Celluloid Mischief Erich Goode,2023-05-30 Celluloid Mischief examines the portrayal of wrongdoing and deviant behavior in film The premise is that films are material products of both individual and collective imagination that reflect the values and norms of the society that produce them On this basis it is possible to perceive how society understands and classifies particular kinds of behavior and assigns or designates classes of people and actions as good or bad So called wrongdoing in movies then tells us about real life norms the violation of those norms and the efforts to punish and control the perpetrators of those violators Motion pictures embody information about the social world they constitute a universe of raw particulars that await excavation and analysis By applying the appropriate approach what happens on the screen can guide us to an understanding of society and culture Films are commercial products the people who make them are members of a society influenced by that society who attempt to appeal to lots of other members of that society by producing something that they want to see A society s films tell us a great deal about the taste and proclivities of the society that produce and consume them Using postwar and contemporary Hollywood cinema as case studies this book demonstrates the complex and evolving nature of modern America s social economic and political values Paul Sheckler,2011-04 Music, Miles and Memories Don Pannan,2018-10 This is a true story of a boy born to farming parents during the later stage of World War II Don Pannan s early childhood memories include talk of the war and fear of invasion by the Japanese His early years were spent in the farming community of Binya near Griffith in southern New South Wales At age 12 he was sent to a boarding hostel at Hay for secondary education His mother moved into Griffith and he became a student at Griffith High School He gained employment in a Public Service organisation and at around age 17 started a band with two friends The band became a very popular band and played all around Griffith and surrounds all through the nineteen sixties The sixties was a very exciting time for these young men and indeed for anyone who grew up through this great decade He spent time in Sydney and Wagga before moving to Tamworth in 1979 He worked for Insurance Companies and eventually bought into a small insurance business which became a large and respected insurance business in Tamworth The story is sprinkled with original poetry which is something that comes easily to this Author there is an addendum with many poems overall there are more than seventy original poems in this book The story is about the life and times of Don Pannan the Author his life as a boy his times at Hay Griffith Wagga Sydney and Tamworth a farm boy a sixties Musician a Public Servant Insurance man a Father a Poet and a Grey Nomad
