

Assessment Task 1

Answer.1

- 1: You must write in sentences.
- 2: Subjects and verbs in sentences must agree with each other.
- 3: You must use appropriate punctuation.
- 4: You must use the right vocabulary.
- 5: You must use the apostrophe correctly and with care.

Answer.2

Punctuation shows how the sentence should be read and makes the meaning clear. Every sentence should include at least a capital letter at the start, and a full stop, exclamation mark or question mark at the end.

Answer.3

Use commas in a series of three or more items.

Use a comma to separate two or more coordinate adjectives.

Answer.4

As you can see, a semicolon is a period above a comma. It is interesting to note that fact, because it is actually quite a good explanation of how a semicolon function. It is weaker than a period, but stronger than a comma.

Whereas a period indicates a full stop and a comma indicates a slight pause, the semicolon indicates a pause that is greater than a comma, but not as great as a period. It is a sort of "super-comma".

Answer.5

- Plain language gets your message across in the shortest time possible.
- More people are able to understand your message.
- There is less chance that your document will be misunderstood, so you spend less time explaining it to people. And if your document gives instructions, your readers are more likely to understand them and follow them correctly.
