Ziauddin, 2024-01-11 The book explores the health conditions of communities who have suffered from caste prejudices in India for generations It specifically focuses on the Hadi Caste and uses the Bauri Caste as a point of reference The state of Jharkhand in India has been the traditional homeland for the Hadis listed as one of the Scheduled Castes in the Census of India documents The book discusses their traditional occupations customs rituals and social interactions in order to offer a detailed understanding of the socio cultural and political interactions between the health and life status of the Hadi community

Deterritorialised Identity and Transborder Movement in South Asia Nasir Uddin, Nasreen Chowdhury, 2019-01-31 This volume is about migration across South Asia and the complex negotiation of borders by people and the states in the process A border is understood as a form of demarcation but it also opens up the flow of people goods and ideas of legality and illegality Borders are dynamic and dyadic in the interface of state and non state actors involved in border operations Consequently transborder movement becomes a complex web involving concerns of security trade militancy and questions of citizenship along with discourses of ghettoisation belonging and otherness Since the mid 20th century the South Asian region has witnessed growing social and political instability and breakdown of regional cooperation In this context the volume casts a wide interdisciplinary lens across South Asia and discusses economic migration as well as forced migration due to persecution and natural disasters It looks at how understandings of territoriality and border become blurred due to increasing transborder migration in the region how states in South Asia address transborder movements at both policy level and on the ground and how borderlands become spaces for illegal trade and informal economy in South Asia and for negotiations between states and refugees on identity and citizenship This highly topical volume is for a wide group of scholars and students interested in South Asia ranging from sociology anthropology political science history to interdisciplinary fields like migration studies peace and conflict studies and development studies

SOUTH ASIA COUNTRY ANALYSES Barış Adıbelli, Elif Gülbaş, Ghulam Farooq Keskin, Hayati Ünlü, Hediye Gamze Türkmen, H. Hilal Şahin, Mohammed Javed Ansari, Nazmul Islam, Ömer Aslan, 2022-12-15 South Asia Strategic Research Center GASAM was founded in 2004 to provide accurate and objective information about the historical political economic and sociocultural structures of the South Asian region composed of Afghanistan Bangladesh Bhutan India Maldives Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka as well as about strategic and geopolitical dynamics of the region GASAM aims to inform the Turkish public about South Asian countries and in return inform the South Asian public about Türkiye It also aims to procure mutual benefits for them in the historical economic academic and sociocultural domains and this way to contribute to regional and global peace South Asia Country Analyses provides an overview of the region to improve the understanding of South Asian countries in Türkiye This study aims to become a source of fundamental information about South Asia that will hopefully contribute to improving bilateral relations between Türkiye and the region's countries It also seeks to explore South Asia's geographical, historical, political, and economic potential and raise general awareness regarding the significance of this region. The study is divided into two parts. The initial section is an introductory chapter discussing the general characteristics of South Asia. The second part provides separate analyses of eight South Asian countries. A different author wrote each chapter in this work. The book is prepared in two languages, Turkish and English, and the texts deliberately avoid complex academic jargon, offering analyses instead in a direct and succinct style. One of the most significant attributes of this book is that it is an objective and collective work. It is also a pioneering study in that there is no such study with this scope either in Turkey or in the region's countries. From this perspective, it is hoped that readers in Turkey and South Asian countries will find this book, sponsored by GASAM, an invaluable compendium of fundamental information about South Asia. We would like to convey our gratitude to every person and institution who supported the realization of our project. We hope that this work will contribute to the social, political, scientific, cultural, and economic activities between Turkey and South Asian countries. Cemal Demir, GASAM President.

