Toni Morrison Sula V0:

Understanding Toni Morrison's Beloved and Sula Solomon Ogbede Iyasere, Marla W. Iyasere, 2000 Toni Morrison's Beloved is probably the most widely studied work of contemporary fiction both in the United States and abroad. The novel appeals to readers across various disciplines as such it is now required reading in courses in English and American literature, feminist and multicultural criticism and American history in universities and colleges around the world. The novel's universal appeal with its unique structure and compelling story has made it the subject of numerous scholarly essays published in reference journals. To make the best of these essays more accessible to university students, this book offers a volume of selected essays with a critical introduction and annotated bibliography.

The Artist as Outsider in the Novels of Toni Morrison and Virginia Woolf Lisa Williams, 2000-08-30 Examines the literary relationship between Woolf and Morrison and how differing structures of domination define their art.

Calypso Magnolia John Wharton Lowe, 2016-02-08 In this far-reaching literary history, John Wharton Lowe remakes the map of American culture by revealing the deep, persistent connections between the ideas and works produced by writers of the American South and the Caribbean. Lowe demonstrates that a tendency to separate literary canons by national and regional boundaries has led critics to ignore deep ties across highly permeable borders. Focusing on writers and literatures from the Deep South and Gulf states in relation to places including Mexico, Haiti, and Cuba, Lowe reconfigures the geography of southern literature as encompassing the circum-Caribbean, a dynamic framework within which to reconsider literary history, genre, and aesthetics. Considering thematic concerns such as race, migration, forced exile, and colonial and postcolonial identity, Lowe contends that southern literature and culture have always transcended the physical and political boundaries of the American South. Lowe uses cross-cultural readings of nineteenth and twentieth-century writers including William Faulkner, Martin Delany, Zora Neale Hurston, George Lamming, Cristina Garcia, Édouard Glissant, and Madison Smartt Bell, among many others, to make his argument. These literary figures, Lowe argues, help us uncover new ways of thinking about the shared culture of the South and Caribbean while demonstrating that southern literature has roots even farther south than we realize.

Memory Is Another Country Nathalie Huynh Chau Nguyen, 2009-08-25 2010 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title. The act of remembering is a means of bringing the past alive and an imaginative way of dealing with loss. It has been the subject of much recent scholarship and is of particular relevance at a time of widespread transnational migration. This book is a valuable and original contribution to the field of diaspora studies. Based on in-depth oral narratives of forty Vietnamese women, it deals with themes both universal and specific to this diaspora: divergent memories in families, the significance of homeland, the return to Vietnam, cross-cultural relationships, intergenerational tensions, and the issues of silence and unspoken trauma among Vietnamese refugees. It is the first study to apply memory and trauma theories to a substantial base of oral narratives by Vietnamese women in the West. Nguyen argues that understanding of these narratives provides not only an insight into the way Vietnamese women have dealt with loss but also illuminates the experience of the wider Vietnamese diaspora and other refugees Bibliographic Guide to Womens Studies 1998 New York Public Library Staff,1999-08 The Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L.
