International Handbook of Mathematical Learning Difficulties Annemarie Fritz, Vitor Geraldi Haase, Pekka Räsänen, 2019-01-30 This comprehensive volume provides teachers researchers and education professionals with cutting edge knowledge developed in the last decades by the educational behavioural and neurosciences integrating cognitive developmental and socioeconomic approaches to deal with the problems children face in learning mathematics The neurocognitive mechanisms and the cognitive processes underlying acquisition of arithmetic abilities and their significance for education have been the subject of intense research in the last few decades but the most part of this research has been conducted in non applied settings and there is still a deep discrepancy between the level of scientific knowledge and its implementation into actual educational settings Now it is time to bring the results from the laboratory to the classroom Apart from bringing the theoretical discussions to educational settings the volume presents a wide range of methods for early detection of children with risks in mathematics learning and strategies to develop effective interventions based on innovative cognitive test instruments It also provides insights to translate research knowledge into public policies in order to address socioeconomic issues And it does so from an international perspective dedicating a whole section to the cultural diversity of mathematics learning difficulties in different parts of the world All of this makes the International Handbook of Mathematical Learning Difficulties an essential tool for those involved in the daily struggle to prepare the future generations to succeed in the global knowledge society

The Palgrave Handbook of Language Policies in Africa Esther Mukewa Lisanza, Leonard Muaka, 2024-07-08 This handbook explores language policies and their impacts in Africa examining the different language policies in each country from pre colonial to post colonial times Most African countries are multilingual apart from a handful which are said to be quasi monolingual The authors in this handbook investigate language policy in education media legal courts government documents and other public domains and show how these policies shape learning and delivery of services to the citizens The volume also pays special attention to the roles assigned to minority languages in Africa most of which are endangered The contributions also investigate how these language policies are influenced by the history of colonialism and language attitudes emanating from colonial rule This handbook will be of interest to a diverse audience of readers including those interested in African languages language planning and policy and African history and education

The Effectiveness of the Primary School Teacher in Zimbabwe Boniface Samuel Runesu Chivore, 1994 Education Statistics ,2001 Restoring the Educational Dream. Rethinking Educational Transformation in Zimbabwe Shizha, Edward, 2013-12-07 The role of education in human well being and social development cannot be overestimated After a number of highly commendable policies on education in the first decade of independence the education system in Zimbabwe has taken a tumble that needs both examining and rectifying This volume analyses the challenges facing the education system in Zimbabwe and explores and scrutinises theoretical and practical possibilities for restoring the educational dream that was initiated at independence in 1980 The book is targeted at academics scholars college and university students policy makers and other stakeholders and advocates a multi pronged approach that must involve all stakeholders if educational retransformation reconstruction and restoration are to be achieved The authors provide a range of recommendations for a project that would restore the educational dream in Zimbabwe

Education Statistics Report ,2001 Zimbabwe Press Mirror ,2000 Zimbabwe National Bibliography ,1990 Teacher in Zimbabwe ,2014 Zimbabwe News ,1978 African Publishing Review ,1996 Calendar University of Zimbabwe,1994 Women Writing Zimbabwe Irene Staunton, 2008-07-15 The fifteen stories in Women Writing Zimbabwe offer a kaleidoscope of fresh moving and comic perspectives on the way in which events of the last decade have impacted on individuals women in particular Several stories Tagwira Ndlovu and Charsley look at the impact that AIDS has on women who become the care givers often without emotional or physical support It is often assumed that women will provide support and naturally make the necessary sacrifices Brickhill and Munsengezi focus on the hidden costs and unexpected rewards of this nurturing role Many families have been separated over the last decade Ndlovu Mutangadura Katedza Mhute and Rheam all explore exile s long often painful reach and the consequences of deciding to remain at home In lighter vein but with equal sharpness of perception Gappah Manyika Sandi and Holmes poke gentle fun at the demands of new found wealth status and manners Finally Musariri reminds us that the hidden costs of undisclosed trauma can continue to affect our lives for years afterwards All of the writers share a sensitivity of perception and acuity of vision Reading their stories will enlarge and stimulate our own understanding Nomdlalo ,1994 Performing Migrancy and Mobility in Africa Mark Fleishman,2014-12-02

Performing Migrancy and Mobility in Africa focuses on a body of performance work the work of Magnet Theatre in particular but also work by other artists in Cape Town and other parts of the continent or the world that engages with the Cape as a real or imagined node in a complex system of migration and mobility Located at the foot of the African continent lodged between two oceans at the intersection of many of the earth s major shipping lanes Cape Town is a stage for a powerful mixing of cultures and peoples and has been an important node in a network of flows circuits of movement and exchange The performance works studied here attempt to get to grips with what it feels like to be on the move and in the spaces in between that characterises the lives now and for centuries before of multiple peoples who move around and pass through places like the Cape The contributors are a broad range of mostly African authors from various parts of the continent and as such the book offers an insight into new thinking and new approaches from an emerging and important location The Global Student Experience Camille Kandiko,Mark Weyers,2013-03-18

There are 100 million students in higher education throughout the world today This collection provides some indication of what are they are learning and of their wider experiences It also outlines the changing global context of provision for undergraduate students as countries and universities respond to what they anticipate will be new demands f
