International Handbook of Urban Education William T. Pink,George W. Noblit,2008-09-03 It is evident that urban education has become the central focus of educators at the present time In the U S for example almost one third of all school age children attend schools in large urban school districts It is in these urban schools where the diversity of cultures and languages is highest and where student learning is most problematic What has emerged from recent work to improve urban schools is the insight that there is no one size fits all panacea Rather we have discovered that the local context shapes in critically important ways what will be effective at the school level The universality of the problematics with urban education together with the importance of understanding the local or situated context of improvement interventions brings into sharp focus the importance and timeliness of an undertaking like the International Handbook of Urban Education An important focus of the International Handbook of Urban Education will be the interrogation of both the social and political factors that lead to different problem posing and subsequent solutions within each region An important question to be answered for example is what it takes in terms of resources political will and policy actions to improve urban education

Handbook of Research on Student-Centered Strategies in Online Adult Learning Environments Fitzgerald, Carlton J.,Laurian-Fitzgerald, Simona,Popa, Carmen,2018-06-08 As traditional classroom settings are transitioning to online environments teachers now face the challenge of using this medium to promote effective learning strategies especially when teaching older age groups Because adult learners bring a different set of understandings and skills to education than younger students such as more job and life experiences the one size fits all approach to teaching does not work thus pushing educators to create a student centered approach for each learner The Handbook of Research on Student Centered Strategies in Online Adult Learning Environments is an important resource providing readers with multiple perspectives to approach issues often associated with adult learners in an online environment This publication highlights current research on topics including but not limited to online competency based education nontraditional adult learners virtual classrooms in public universities and teacher training for online education This book is a vital reference for online trainers adult educators university administrators researchers and other academic professionals looking for emerging information on utilizing online classrooms and environments in student centered adult education International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world Resources in Education ,2001-04 The SAGE Handbook of Clinical Neuropsychology Gregory J. The Routledge Handbook of Second Language Acquisition and Individual Differences Shaofeng Li, Phil Hiver, Mostafa Papi, 2022-05-30 The Routledge Handbook of Second Language Acquisition and Individual Differences provides a thorough in depth discussion of the theory research and pedagogy pertaining to the role individual difference ID factors play in second language acquisition SLA It goes beyond the traditional repertoire and includes 32 chapters covering a full spectrum of topics on learners cognitive conative affective and demographic sociocultural variation The volume examines IDs from two perspectives one is how each ID variable is associated with learning behaviors processes and outcomes the other is how each domain of SLA such as vocabulary or reading is affected by clusters of ID variables The volume also includes a section on the common methods used in ID research including data elicitation instruments such as surveys interviews and psychometric testing as well as methods of data analysis such as structural equation modeling The book is a must read for any second language researcher or applied linguist interested in investigating the effects of IDs on language learning and for any educator interested in taking account of learners individual differences to maximize the effects of second language instruction

Psychological Assessment in South Africa Sumaya Laher,Kate Cockcroft,2013-01-01 This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners Teacher

Development for Content-Based Language Education Susan Ballinger,Ruth Fielding,Diane J. Tedick,2024-09-10 This book fills a large gap in our understanding of how to prepare teachers for the challenging but increasingly popular task of integrating content and language instruction It brings together findings on content based teacher education from Africa Asia Australia Europe and North America in order to inform researchers and teacher educators and enable them to play a critical role in the continued success of such programs It offers a solid grounding in theories and applications of content based approaches with empirical studies investigating teacher identity materials design use of cognitive discourse functions and best practices for teacher education Responding to the growing popularity of content based programs and the shortage of qualified teachers for these contexts this book promotes teacher researcher collaboration and provides support for trainee teachers in service teachers and course leaders Information Literacy: Lifelong Learning and Digital Citizenship in the
