits of Afropolitanism In the third part the authors focus on specific African global tendencies stemming from the local conditions in several case studies Traditional and modern politics is connected problematically with the current Jihadist organisations in the local African conditions related to unilateralism and global war on terror for example The fourth part deals with the relevance of the language ambivalence in relation to global interactions It examines various views of African philosophy and lays bare the perception of earlier colonial languages in view of their current strength of global action This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies political philosophy politics and global studies Aspects of Real Estate Theory and Practice in Zimbabwe Chirisa, Innocent, Juru, Mike Eric, 2019-08-23 The subject of real estate is increasingly becoming important especially in the countries of the developing world States and governments realise that real estate is a corner stone of socio economic development Real estate development contributes immensely to the gross physical capital formation Its formation construction and ancillary sectors contribute to the employment infrastructure development and gross domestic product The main challenges about real estate is about where to develop it how to develop it how to manage and compute valuations about it Such are the issues discussed in this volume The book draws on Zimbabwe as a case study to demonstrate the critical aspects that define theory and real estate practice in various contexts national regional and international The

African Novel of Ideas Jeanne-Marie Jackson, 2021-01-12 This study focuses on the role of the philosophical novel a genre that favors abstract concepts or thinking about thinking over style plot or character development and the role of philosophy more broadly in the intellectual life of the African continent      Zimbolicious Anthology: Volume 3 Rinos

Mwanaka, 2018-09-23 Zimbolicious Anthology An Anthology of Zimbabwean Literature and Arts Volume 3 contains 5 short stories 51 poems 1 nonfiction piece and 3 drawings from Zimbabwean writers and artists Zimbabwe continues to tumble on its unshakable political trajectory since Robert Mugabe was removed as president via a military coup Much of the writing in this anthology addresses both the current political situation and the hope of the Zimbabweans for a free and fair election in 2018 Within the pieces a lot of questions anger mistrust remain alongside uncertainties around the enigmatic political landscape of Zimbabwe and the Zimbabwean people Despite this the writers have a lot to celebrate and also touch on issues to do with love morality spirituality tradition relationships family identity individuality and joy      Contemporary

Development Ethics from an African Perspective Beatrice Okyere-Manu, Stephen Nkansah Morgan, Ovet Nwosimiri, 2023-07-29 This book offers fresh academic insights reflections questions issues and approaches to development ethics taking into account African values and ethics Development ethics is an area of applied ethics that examines the moral issues involved in global social and economic transformation While it is a relatively new discipline there have been numerous scholarly publications on it from Western perspectives However only a few studies that focused on development ethics from the African perspective To address this gap the book seeks to answer critical questions such as What does development mean to Africans How can we measure development Who gets to decide and What constitutes just development in Africa With contributions from African scholars from diverse backgrounds the book covers various development themes such as Theories and approaches to development ethics in Africa Environmental Ethics and African Development Ethics Politics and African Development Migration and African development Gender Ethics and Socio economic Development in Africa Education Ethics and African development It is an essential resource for researchers lecturers and students interested in political philosophy and African culture studies      Reading Postcolonial Literature Hayley G. Toth, 2025-03-10 An Open Access edition is available thanks to the kind sponsorship of the libraries participating in the Jisc Open Access Community Framework OpenUP initiative Debates about reading in postcolonial studies rarely discuss non professional readers except to secure the authority of professional reading practices In Reading Postcolonial Literature Hayley G Toth places non professional reading practices in dialogue with received academic wisdom to debunk common sense assumptions about non professional readers as Western or neocolonial consumers Drawing on reading practices recorded in academic books journal articles and on online book reviewing platforms like Amazon and Goodreads Toth draws attention to important continuities between professional and non professional practices of reading postcolonial literature At the same time she highlights that non professionals often have little desire to emulate the practices of professional postcolonial critics Precisely by not adopting the established protocols and methods of postcolonial studies non professional readers call attention to the limits of dominant approaches to reading in the discipline Across four chapters Toth examines the relationship between reading and identity during the Rushdie affair the difference between reading and address the challenges posed by difficult texts and the legitimacy of non understanding and the reception of popular texts primarily read by non professional audiences Reading Postcolonial Literature demonstrates that reception matters in any claims we make about the value of reading postcolonial literature and offers new ways forward for the practice study and teaching of reading in the discipline

International African Bibliography, 2003

African Values, Ethics, and Technology Beatrice Dedaa Okyere-Manu, 2021-04-30 This book charts technological developments from an African ethical perspective It explores the idea that while certain technologies have benefited Africans the fact that these technologies were designed and produced in and for a different setting leads to conflicts with African ethical values Written in a simple and engaging style the authors apply an African ethical lens to themes such as The Fourth Industrial Revolution the moral status of technology technology and sexual relations and bioethics and technology

