streets were not paved with gold but he worked hard and fished the San Francisco Bay and eventually helped his son Antonino open one of the first restaurants on Fisherman's Wharf. Recipes evolved over generations due to the availability of ingredients, social events, nutritional awareness, trends, and culinary tools. What was delicious in 1950 might be considered too calorie dense in 1980. Over 150 family recipes through five generations reflect those changes while respecting the original heart and soul of each one.

At last, a cookbook about pasta making that covers all kinds of pasta machines, both manual and electric, and also stand mixer pasta attachments, and that delivers foolproof recipes sure to make you an expert noodle master in no time. Homemade pasta is easy, fast, and fun. It tastes better than boxed pastas from the store. And while store-bought pastas do indeed come in a variety of shapes, they all have basically one bland and unexciting flavor. By contrast, as this wide-ranging and deliciously inventive book shows, making pasta by hand at home lets you create and enjoy dozens and dozens of different flavors of noodles. In her previous books on such subjects as searing, marinating, and cast-iron cooking, chef, cooking teacher, and food blogger Lucy Vaserfirer has earned a reputation for expertly and gently translating the methods of master chefs into simple-to-follow step-by-step instructions that let home cooks cook like the pros. Here, Lucy does the same for pasta making, showing you how easy it is to use a sheet or an extruder of any type, manual or electric, to create tasty pastas that will please everyone, from grown-up gourmands to picky kids who want pasta at nearly every meal. Lucy shares in these pages terrific purees that you can make using a blender or a mixing bowl that you then can turn into all sorts of flavored pastas, from the familiar tomato or spinach pastas to noodles flavored with herbs like basil or tarragon, spices like pepper or saffron, and other flavors such as Sage Brown Butter Pasta that incorporates a flavored butter. She teaches you how to make every kind of pasta shape with your pasta machine, including ones you can't find in stores. She includes durum and semolina pastas, the most common kinds, as well as buckwheat, ancient grain, and gluten-free pastas. She even shows how to make Asian noodles such as udon, soba, and ramen with your pasta machine. Whether you are a first-time owner of a pasta maker or a