Remaking Cities Praveen Priyadarshi, 2022-12-30. This book presents a systematic analysis of the differential implementation of the urban reforms in two Indian cities, Ahmedabad and Kanpur. It analyses the enactment of the Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission (JNNURM) launched in 2005 by the Indian government, which aimed to spatially reorient cities into market-friendly places across 65 cities but finished with only modest success. The volume discusses the specificities of urban governance systems, colonial municipal histories, and nationalist struggle in relation to urban planning and policy reforms to showcase how policies insensitive to these are likely to fail. It identifies historically constituted municipal capacity located in the municipal organisation at the city level as the key determinant of divergent trajectories of the spatial changes. The analysis demonstrates that in Ahmedabad, the politics of the city was historically oriented towards people's relationship with their spaces, enabling a coherent municipal organisation. In the case of Kanpur, however, the local politics evolved in a way that the urban question remained unresolved, which resulted in a fragmented municipal organisation. This variation in the architectures of municipal organisations in the two cities resulted in different levels of municipal capacities at the time of the inauguration of the JNNURM. A richly detailed case study on urban governance issues and development in Indian cities, this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of urban studies, urban politics, development studies, social anthropology, social history, political science, development studies, public policy, and governance, urban sociology, and South Asian studies.

Tagore and the Margins of the Nation under Colonialism Amartya Mukhopadhyay, 2023-12-12. This book focuses on India's anti-colonial politics, which Rabindranath Tagore (1861-1941) brought into the mainstream of nationalist thinking It browses through the entire corpus of Tagore s writings in the genres of poetry fiction and essays to glean both used and hitherto unused un translated writings that illumine Tagore s gender consciousness and proto feminist thought and empathy presenting it in a wholly new light It teases out Tagore s original views on India s industrial capitalist development and his views on the roles of applied scientists and engineers in it to highlight his critique of the nature of science teaching in colonial India The volume also delineates Tagore s Upani adic ecologism that creatively evoked anticolonialism and patriotism Lucid and topical the book will be indispensable for students and researchers in the fields of comparative literature history political science international relations and sociology at all levels and anybody interested in literary criticism and cultural studies Environment and Pollution in Colonial India Janine Wilhelm,2016-04-28 India is facing a river pollution crisis today The origins of this crisis are commonly traced back to post Independence economic development and urbanisation This book in contrast shows that some important early roots of India s river pollution problem and in particular the pollution of the Ganges lie with British colonial policies on wastewater disposal during the late 19th and early 20th centuries Analysing the two cornerstones of colonial river pollution history during the late 19th and early 20th centuries the introduction of sewerage systems and the introduction of biological sewage treatment technologies in cities along the Ganges the author examines different controversies around the proposed and actual discharge of untreated treated sewage into the Ganges which involved officials on different administrative levels as well as the Indian public The analysis shows that the colonial state essentially ignored the problematic aspects of sewage disposal into rivers which were clearly evident from European experience Guided by colonial ideology and fiscal policy colonial officials supported the introduction of the cheapest available sewerage technologies which were technologies causing extensive pollution Thus policies on sewage disposal into the Ganges and other Indian rivers took on a definite shape around the turn of the 20th century and acquired certain enduring features that were to exert great negative influence on the future development of river pollution in India A well researched study on colonial river pollution history this book presents an innovative contribution to South Asian environmental history It is of interest to scholars working on colonial South Asian and environmental history and the colonial history of public health science and technology Perspectives on History ,2009 Epidemic Encounters, Communities, and Practices in the Colonial World Poonam Bala,Russel Viljoen,2023-01-24 The essays in this volume examine the nature and extent of disease on indigenous communities and local populations located within the vast regions of the Indian and Pacific Oceans as a result of colonial sea power and colonial conquest While this established a long term impact of disease on populations the essays also offer insights into the dynamics of these populations in resisting colonial intrusions and introduction of disease to newly acquired territories Handbook of Indigenous Religion(s) Greg Johnson,Siv Ellen Kraft,2017-06-06 Extremely distant and distinct indigenous communities have over recent decades become more like themselves and more like each other a paradox prevalent globally but inadequately explained by established analytical frames particularly with regard to religion Addressing this rich and unfolding context the Handbook of Indigenous Religion s engages a wide variety of locations and perspectives Drawing upon the efforts of a diverse group of scholars working at the intersection of indigenous studies and religious studies this volume includes a programmatic introduction that argues for new ways of conceptualizing the field of indigenous religion s numerous case study based examples and an Afterword by Thomas Tweed
