Help Your Child to Read: Teach Yourself Dee Reid, Diana Bentley, 2010-11-26 Help Your Child to Read Teach Yourself shows you how to develop your child's skills and foster a love of books from an early age. From discovering the benefits of singing and rhyming together to learning letters and later helping them at school, it gives you all the practical advice you need to confidently help your child whatever their age and reading ability. Teach Yourself, the world's leading learning brand, is relaunched in 2010 as a multiplatform experience that will keep you motivated to achieve your goals. Let our expert author guide you through this brand new edition with personal insights, tips, energising self-tests and summaries throughout the book. Go online at www.teachyourself.com for tests, extension articles and a vibrant community of like-minded learners. And if you don't have much time, don't worry: every book gives you 15 and 10 minute bites of learning to get you started. Gives your child a head start. Shows you how to read with your baby. Explains how to teach basic letters. Shows you how to help them make progress at school. Counting Your Way Through 1-2-3 Cathie Hilterbran Cooper, 1997. A comprehensive annotated guide to 663 counting books divided into ten subject areas. Each section includes a description of the subject area, an annotated bibliography of related books, and a number of activities that can be used in connection with counting and math books. Reproducible activity pages are included in each section. Illustrated Catalogue of Books, Standard and Holiday McClurg, Firm, Booksellers, Chicago, 1903. The American School Board Journal William George Bruce, William Conrad Bruce, 1900. The Publishers Weekly, 1880. The Complete Learning Spaces Book for Infants and Toddlers Rebecca T. Isbell, Christy Isbell, 2003. The Complete Learning Spaces Book for Infants and Toddlers is designed to help busy teachers meet the challenge of creating an effective learning environment for very young children. It includes ideas for planning, using and evaluating learning spaces that will captivate infants and toddlers and encourage the developmental process. Information for each learning space is complete with thorough illustrations, letters to parents, literacy connections and vocabulary lists. Learning objectives and assessments help determine the impact of each learning space on the children's development.
