compete with Honda's forthcoming 750cc motorcycle. Initially they did not compare well although very fast they lacked sophistication and their quirky styling was offputting and the decision was made to suspend production. This was not the most auspicious start but a fightback was initiated and in 1971 the factory race team had a triumphant year including placing 1st, 2nd and 3rd at the Daytona 200. With over 250 photographs the full rollercoaster ride history of these bikes is described including how the bikes came to be including a timeline of significant events a year by year account of the evolution of the bikes through the T150, T160 and Rocket 3, the story of the Hurricane, the full racing history and finally the Triumph 3 cylinder bikes today.

Livable Streets 2.0 Bruce Appleyard, 2021-03-22 Livable Streets 2.0 offers a thorough examination of the struggle between automobiles, residents, pedestrians and other users of streets along with evidence based practical strategies for redesigning city street networks that support urban livability. In 1981 when Donald Appleyard's Livable Streets was published it was globally recognized as a groundbreaking work one of the most influential urban design books of its time. Unfortunately he was killed a year later by a speeding drunk driver. This latest update Livable Streets 2.0 revisited by his son Bruce updates the topic with the latest research, new case studies and best human centered practices for creating more livable streets for all. It is essential reading for those who influence future directions in city and transportation planning, urban design and community regeneration and placemaking. Incorporates the most current empirical research on urban transportation and land use practices that support the need for more livable communities. Includes recent case studies from around the world on successful projects, campaigns, programs and other efforts. Contains new coverage of vulnerable populations.

Corporate Acquisitions and Mergers in the European Union Riccardo Celli, Philippe Noguès, Christian Peeters, 2021-10-21 Derived from Kluwer's multi volume Corporate Acquisitions and Mergers the largest and most detailed database of M due diligence, contractual protection, consideration and the impact of applicable company competition, tax, intellectual property, environmental and data protection law on the acquisition process. Corporate Acquisitions and Mergers is an invaluable guide for both legal practitioners and business executives seeking a comprehensive yet practical analysis of mergers and acquisitions in European Union. Equivalent analyses of M & A law and practice in some 50 other jurisdictions all contributed by leading law firms are accessible online at www.kluwerlawonline.com under Corporate Acquisitions and Mergers.

EU Competition Law, Data Protection and Online Platforms: Data as Essential Facility Inge Graef, 2016-10-17 All are agreed that the digital economy contributes to a dynamic evolution of markets and competition. Nonetheless concerns are increasingly raised about the market dominance of a few key players. Because these companies hold the power to drive rivals out of business regulators have begun to seek scope for competition enforcement in cases where companies claim that withholding data is needed to satisfy customers and cut costs. This book is the first focus on how competition law enforcement tools can be applied to refusals of dominant firms to give access data on online platforms such as search engines, social networks and e-commerce platforms commonly referred to as the gatekeepers of the Internet. The question arises whether the denial of a dominant firm to grant competitors access to its data could constitute a refusal to deal and lead to competition law liability under the so called essential facilities doctrine according to which firms need access to shared knowledge in order to be able to compete A possible duty to share data with rivals also brings to the forefront the interaction of competition law with data protection legislation considering that the required information may include personal data of individuals Building on the refusal to deal concept and using a multidisciplinary approach the analysis covers such issues and topics as the following data portability interoperability data as a competitive advantage or entry barrier in digital markets market definition and dominance with respect to data disruptive versus sustaining innovation role of intellectual property regimes economic trade off in essential facilities cases relationship of competition enforcement with data protection law and data related competition concerns in merger cases The author draws on a wealth of relevant material including EU and US decision making practice case law and policy documents as well as economic and empirical literature on the link between competition and innovation The book concludes with a proposed framework for the application of the essential facilities doctrine to potential forms of abuse of dominance relating to data In addition it makes suggestions as to how data protection interests can be integrated into competition policy An invaluable contribution to ongoing academic and policy discussions about how data related competition concerns should be addressed under competition law the analysis clearly demonstrates how existing competition tools for market definition and assessment of dominance can be applied to online platforms It will be of immeasurable value to the many jurists business persons and academics concerned with this very timely subject
