Companies House Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Business and Enterprise Committee,2008 Companies House has two main functions the incorporation dissolution and restoration of limited companies and the maintenance of a register of company details annual reports and accounts which it makes available for public inspection It funds its work by charging fees and pays a small dividend to the Treasury each year Companies House handles a vast amount of data It is now doing much more of this electronically This move has not been entirely smooth In the Committee s view the greatest difficulties facing Companies House and those who use its services arise from matters which are not directly controlled by Companies House itself namely the way in which the internet has enabled faster and easier access to information The Committee makes a number of recommendations about assessing particular risks and trying to reduce them An underlying theme of this report is the need for Companies House to do more to explain the limitation of the information it holds It is felt that much more could and should be done to make clear that the role of Companies House is to receive and publish data and that its power to verify information is extremely limited

Aligning the Stars Jay William Lorsch,Thomas J. Tierney,2002 Every company relies on talent to succeed but none so much as professional service firms Within this rapidly expanding trillion dollar sector people are more than valuable assets they are the source of competitive advantage Indeed success is determined more by the people these firms pay than by the people who pay them What separates the best professional firms from their less successful competitors And what lessons do their experiences hold for other talent driven businesses In this comprehensive book respected academic Jay W Lorsch and accomplished practitioner Thomas J Tierney draw from rigorous research and decades of experience to provide a practical perspective on how to win in professional services Their work is based on an analysis of industry leaders in fields as diverse as law accounting investment banking advertising information technology executive search and management consulting Aligning the Stars argues that strategic success is achieved by building an organization of executive level stars whose day to day performance reinforces and ultimately achieves the goals of the business Outstanding firms align stars across business lines geographies and even generations Through compelling real world examples Lorsch and Tierney show how successful firms create and sustain alignment via Strategy Determining which elements of strategy are most important and why and how effective implementation incorporates organizational realities People Systems Converting talent into stars while nurturing firm first behaviors Structure and Governance Organizing around partnership principles even in a corporate environment Culture

Actively managing the culture to guide and control individual behavior Leadership Exercising effective leadership when the power to control partner peers is limited Careers Aligning individual stars by helping professionals build a life not just a resume By showing how to integrate strategy organization and the needs of individual stars this book offers valuable lessons for the current and future leaders of every talent driven business AUTHOR BIO Jay W Lorsch is the Louis Kirstein Professor of Human Relations at the Harvard Business School Thomas J Tierney is the former Chief Executive of Bain Company and currently serves as Chairman of The Bridgespan Group Bain s nonprofit affiliate Services and Metropolitan Development Peter W. Daniels, 2002-11 Explores the processes guiding both the development and the spatial impacts of services on the urban system and individual areas and describes the internationalisation of services and the effects of re structuring on urban systems
