

Example Research Paper

The following paper is an example research paper which you can use as a model for your research paper. Your paper should include more details and go more in-depth about your topic, but this paper shows the general outline you should follow. Pay attention to the facts that are cited using in-text citations. Remember to put information that is word-for-word in quotes. Ideas that are from an author but put into your words also need to be cited but not put in quotes. Please remember you can always ask Miss Maze for assistance!

Research Paper Introduction Paragraph Example

Attention Grabber: Have you ever wanted to play a sport that is fast and requires a lot of skill? Have you ever wanted a competitive game that involves a lot of endurance? If you have, then lacrosse is a great sport for you. Supporting Sentences: John Doe says, "Lacrosse is a game of thrills and excitement. There is always something entertaining going on" (Doe 44). This sport always has thrilling action going on, which makes playing that much more enjoyable. "Playing lacrosse always boosts my mood. It gets my mind concentrating, and my body gets pushed to the limit" (Smith 45). Thesis Sentence: Lacrosse is a great game because of the game's speed, the aerobic endurance needed by the players, and the game strategies involved.

Research Paper First Body Paragraph Example

Transition Sentence: To begin, lacrosse is a wonderful game due to the speed of the game. Supporting Sentences: John Doe says, "The game of lacrosse can change in the blink of an eye, from one shot to one save to one interception" (Doe 44). This sport always has incredible passes and quick game play. "Playing lacrosse means always being in the game: mentally, physically, and emotionally. If you let down for one second, you could ruin the whole game" (Smith 45). Some lacrosse players can shoot the ball at incredible speeds, and some players are incredibly quick. Bob Jones says, "Lacrosse is such an amazing sport. It is almost like a combination of hockey and soccer.

Teaching Academic Writing in European Higher Education Lennart Björk, Gerd Bräuer, L. Rienecker, Peter Stray Jørgensen, 2005-12-30 DAVID R RUSSELL English Department of Iowa State University U S A I was fortunate to attend as a visitor from the U S the first European Association for the Teaching of Academic Writing EATAW conference in 2001 at Groningen I was struck by the similarities in the challenges higher education faces on both sides of the Atlantic in terms of developing students academic writing and students learning through writing It is indeed an international problem But I was equally struck by the profound differences in responding to these challenges among nations institutions disciplines and even within disciplines The essays in this extraordinary volume address a growing demand for help with academic writing on the part of students and academic staff alike And they do so in ways that bring fresh approaches not only to Europeans who have only recently begun to study academic writing but also to researchers and academic staff in the U S where we have a century old tradition of attention to the problem but are much in need of these fresh approaches Academic writing has become a problem in higher education all around the world because higher education sits smack between two contradictory pressures On one end far more students and far more diverse students come streaming into higher education bringing in a far greater diversity of linguistic resources often interpreted as standards are falling as Frank Haacke Tente point out
