Naturalization of the Soul John Barresi, Raymond Martin, 2012-10-12 Naturalization of the Soul charts the development of the concepts of soul and self in Western thought from Plato to the present It fills an important gap in intellectual history by being the first book to emphasize the enormous intellectual transformation in the eighteenth century when the religious soul was replaced first by a philosophical self and then by a scientific mind The authors show that many supposedly contemporary theories of the self were actually discussed in the eighteenth century and recognize the status of William Hazlitt as one of the most important Personal Identity theorists of the British Enlightenment for his direct relevance to contemporary thinking Now available in paperback Naturalization of the Soul is essential reading for anyone interested in the issues at the core of the Western philosophical tradition Heart and Soul Chris Mace, 2003-09-02 Philosophy's traditional concerns with the nature of knowledge good conduct and the self cannot be ignored by psychotherapists while the growth of psychotherapy and psychoanalysis have had a profound impact on philosophy The essays in the books cover topics central to both psychotherapy and philosophy such as the nature of the self motivation and subjectivity the limits of certainty and objectivity in interpersonal situations and the scope of narrative dialogue and of therapy itself Contributions draw on a wide range of different philosophical approaches and examine how they can deepen our understanding of the processes involved in different types of psychotherapy in a wide range of clinical settings

The Daimon and the Soul of the West Bernardo Kastrup, 2025-08-26 We Western minds have forgotten who we are despite having never once stopped being who we are We've lost touch with the impersonal Daimonic forces that give us direction and the sacrificial nature of our existence No longer do we realize that our lives aren't have never been and will never be about ourselves Consequently we've lost our ability to sense the immanent context that couches our lives in meaning and purpose Our alienation from our own inborn nature and role has led to a tragic schism a divorce between essence and narrative being and action This book is an effort to help heal this schism It's about re-encountering our natural selves and guiding Daimon re-tuning into the archetypal dispositions we embody and re-learning how to navigate the choppy waters of life in a spontaneous and fulfilling manner

Keeping the Soul in Christian Higher Education Robert Benne, 2017 In this history of Roanoke College Robert Benne explores the school's 175 year tradition of educational excellence and examines its complicated and ongoing relationship with its religious heritage p 4 of cover

Finding a Replacement for the Soul Brett Bourbon, 2009-06-30 Approaching the study of literature as a unique form of the philosophy of language and mind as a study of how we produce nonsense and imagine it as sense this is a book about our human ways of making and losing meaning Brett Bourbon asserts that our complex and variable relation with language defines a domain of meaning and being that is misconstrued and missed in philosophy in literary studies and in our ordinary understanding of what we are and how things make sense Accordingly his book seeks to demonstrate how the study of literature gives us the means to understand this relationship The book itself is framed by the literary and philosophical challenges presented by Joyce's Finnegan's Wake and Wittgenstein's Philosophical Investigations With reference to these books and the problems of interpretation and meaning that they pose Bourbon makes a case for the fundamental philosophical character of the study of literature and for its dependence on theories of meaning disguised as theories of mind Within this context he provides original accounts of what sentences fictions non-fictions and poems are produces a new account of the logical form of fiction and of the limits of interpretation that follow from it and delineates a new and fruitful domain of inquiry in which literature philosophy and science intersect Table of Contents Preface Note on Abbreviations Introduction What Are We When We Are Not Part I The Surface of Language and the Absence of Meaning 1 From Soul Making to Person Making 2 The Logical Form of Fiction 3 The Emptiness of Literary Interpretation 4 To Be But Not To Mean 5 How Do Oracles Mean Part II Senses and Nonsenses Joyce's Finnegan's Wake and Wittgenstein's Philosophical Investigations 6 A Twitterlitter of Nonsense Askesis at Finnegan's Wake 7 The Analogy between Persons and find the purpose of their existence Multitudes of voices cry out in the darkness for a genuine love and truth Many are taken will not be satisfied with the flowery rhetoric of those dressed in the attire of a shepherd The Unseen War for Your Soul will take us into three worlds Eternity past We look at the existence of God and his revelation of himself to his people Scriptural revelation as to why God created angels seraphim s and cherubim s The fifth cherubim are an astonishing created being He was heaven's most brilliant star until the rebellion The world of time The creation of our world the creation of humanity and

 Barresi, 2006 Raymond Martin and John Barresi trace the development of Western ideas about personal identity and reveal the larger intellectual trends controversies and ideas that have revolutionized the way we think about ourselves They begin with ancient Greece where the ideas of Plato Aristotle and the materialistic atomists laid the groundwork for future theories They then discuss the ideas of the church fathers and medieval and Renaissance philosophers including St Paul Origen Augustine Aquinas and Montaigne In their coverage of the emergence of a new mechanistic conception of nature in the seventeenth century Martin and Barresi note a shift away from religious and purely philosophical notions of self and personal identity to more scientific and social conceptions a trend that has continued to the present day They explore modern philosophy and psychology including the origins of different traditions within each discipline and explain the theoretical relevance of both feminism and gender and ethnic studies and also the ways that Derrida and other recent thinkers have challenged the very idea that a unified self or personal identity even exists Saving the World and Healing the Soul
