Drozd, 2025-05-20 Modern Czech culture has experienced a series of political traumas starting in the 1930s Despite the difficult shifting conditions Czech writers have not only managed to contend with the situation but have produced many fine literary efforts This volume consists of seven articles by an international team of authors who are specialists in Czech literature The first four chapters treat very well known writers There is one chapter on Karel apek and his play The White Plague There are three chapters on Milan Kundera the internationally best known Czech writer with one of these chapters covering both Kundera and Bohumil Hrabal The last three chapters deal with more recent and or lesser known writers One chapter treats the Brothers Topol and the music underground one chapter treats Czech literary responses to the period of the Normalization and the final chapter treats Eda Kriseov This volume presents new perspectives on Czech literature and will be of interest to specialists in Czech literature and history Central European literature and history Nazism and Communism For example although much has been written about Kundera the three articles provide further treatments of three different aspects of his work his ties to Russian literature his misogyny and the philosophical content of his novels Specialists interested in the period of the Normalization and after will find the last three chapters particularly useful The chapters are suitable for classroom use in courses in both Czech literature and Czech or Central European history All material from Czech language sources presented in the chapters is given in English translation Prague Palimpsest Alfred Thomas, 2010-10-15 A city of immense literary mystique Prague has inspired writers across the centuries with its beauty cosmopolitanism and tragic history Envisioning the ancient city in central Europe as a multilayered text or palimpsest that has been constantly revised and rewritten from the medieval and Renaissance chroniclers who legitimized the city s foundational origins to the modernists of the early twentieth century who established its reputation as the new capital of the avant garde Alfred Thomas argues that Prague has become a paradoxical site of inscription and effacement of memory and forgetting a utopian link to the prewar and pre Holocaust European past and a dystopia of totalitarian amnesia Considering a wide range of writers including the city's most famous son Franz Kafka Prague Palimpsest reassesses the work of poets and novelists such as Bohumil Hrabal Milan Kundera Gustav Meyrink Jan Neruda Václav Nezval and Rainer Maria Rilke and engages with other famous authors who wrote Prague including Guillaume Apollinaire Ingeborg Bachmann Albert Camus Paul Celan and W G Sebald The result is a comparative interdisciplinary study that helps to explain why Prague more than any other major European city has haunted the cultural and political imagination of the West 360 Degrees of Reading W. Censorship, Indirect Translations and Non-translation Jaroslav Spirk, 2014-09-18 Indirect Translations and Non Translation The Fateful Adventures of Czech Literature in 20th century Portugal a pioneering study of the destiny of Czech and Slovak literature in 20th century Portugal is a gripping read for anyone seeking to look into intercultural exchanges in Europe beyond the so called dominant or central cultures Concentrating on relations between two medium sized lingua and socio cultures via translation this book discusses and thoroughly investigates indirect translations and the resulting phenomenon of indirect reception the role of paratexts in evading censorship surprising non translation and by extension the impact of political ideology on the translation of literature In drawing on the work of Ji Lev and Anton Popovi two outstanding Czechoslovak translation theorists this book opens up new avenues of research both theoretically and methodologically As a whole the author paints a much broader picture than might be expected Scholars in areas as diverse as translation studies comparative literature reception studies Czech literature and Portuguese culture will find inspiration in this book By researching translation in two would be totalitarian regimes this monograph ultimately contributes to a better understanding of the international book exchanges in the 20th century between two non dominant or semi peripheral European cultures

Transformative Fictions Daniel Just, 2022-07-27 Transformative Fictions World Literature and Personal Change engages with current debates in world literature over the past twenty years addressing the nature of literary influence in centers and peripheries the formation of transnational literary and pedagogical canons and the role of translation and regionalism in how we relate to texts from around the globe The author Daniel Just argues for a supranational but sub global perspective of regions that emphasizes practical reasons for reading and focuses on the potential of literary texts to stimulate personal transformation in readers

One of the recurring dilemmas in these debates is the issue of delimitation of world literature. The trouble with the world as a frame of reference is that no single researcher is bound to have the in-depth knowledge and linguistic skills to discuss works from all countries. In response, this book revives literary theory and recasts it for the purposes of world literature by making a case for the continuing relevance of literature in the age of new media. With the examples of fictional and nonfictional writings by Milan Kundera, Witold Gombrowicz, and Bohumil Hrabal, Just shows that regional literatures offer differing methods of activating readers and thereby prompting personal change. This book would be of general interest to anyone who wants to explore personal change through literature but is particularly indispensable for literary professionals, researchers, and postgraduate and graduate students.

Writing Underground Martin Machovec, 2019-12-01. Vbor ze studi literárního historika a editora Martina Machovce, který vznikaly v posledních dvou dekádách 2000-2018, představuje celou řadu fasetů a ověřuje fenomén undergroundu. V jednotlivých studiích se zabývá zejména undergroundovou literaturou z okruhu I. M. Jiřouse a rockové skupiny The Plastic People of the Universe, ale věnuje pozornost i irmsouvislostem této literatury jejím předchůdcům z 50. let okruhu Egona Bondyho a Ivo Vodse, která roli ve společnosti Charty 77, vzbudila na angloamerickém prostředí nebo hudebním a scénickém realizacím a způsobu, jakým byly tyto texty v samizdatu. In this collection of writings produced between 2000 and 2018, the pioneering literary historian of the Czech underground, Martin Machovec, examines the multifarious nature of the underground phenomenon. After devoting considerable attention to the circle surrounding the band The Plastic People of the Universe and their manager, the poet Ivan M. Jirous, Machovec turns outward to examine the broader concept of the underground, comparing the Czech incarnation not only with the movements of its Central and Eastern European neighbors but also with those in the world at large. In one essay, he reflects on the so-called P. lnoc Editions, which published illegal texts in the darkest days of the late forties and early fifties. In other essays, Machovec examines the relationship between illegal texts published at home (samizdat) and those smuggled out to be published abroad (tamizdat), as well as the range of literature that can be classified as samizdat, drawing attention to movements frequently overlooked by literary critics. In his final, previously unpublished essay, Machovec examines Jirous's Report on the Third Czech Musical Revival not as a merely historical document but as literature itself.
