MultiCultural Review, 2005 The Chicano Index, 1992 Borderland Mujeres Julieta Corpus, Katherine Hoerth, 2020-11-15 Borderland Mujeres a collaborative bilingual conversation in poetry and art depicts the multifaceted experiences of women living in the borderlands of deep south Texas In this fraught political climate much has been written about the U S Mexico border but what about the people who call this place home Three women each with a different relationship to the borderlands offer their vision of the cultural linguistic and ecological landscape of a complex region that is full of both majestic beauty and stark reality The resulting poems and images explore what it means to be a woman in this contested space and hopes to spark questions and conversation about identity feminisms and the idea of cross cultural and cross genre collaboration Borderland Mujeres was created through a feminist collaborative process In some instances the images inspired the poems In others the poems inspired the images Many pieces were born from conversations between the three women about everyday life The process illustrates the complex relationship between languages translation and transference This project is an example of how permeable borders can be even in our fraught political landscape that seeks to reinforce the rigid boundaries that separate us These images and poems exist as the bougainvillea in barbed wire a declaration of beauty and empowerment amidst the rugged landscape Borderlands Mujeres offers a counter narrative about the border to the dominant masculinized and militarized narrative purported by politicians the media and literature written about the region and culture by outsiders Taking inspiration from Gloria Anzaldua s Borderlands La Frontera this approach uses a variety of styles from montage to imagaic to narrative and lyric to depict the experience of hybridity and diversity in the lives of women on the border The images are layered juxtaposed and blended to document and visually express the vibrant living experiences of womanhood in this space Borderland Mujeres is a celebration of the beauty and strength of the diverse women who straddle different cultures languages and worlds
