Transnationalism and Translation in Modern Chinese, English, French and Japanese Literatures Ryan Johnson, 2020-12-15 The theory of literary worlds has become increasingly important in comparative and world literatures But how are the often contradictory elements of Eastern and Western literatures to cohere in the new worlds such contact creates Drawing on the latest work in philosophical logic and analytic Asian philosophy this monograph proposes a new model of literary worlds that is best suited to comparative literature dealing with Western and East Asian traditions Unlike much discussion of world literature anchored in North American traditions featured here is the transnational work of artists philosophers and poets writing in English French Japanese and Mandarin in the twentieth century Rather than imposing sharp borders this book suggests that vague boundaries link Eastern and Western literary works and traditions and that degrees of distance can better help us to see the multiple dimensions that both distinguish and join together literary worlds East and West As such it enables us to grasp not only how East Asian and Western writers translate one another's works into their own languages and traditions but also how modern writers East and West modify their own traditions in order to make them fit in the new constellation of literary worlds brought about by the complex flow of literary information across twentieth century Eurasia Hawai'i Reader in Traditional Chinese Culture Victor H. Mair, Nancy Shatzman Steinhardt, Paul R. Goldin, 2005-01-31 The Hawai'i Reader in Traditional Chinese Culture is a collection of more than ninety primary sources all but a few of which were translated specifically for this volume of cultural significance from the Bronze Age to the turn of the twentieth century They take into account virtually every aspect of traditional culture including sources from the non Sinitic ethnic minorities Translation and Modernization in East Asia in the Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries Wong Lawrence Wangchi, 2018-03-15 This book discusses how Western ideas knowledge concepts and practices were imported adapted and even transformed into varied contexts in East Asia In particular authors in this rich volume focus on the role translation played in the processes of modernization in China Japan and Korea in the 19th and early 20th centuries Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe, 2000 Affective Geographies and Narratives of Chinese Diaspora Melody Yunzi Li, Robert T. Tally Jr., 2022-09-21 In various ways Chinese diasporic communities seek to connect and re connect with their homelands in literature film and visual culture The essays in Affective Geographies and Narratives of Chinese Diaspora examine how diasporic bodies and emotions interact with space and place as well as how theories of affect change our thinking of diaspora Questions of borders and border crossing not to mention the public and private spheres in diaspora literature and film raise further questions about mapping and spatial representation and the affective and geographical significance of the push and pull movement in diasporic communities The unique experience is represented differently by different authors across texts and media In an age of globalization in the Chinese Century the spatial representation and cultural experiences of mobility displacement settlement and hybridity become all the more urgent The essays in this volume respond to this urgency and they help to frame the study of Chinese diaspora and culture today Short Essays of the Ming and Qing Dynasties Wang Hong, 2013-01-01 The late Ming Dynasty 1572 1644 and the early Qing Dynasty 1644 1722 saw the true splendour of short essays in China No other period in the history of short essays in ancient China can match them in the quality and number of works literary schools or the variety of styles Compared with those written before or after the short essays in these periods were richer in the choice of topics and freer in form focusing not only on real social life but also on worldly experience and life's little delights They are a rich and vital part of China's literary and cultural heritage The 127 short essays in this wonderful book are considered to be the very best examples from an era of China's history that's synonymous with beautifully crafted short essays 82 essays are from the Ming Dynasty and 45 essays are from the Qing Dynasty written by more than a hundred different Chinese authors from both dynasties These are arranged in the order of the authors birth dates and tenderly translated into English by leading Chinese translators Wang Hong and Zhang Shunsheng who have faithfully represented the styles and literary achievements made by the featured essayists It s a wonderful book that will delight fans of classic Chinese short essays as well as providing the perfect introduction to readers new to the genre Professor Wang Hong is a prolific and accomplished translator of ancient Chinese classics Many of his translations have been included in the Library of Chinese Classics such as Mozi Brush Talks from Dream Brook also publishing by Paths International The Discourses of the States and The Classic of Mountains of Seas This is the first ever English language version of The Short Essays of the Ming and Qing Dynasties to be published either inside or outside of China