Indigenization Discourse in Social Work International Perspectives is an indispensable resource for students scholars independent researchers academicians policymakers and practitioners who are working in the field of social work especially those who are interested in Indigenous social work issues Moreover it is an invaluable text for students scholars and academicians who are interested in international social work with a special focus on Indigenous social work In addition students and scholars in sociology development studies public policy and economics working with Indigenous people and who are interested in Indigenous studies will find this book useful as an interdisciplinary reference Women Law and Power Makanatsa Makonese,2021-06-25 Without adequate protection and consideration from the state women were left out of Zimbabwe s Fast Land Reform Programme at the turn of the century Leaving them to fight for land in a murky convoluted system will not address women s rights to it Giving specific ethical and legal attention to women s rights and needs is the only way to guard against land and other resources being co-opted by the privileged and those with the requisite social financial and political capital Some commentators have argued that Zimbabwean women were better off identifying with Zimbabwean men as blacks in taking land from the former white farmers than to concentrate on their needs as women during the FTLRP The primary battle was to take the land from the white farmer after which a secondary battle by women to take land from men would ensue Twenty years after the commencement of the FTLRP the question remains whether the secondary battle by black women to take over land from black men has started and whether there are any chances that such a battle will ever be fought and won Peoples, Beliefs, Cultures, and Justice in Afro-Catholicism: Ikpu-Ala and Igbo Church Okey Jude Uche,2017-11-10 This book explores in depth Ikpu ala as a social justice value in the Igbo social justice system The traditional social justice concept of ikpu ala provides an important conceptual framework through which adult Igbo Christians can engage in a critical and conscious theological reflections upon how they can make the Igbo Christian community fully authentic and faithful to the Gospel of Jesus Christ This is a process that will highlight the total transformation of the Igbo society which began with the arrival of the missionaries in 1885 This reflection is based on the Igbo experience and understanding of Omenala the Igbo moral code in which the world of the material and the spiritual while occupying distinct domains nonetheless remain deeply intertwined In this book the author explores that for the Igbo community the reality of theology has evolved as a distinct form of experience that is deeply connected with tradition for the sake of praxis Don Browning 1995 Consequently the author not only sees Ikpu ala as authentic Igbo social justice value but also considers it as something that can be integrated into the Christian social values without either destroying Igbos longstanding cultures or traditions The author highlights two key lessons from the Igbo integration of ikpu ala into Christian social justice 1 that the Igbo Catholic Church should engage the Igbo culture and traditions in a theological interactive reflections for the incarnation of the Word among the Igbo Catholics and 2 that Ikpu ala with its theological values can assist the Igbo Catholic Church in the sacrament of reconciliation and so transform the twenty first century Igbo Catholic into an integrated and authentic Christian The Palgrave Handbook of Language and Crisis Communication in Sub-Saharan Africa Ernest Jakaza,Hugh Mangeya,Isaac Mhute,2024-06-17 This handbook provides a detailed and sustained examination of the scope purpose and practical application of crisis and disaster management communication in this critical region of the African continent sub Saharan Africa SSA The volume lays the foundation that enables a nuanced appreciation of two significant issues The first pertains to SSA s vulnerability to both natural and man made phenomena Secondly it argues that communication plays a critical role in so far as the identification social construction raising awareness preparation mitigation and eradication of crises and disasters in the region Communication plays a critical role in potentially reducing the impacts of crises and disasters before their occurrence This handbook is a key resource for academics students and practitioners in areas such as political communication media communication language and communication brand communication social digital media communication and crisis communication among others

Best "New" African Poets 2018 Anthology

Rinos Mwanaka,Nsah Mala,2018-12-29 Best New African Poets 2018 Anthology follows volumes in 2017 2016 and 2015 In this fourth volume of these continent wide anthologies of African poetry we have work from 154 African poets from over 30 African countries and the African Diasporas There are poems in English French Portuguese Sepedi Shona Yoruba and Asante Twi languages In 2018 there was a notable increase in the number of entries with memorable novelties regarding poetic experimentation some of the poets have daringly sliced up words playing around with the spatial and structural patterns of their texts on paper This may be described as both textual and visual poetry Reading the poems becomes a journey with many paths where the reader walks according to poetic rhythms and the hesitating breaks of action verbs and enjambments

Wash and Pray: African Theological Discourse on COVID-19 Harvey Kwiyani,Joseph Ola,Isaiah Ola

Abolarin,Benjamin Isola Akano,Justice A. Arthur,Victoria Oyenike Ayano,Paul Ayokunle,Kwaku Boamah,Akarama Dan Jr,Edmore Dube,Eric Manu,Françoise Niyonsaba,Godfred Nsiah,Moses Iliya Ogidis,Gabriel Ademola Oyeniyi,Ruth M. Oyeniyi, In the wake of the global COVID 19 pandemic Africa faced a unique set of challenges that sparked a profound spiritual response among its people Wash and Pray African Theological Discourse on COVID 19 delves into the heart of this response exploring the intersections of faith culture history and the pandemic that gripped the world from 2019 to 2022 The book demonstrates that for many Africans the pandemic was not just a medical crisis but also a spiritual battle As such the book invites the reader to witness the historicising of the pandemic in Africa through this landmark resource for current and future generations ensuring that the narratives of African Christianity in the face of COVID 19 and other pandemics are not lost The chapter contributions offer diverse perspectives from Ghana Nigeria Rwanda Zimbabwe and the UK each contextualising the African Christian response to the pandemic In essence this monograph paints a rich tapestry of African theological discourse during a global crisis ultimately affirming that faith and science when harmonised can lead to a resilient and thriving community
